Program Overview

Grants.gov's Mission

Mission Statement

Grants.gov is the Federal Government's single site for federal grants with a mission to provide a common website to simplify competitive discretionary grants management and eliminate redundancies. The Department of Health and Human Services is the managing partner for the Grants.gov initiative, one of the 24 E-Gov initiatives generated in response to The President's Management Agenda.

Grants.gov Background

- Established as a Governmental Resource; E-Grants Initiative
 - Part of the President's 2002 Fiscal Year Management Agenda to Improve Government Services to the Public
- Concept Originates in the Federal Financial Assistance Management Improvement Act of 1999 (Public Law 106-107)
 - P.L. 106-107 Enacted in November of 1999

Grants.gov's Overview

Simplifies the grants management process while creating a centralized, online process to Find and Apply for over 1,000 grant programs from the 26 Federal grant-making agencies.

Streamlines the process of awarding over $500 billion annually to state and local governments, academia, not-for-profits and other organizations.
