Our Vision

Sweeping change is under way at Fort Jackson. We are on the right course to the future, beginning with a new vision: “Team Jackson, a proud legacy of training American Soldiers for over 90 years, committed to transforming individuals and institutions, while at the same time providing the highest quality of life and care for our Soldiers, Civilians and Families. Fort Jackson: Tradition, Training, Transformation.”

The vision statement was the first step in creating a comprehensive strategic plan for Fort Jackson. A team of military and civilian leaders this past year began moving ahead on a three-year campaign plan.

We have agreed to follow three general lines of operation — training, quality of life, sustainment and support — and get it all in one master document and measure ourselves against that document. The vision statement serves as the foundation for the campaign plan and outlines themes that define the direction of Fort Jackson.

One important concept is the vision’s holistic approach. The statement addresses “Team Jackson,” which includes military and civilian personnel and family members.

Team Jackson members comprise the Soldiers in all units. They are the civilians, from the contractor who works in the mess hall to the GS-5 in the 120th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception), to the civilian at DPTMS or Human Resources. Everyone on Fort Jackson contributes to the success of the mission and that is the mindset represented in the vision.

A major aspect of the vision statement, the motto and the campaign plan is the transformation of Fort Jackson.

Transformation affects all aspects of Fort Jackson, from short-term projects such as the development of new ranges to long-term sustainability studies, which look ahead as far as 30 years.

The vision connects the post’s training mission to its legacy. Everybody who’s trained here is part of that legacy that will continue. That tradition includes the post’s beginning in 1917 and the training of more than 500,000 troops during World War II.

The training of Soldiers remains the main focus of Fort Jackson, but training encompasses more than just Basic Combat Training. It also includes the training offered by Fort Jackson’s tenant organizations, such as the Soldier Support Institute, the Drill Sergeant School, the Chaplain Center and School, and the Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment.

Whereas the vision statement outlines the intended state of Fort Jackson, the campaign plan will be a strategic road map to the future of the installation.

The motivation behind the plan is simple: Fort Jackson is a great place to serve our nation. Our task is to make it even better.

See Campaign Plan 2009-2011, Executive Summary, pages 51-56.

WELCOME

Welcome to Fort Jackson

"Victory Starts Here!"

Fort Jackson is the largest and most active Initial Entry Training Center in the U.S. Army, training 50 percent of all Soldiers and 70 percent of the women entering the Army each year. To provide the Army with trained, disciplined, motivated and physically fit warriors who espouse the Army's core values and are focused on teamwork, is the post's primary mission. Accomplishing that mission means training more than 45,000 Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training Soldiers every year.

The post has other missions as well.

Fort Jackson is home to the U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute, the U.S. Army Chaplains Center and School, and the Department of Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment.

The fort spans more than 52,000 acres, includes more than 73 ranges and field training sites and 1,100 buildings. Facilities that have been recently completed or are still under way include the U.S. Army 81st Regional Support Command, the Army Drill Sergeant School, Residential Community Initiative, the Joint Center for Religious Training and Education and the Fort Jackson National Cemetery.

Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, civilians, retirees and family members make up the Fort Jackson community, which continues to grow in numbers and facilities. An additional 14,000 Soldiers attend courses at the Soldier Support Institute, Chaplain Center and School and Drill Sergeant School annually. More than 4,200 active duty Soldiers and their 10,000 family members are assigned to the installation and make this area their home. Fort Jackson employs almost 4,700 civilians and provides services for more than 105,000 retirees and their family members.

Located in the heart of the Midlands region of South Carolina, Fort Jackson was incorporated into the city of Columbia in October 1968 and is midway between New York and Miami. Columbia is the only southeastern U.S. city which boasts direct access to three interstate highways, Interstate 20, Interstate 26 and Interstate 77, and indirect access to two additional interstates within 100 miles, Interstate 95 and Interstate 85. Average temperatures in the region range from a high of 92 degrees in July to a low of 34 in January. Annual rainfall averages around 48 inches.

The fort has a significant economic impact on the local area, contributing $2.6 billion to the local economy. In addition, more than 100,000 family members visit the Midlands area each year to attend basic training graduation activities, patronizing local hotels, restaurants and shopping areas.

