FOR

Otis Air National Guard Base is named for pilot, flight surgeon, and eminent Boston City Hospital surgeon, Lt. Frank "Jesse"

Lt. Frank

Otis

Otis, a member of the 101st Observation Squadron who was killed on Jan. 11, 1937 when his Douglas O-46A crashed while on a cross-country training mission.

From fund raising efforts, to site prep, to materials purchase, to final brick placement, the entire project has been an act of dedication and devotion by members of the 102nd Civil Engineer Squadron and the members of both the Chief's and Airman's Councils. Each have donated more than 200 hours of their time to see the good idea become a reality.

Order forms may be turned into Tech. Sgt. Kerri Cole (kerri.cole@ang.af.mil) in the Public Affairs office or to Senior Airman Corey Scott (corey.scott@ang.af.mil) with the Airman's Council.

Proceeds will go directly into the MWR fund to keep the spirit of Team Otis goodwill going.

BRICK ORDER FORM

With the Otis Heritage Plaza brick campaign, you can literally leave your mark on Otis Air National Guard base!

WHAT IS THE OTIS HERITAGE PLAZA?

With the Otis Heritage Plaza brick campaign, you can literally leave your mark on Otis Air National Guard base!

The Otis Heritage Plaza is an area located at the flagpole on Grandville Avenue, Otis Air National Guard Base, Massachusetts, and is lined with a memorial brick walkway where you can immortalize your family member, co-worker, organization, etc. by purchasing a commemorative brick with an engraved message of your choosing.

WHAT YOU GET:

Brick size: 4" X 8" Brick color: Adobe blend

The cost is only $50 for up to 3 lines of text (20 characters per line).

You will also receive a certificate emailed to you with a personalized message that you can print and present as a gift. (You must select the box on the order form to receive the certificate)

Funding for the project is driven by brick purchases. The resulting profits go back into Morale, Welfare, and Recreation efforts for the 102nd Intelligence Wing as well as future upkeep requirements.
