

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
DEPENDENTS SCHOOLS
MEDITERRANEAN DISTRICT
LAJES UNIT SCHOOL

Shenae M. Wiley, the new Assistant Principal at Lajes ES/HS, is a passionate educator with over 17 years of teaching experience. Her dedication to student achievement is a lifetime commitment. Mrs. Wiley has classroom experience teaching grades 3-8. She has been fortunate to teach in the states of South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Her most recent teaching position was as a 3rd grade teacher at Humphreys American School in South Korea. Mrs. Wiley received her Bachelor's of Science degree in Elementary Education from Anderson College in 1995. She has two Master's of Arts degrees. Her first degree is in Curriculum and Instruction (2007) and the other one is in Administration and Supervision (2008). She received both of her Master's degrees from the University of Phoenix.

Shenae Wiley's educational background and experiences provided her various leadership opportunities. She has served as grade level chairperson at several schools. Hers was the model classroom for Reader's and Writer's Workshop. Mrs. Wiley has worked as a reading coach, as well as an Early Intervention Specialist for a Title I school. She has mentored several new teachers through her years of teaching, and has served as the Continuous School Improvement co-chairperson where she has led many professional development sessions and assisted with the coordination the school's QAR visit.

In order to provide leadership to promote student achievement, Mrs. Wiley believes in working closely with the faculty members, parents, and students. She is committed to Lajes' vision of contributing to the development of responsible students who will succeed in a changing world.