Since 1917, when fighting men were needed during World War I, Fort Jackson has had a proud history of training Soldiers for America's Army. The post's initial site of 1,200 acres was purchased and donated to the federal government by the citizens of Columbia. This began a tradition of mutual respect and cooperation between the city and Fort Jackson. The tradition continues today.

ARRIVAL

Columbia Metropolitan Airport (CAE)

If a person arrives in the area by plane, he or she will land at the Columbia Metropolitan Airport, built in 1965 and continuously being upgraded. The airport is located 8 miles from the heart of the city.

Transportation to and from the airport includes commercial buses, limousines and taxis. The airport's military assistance desk can provide information Monday through Friday, 5 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Reporting In

All Soldiers, regardless of rank or grade, must report to the Fort Jackson Welcome Center during non-duty hours only, Monday through Friday, after 4 p.m. and all day on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. During duty hours, all permanent party Soldiers should report, in uniform, to the Strom Thurmond Soldier Service Center, Building 5450, Strom Thurmond Boulevard.

The Welcome Center is located at 4394 Strom Thurmond Blvd., just inside Gate 2, Forest Drive (I-77, Exit 12). A 24-hour operation, the Welcome Center is staffed and ready to serve all Soldiers and anyone needing information or directions on Fort Jackson. The Welcome Center can be reached at (803) 782-9802. For a reservation at Fort Jackson lodging, call toll free (800) 276-6884.

Soldiers requesting leave extensions should call Officer Management at 751-6606 or Enlisted Management at 751-4411, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. After 4:30 p.m., leave extensions must be coordinated through the Staff Duty Officer by calling 751-7611.

Inbound Household Goods/ Unaccompanied Baggage

Incoming Soldiers should, at their first opportunity, contact the Transportation Office in the Strom Thurmond Building, Room 102, if they have unaccompanied baggage or household goods en route to Fort Jackson. In the event that property has not arrived here, Soldiers should provide a work and/or contact telephone number. This initial contact may save the Soldier considerable time in arranging for delivery. For more information about inbound household goods shipments, call (803) 751-7694/7695. Because of the high volume of calls received, contact information can be faxed to the "Inbound Section" at (803) 751-4437. Be sure to include the full name of sponsor and the area code with phone numbers.

Outbound Household Goods/ Unaccompanied Baggage

Soldiers departing the installation for permanent change of station, retirement or separation should contact the Personal Property Branch at 751-5137/5138 to arrange an outbound counseling at least 30 days in advance of their anticipated move. A 60-day advance notice is required for the months of May through August due to the high volume of personnel relocating. DoD or DA civilians departing on a permanent change of station overseas should do the same thing.

On the date of counseling, the member should bring four copies of his/her orders for each type of shipment to be made (HHG to destination, HHG to storage, baggage, etc.) and an inventory sheet of items to be moved. Inventory sheets are available in advance in Room 102 of the Strom Thurmond Building, 5450 Strom Thurmond Blvd.

Outbound Travel Services

Personnel Movements Branch, located in Building 4350 on Magruder Avenue, is the place to visit for all official travel needs. Personnel Movements Branch arranges travel and issues tickets for TDY, PCS and ETS moves. This office also processes passport and visa applications. Proper identification and orders are needed to arrange any of these services. Port calls and dependent travel services are handled by appointment. Call 751-6053/7531. To make a TDY reservation, call 782-2966.

Uniform Policy

The Army Combat Uniform (ACU) may be worn off post. Soldiers are not permitted to consume alcoholic beverages in any off-post establishment while wearing ACUs. ACUs may not be worn at off-post sporting events, theaters or other public entertainment or other events. ACUs will not be worn off-post to social or official functions when it would be appropriate to wear the service uniform or civilian attire. ACU sleeves will be worn down at all times. Sailors or deploying Soldiers authorized to wear the Desert Combat Uniform are permitted to wear the DCU uniform off post. Uniforms will be worn properly bloused, zipped and buttoned with sleeves worn down. Utility uniforms will be serviceable and present a clean appearance if worn off post.

