

Trial Defense Services- Baumholder

Defending America's Blood and Treasure for Over 30 Years!

If you are suspected of a crime, you have the absolute right under the Constitution and the UCMJ to remain silent. You don't have to say anything. In addition, you have the right to consult with a defense attorney before, during, and after any questioning by authorities on a criminal matter.

For Soldiers, TDS is free of charge and confidential. Your rights are important because your silence cannot be held against you in court. Your statements, however, CAN be used against you. Please give your right to remain silent and to counsel serious thought, and consider speaking to an attorney at your TDS office before you make a statement.
