

cold war patriots

Resource Fair

for Current & Former Nuclear Workers

Attention
Current and Former
Savannah River
Site Employees:

You don't want to miss this!

Cold War Patriots

is hosting a worker's resource fair which helps connect former and current nuclear workers to information and resources they may need.

Cold War Patriots is a non-profit, pro-worker organization whose mission is to help former nuclear and uranium workers stay connected and informed on the issues that affect them.

Cold War Patriots is hosting a resource fair:

March 15, 2012

10:00 am to 2:00 pm

H. Odell Weeks Center

1700 Whiskey Road, Aiken, SC 29803

A unique opportunity for:

- ★ Current and former Savannah River Site Workers & family members
- ★ Seniors in need of health care, financial, or safety information

Features of the Resource Fair:

- ★ Free Admission for everyone
- ★ Entertainment
- ★ Door prizes
- ★ Refreshments
- ★ Attendee access to services:
 - Blood pressure checks, Vital Sign Checks, Health Screenings and more

A Flat Panel TV and hourly door prizes will be given away at this event!

Please contact CWP for more information:

888.903.8989 | info@coldwarpatriots.org | www.coldwarpatriots.org

March 15, 2012

Cold War Patriots Resource Fair Exhibits:

Cold War Patriots

North Augusta Resource Center

Center for Primary Care

Cancer Center Oncology

Cumberland Village

Harbor Chase

TLC

Building Trades Medical Screening Program

Regency Hospice

Right at Home

Long Term Liaisons

Atomic Weapons Employee Consultants, LLC

Savannah River Site Retirees Association (SRSRA)

Professional Case Management

Aging, Disability & Transportation Resource Center