OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION POSTED ON FEBRUARY 13, 2013

LEGAL NOTICE
ATTENTION

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations, which are mentioned below. If you want to request a pardon of the forfeiture property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The criteria for filing a petition are found at Title 39 C.F.R. Section 233.9. You should file the petition within ten (10) days after the deadline to file Claim. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at the address listed below. Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18 U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.

The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations, which are mentioned below. If you want to request a pardon of the forfeiture property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The criteria for filing a petition are found at Title 39 C.F.R. Section 233.9. You should file the petition within ten (10) days after the deadline to file Claim. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at the address listed below. Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18 U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.

LEGAL NOTICE ATTENTION

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations, which are mentioned below. If you want to request a pardon of the forfeiture property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The criteria for filing a petition are found at Title 39 C.F.R. Section 233.9. You should file the petition within ten (10) days after the deadline to file Claim. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at the address listed below. Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18 U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.

LEGAL NOTICE ATTENTION

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations, which are mentioned below. If you want to request a pardon of the forfeiture property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The criteria for filing a petition are found at Title 39 C.F.R. Section 233.9. You should file the petition within ten (10) days after the deadline to file Claim. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at the address listed below. Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18 U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.

ATTENTION

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Washington, D.C. gives notice that the following properties were seized for various federal forfeiture violations, which are mentioned below. If you want to request a pardon of the forfeiture property, you may submit a petition for remission or mitigation. The criteria for filing a petition are found at Title 39 C.F.R. Section 233.9. You should file the petition within ten (10) days after the deadline to file Claim. You may contest the seizure in U.S. District Court by filing a claim with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at the address listed below. Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18 U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. The claim need not be made in any particular form, but shall identify the specific property being claimed, state the claimant's interest in such property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury. A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property but in no event shall the fine be less than $250.00 or greater than $5,000.00. Submit all documents to U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Asset Forfeiture Unit, P.O. Box 44373, Washington, DC 20026-4373. All documents, claims, petition or other correspondence shall be deemed filed with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service when received by U.S. Postal Inspection Service Asset Forfeiture Unit. Submissions by Facsimile or other electronic means will not be accepted.
