What did they say? Quick approval of the pending bill.

That is what they suggested to the Senate of the United States.

I believe that this telegram should be made a part of the RECORD, and I ask unanimous consent that the telegram be printed in the RECORD as a part of my remarks.

There being no objection, the telegram was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE—BIPARTISAN STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE
CLEVELAND, OHIO,
June 10, 1964.

Senator EVERETT DIRKSEN,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D.C.:

We, the 40 undersigned Governors of the United States of America, record our conviction that the prompt enactment of civil rights legislation by the Congress of the United States is urgently in the national interest and that the civil rights legislation now pending before the Senate of the United States should be voted upon and approved, and that copy of this statement of principle be transmitted to the President of the United States and to each Member of the Senate of the United States.

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, in line with the sentiment offered by the poet, "Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind," so every denial of freedom, every denial of equal opportunity for a livelihood, for an education, for a right to participate in representative government diminishes me.

There is the moral basis for our case. It has been long and tedious; but the mills will continue to grind, and, whatever we do here tonight as we stand on the threshold of a historic rollecall, those mills will not stop grinding.

So, Mr. President, I commend this bill to the Senate, and in its wisdom I trust that in bountiful measure it will prevail.

I close by expressing once more my gratitude to the distinguished majority leader for the tolerance that he has shown all through this long period of nearly 100 days.

But standing on the pinnacle of this night, looking back, looking around, looking forward, as an anniversary occasion requires, this is "the year that was," and it will be so recorded by the bone pickers who somehow put together all the items that portray man's journey through time that is history. I am prepared for the vote.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The bill having been read the third time, the question is, Shall it pass? The yeas and nays have been ordered, and the clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll. The result was announced—yeas 73, nays 27, as follows:

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The guests in the galleries will refrain from conversation and comment. The Senate will be in order.

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. HUMPHREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill as amended by the Senate be printed.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM—ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY

Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, I should like to query the majority leader with regard to the schedule for next week. I would like to know whether the Senate will adjourn until Monday.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, in view of the circumstances, there will not be the usual Saturday session.

I ask unanimous consent that at the conclusion of business today, the Senate stand in adjournment until 12 noon, on Monday next.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, in response to the question asked by the distinguished minority leader, it is anticipated that on Monday the Senate will start consideration of the Interior appropriation bill, to be followed, although not necessarily in this order, by the Treasury and Post Office appropriation bill, the atomic energy authorization bill, the National Aeronautics and Space authorization bill.

I would also, for the information of the Senate, state that after consulting with the distinguished minority leader—and I would hope with the concurrence of the Senate—we would be allowed to pass a number of unobjected-to items on the calendar. They are items which have been cleared. We would like to do it this evening.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Illinois is recognized.

NATIONAL COMMISSION ON FOOD MARKETING

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair lays before the Senate a message from the House of Representatives, amending the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 71) to establish a National Commission of Food Marketing to study the food industry from the producer to the consumer, which was, to strike out all after the resolving clause and insert:

That there is hereby established a bipartisan National Commission on Food Marketing (hereinafter referred to as the "Commission").
