

of four hundred and seven or twenty children."

Philadelphia, May 28.

Thursday arrived the ship Charleston, capt. Allibone, in 9 days from Charleston, and the brig El Buon Gen, captain —, in 42 days from Cadiz.

With captain Allibone came passengers,

Mrs. Young and her two daughters

Miss Randolph and Miss Gualdo

Mr. Graves, consul for the state of South Carolina, from the United Netherlands

General Pinkney and lady

Colonel Harriot

Major Butler, his lady and four daughters

Captain Butler

Captain Smith

Mr. Hartshorne

Mr. Gardner

Masters John and Peter Simmons, and several others

General Pinkney and major Butler, we hear, are delegates to the convention.

Friday, at the state house in this city, seven states were fully represented in convention: these forming a quorum, they proceeded to the choice of a president, and his excellency general Washington was unanimously elected to that important station.

Major William Jackson was at the same time appointed secretary to this honourable board.

On Saturday morning, between the hours of twelve and one, as Mr. Peter Knox, from Barrenhill, was coming to this city on horseback to market, he was attacked a little to the southward of the bridge over Peggs Run, near the one-mile stone, by three footpads, all of them dressed in short blue jackets and trowsers; they demanded his money, knocked him off his horse with a club, bruised his head, wounded him in the breast with the butt end of a pistol, and robbed him of his hat, silk handkerchief, and five silver dollars.

A gentleman being summoned by a rap at his door, was astonished upon opening it, to find one of the convicts soliciting charity, out of the reach of the keeper, unincumbered by chains, and reeling with intoxication. He was afterwards seen paying similar visits to several houses in the neighbourhood. The repeated instances of unpardonable neglect in the execution of the late penal law, must evince, that in the business of legislation, it is as essential to consider what is practicable as what is wise and humane: that government is poorly cal-

* The Spin Ho
tion of whores, re
latter two are gene
their shoulders wit
lows, &c.

The following Le benefit the

MANY years
Somersetshi
poor man's child,
of age, one of wh
when a man is
stretch it out, or r
tended by any oth
affected.

I prescribed a
rier's oil was one
parts affected to
was of no service.

The probable
living without the
ed my pity; and v
ther might be do
mind that the gl
lamb and kid skins
to be soft and su
with a liquid ma
water.

Hereupon I real
this egg-liquor is f
tions from the part
membranes (by ar
may it not be as ef
living animal fibres
of contraction? I
in the case of this

I ordered the con
ly rubbed two or
quor, and by this
of his leg.

This egg-liquor
lowing manner, vi

Take the yolk
with a spoon to t
spoonful at a time,
agitating the mixt
water may be well
be applied to the
warm, by a gentle
or four times a da

This remedy I
and with the like h
I have communicat
vantage from it in