By now you've probably heard about The Times-Picayune's new publishing schedule – Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays. On those three days, you'll find what is now spread over seven.

We think you'll easily find your way through your newspaper.

We took care to preserve what's familiar to you. Some sections have moved to different days. Some are altogether new. Reflections, for example, is an expanded Sunday opinions section. Black & Gold Extra is a special edition Saints tabloid. We offer this guide to help you through our new editions. As always, we appreciate your loyalty and welcome your feedback.
