

Indian Lands in the United States

CANADA

ALASKA FEDERALLY RECOGNIZED INDIAN TRIBES

Legal Entities:
 * American Indian Reservations (AIRs) are legal entities having boundaries established by treaty, statute, and/or executive or court order. They are identified by either the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) for federal reservations or the individual states for state reservations.

AIR (FEDERAL)
 Air (State)

Statistical Entities:
 * Tribal Designated Statistical Areas (TDSA) are geographic areas delineated for 1990 census data tabulation purposes by tribal officials of federally and State-recognized tribes outside of Oklahoma that do not have a legally defined reservation or associated trust lands. TDSA's define areas only for data presentation purposes that generally contain American Indian population under tribal jurisdiction and/or for which the tribe provides benefits and services to its members.

TDSA (FEDERAL)
 Tdsa (State)

Statistical Entities:
 * Tribal Jurisdiction Statistical Areas (TJSA) are geographic areas delineated for 1990 census data tabulation purposes in Oklahoma by federally reservation. TJSA's define areas only for data presentation purposes that generally contain American Indian population over which one or more tribal governments have jurisdiction. TJSA's replace the tribe's "Historic Areas of Oklahoma" recognized for the 1980 census.

TJSA (FEDERAL)

GIS Data Sources:
