Question #1

"Why are so many cars left unclaimed on post without the MP or SPs towing them to prevent any terrorist using them as a launching platform?"

And... "It's true: many cars without license plates occupy the rare parking lots for long periods of time. They should be fined/towed."

Answer

Many times the Installation Coordinators office will inform us of these types of vehicles. But residents can send the MP desk this information so we can track vehicles, notify violators, and tow/ticket if necessary. The Air Force police have the towing contract and we work with them to ensure abandoned vehicles are handled appropriately. Again, please notify the MP desk if you have information regarding abandoned vehicles and make a complaint.

Question #2

"Regarding the parking area by Building 1032 (Vogelweh Elementary School). The area was the previous location for the Self-Help store. Any word on when the area will be worked on? Children and adults alike have been injured walking around or out of the area trying to get to the school."

Question #3

"The outlining theme of the last meeting was that the KMCC provides a lot of support to Army personnel. With that being said, it has come to my understanding that Army Civilian Contractor card holders cannot sign in people at the Ramstein gate. Although they can at Army Operated Kasernes. Is this issue being looked at? If so, is there a plan in place to allow Army Civilian contractors to sign in individuals such as family members, for the use of the KMCC mall. Thank you, SGT Andre Mailhot."

Answer

Thank you for your question. We are always looking to improve procedures and customer service while balancing the Force Protection posture for our installations.

As a general rule, Air Force policy states that sign-in privileges are normally not granted to contractors. The 86th Airlift Wing Integrated Defense Plan (IDP), which was developed from Air Force and USAFE instructions, states that contractors with Base Installation Passes coordinated through their Command sponsor can escort personnel "for official business unless authorized otherwise in the remarks section on the back of the Installation Pass." In order to provide the most secure environment for the sensitive missions on Ramstein, you may find our access procedures more stringent than other military installations.

An exception to the general rule exists for permanent DoD contractors who are processed as DoD ID-card holders. These contractors are issued a CAC with an identifying green stripe and are authorized sign-in privileges. Our Visitor Control Center personnel have been reminded of this exception and if your CAC has the identifying green stripe, I apologize for the inconvenience.

As a reminder, base escort privileges are separate and distinct from Commissary, Exchange, and MWR privileges.

Thank you again for your bringing this issue to our attention and allowing us the opportunity to review our procedures.

Question #4

"How could I nominate a colleague for extraordinary service to the community under the hidden heroes program? I have a colleague who has taken many wounded warriors out for sight seeing and dinners from Landstuhl hospital for the past five years. He will retire soon from the community and I would hope to get him some recognition for his outstanding efforts."