Driver's License

Military personnel and their family members are not required to obtain South Carolina driver's licenses or license plates as long as they have valid ones from other states. Expiration of a service member's driver's license varies according to its state of origin. Upon arrival in South Carolina, motorists should contact the South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles to determine the laws governing current licenses. If a person does not have a valid driver's license, he or she must pass a written examination and a road test ($2 test fee) within 90 days of arrival. The driver's license fee is $12.50. A learner's permit ($2.50 fee) may be issued at the age of 15 and an unrestricted license at the age of 16. One of the nearest DMVs to the post is located at 1630 Shop Road, Columbia, SC 29202. Call (803) 737-8350 for further information, or log onto <http://www.scdmvmvonline.com>.

Vehicle Registration

Fort Jackson is a limited access installation. All vehicles must be registered with the installation. Authorized personnel (active duty/retired military, DoD civilians and contractors) can obtain a decals for their vehicle in the Strom Thurmond Building, Room 114, Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. and closed from 1 to 2 p.m. for lunch. Registrants are required to show proof of insurance, vehicle registration, driver's license and military identification.

The installation motorcycle policy applies to all Soldiers at all times, civilians while on the installation, and all civilians operating a motorcycle off post on official military business. All motorcycle owners are required to successfully complete the approved Motorcycle Safety Foundations (MSF) course before registering their motorcycle on Fort Jackson. The course is provided by the Fort Jackson Safety Office at no cost to military personnel or DoD civilians, and personnel will not be charged leave to attend the course. All operators and passengers must wear the following personal protective equipment when operating a motorcycle:

- Department of Transportation approved helmet properly fastened; Soldiers must wear a helmet on and off post regardless of South Carolina State Law;
- Impact or shatter resistant goggles, wrap-around goggles or full face shield (attached to helmet);
- Long pants;
- Long sleeved shirt or jacket;
- Full-fingered gloves;
- Leather boots or over-the-ankle shoes;
- A brightly colored reflective safety vest during daylight conditions and a retro-reflective vest during hours of darkness.

Vests will be clearly visible and not covered; a sash or belt does not satisfy this requirement.

Motorcycles must have two rear-view mirrors and have headlights turned on at all times.

South Carolina does not require a vehicle safety inspection sticker. However, personnel assigned permanently to Fort Jackson who have privately owned vehicles registered in a state that requires a state inspection must properly display a state inspection sticker on their vehicles.

On-Post Traffic Violations

Traffic violations are handled by the U.S. Magistrate Court. An offender may either pay the fine or go before a magistrate for resolution of the violation. Fines can exceed $1,000 for driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Assessment of traffic points usually accompanies traffic violations. In South Carolina, drivers may accumulate only 12 points.

The state has a compulsory seatbelt law, which also applies when driving on Fort Jackson. Additionally, children, 4 and under, traveling in a vehicle's front seat must be secured in restraining devices approved by the National Safety Products Council. Children, 5 and younger, traveling in the back seat must also be in a restraint. Children, 6 and older, who are traveling in the back seat, must wear seatbelts.

On Fort Jackson, the speed limit is 25 mph unless otherwise posted. Right turns on red are permitted, and speed limits on post, the interstate and other highways are strictly enforced. Additionally, state law mandates that when windshield wipers are in use, headlights must also be turned on.

Fort Jackson Military Police enforce all traffic and on-post regulations.

In 2006, Fort Jackson implemented a policy affecting the use of cell phones and other communication devices while operating a moving motor vehicle on post. Fort Jackson Supplement 1 to Army Regulation 190-5 prohibits the use of a cell phone or any other communications device while operating a moving motor vehicle. This includes devices that allow you to speak over a cell phone without using your hands to hold the phone or communication devices which have a speaker and microphone.

If you receive a phone call, or need to make a call, you are to first pull over to a safe location. Passengers in moving motor vehicles are allowed to use cell phones, but to minimize distraction to the vehicle operator, are not allowed to use a speaker or other device that allows the conversation to be heard by the driver. Signs reflecting this policy are posted at all gates, major intersections on the installation and at Hilton Field entrances and exits to inform and remind drivers and passengers about this policy. Armed Forces traffic tickets will be issued to operators of vehicles who do not follow this policy. For more information, call the Fort Jackson PMO at 751-3030.

Parking is not allowed on grassy areas or in reserved parking spaces/lots on the installation.

Parking is not allowed on sidewalks next to the barracks or billeting areas or in areas designated for loading or unloading.

Citations are given for vehicles playing loud music on post. Music should not be heard at a distance of more than 25 feet. Fort Jackson Supplement 1 to AR 190-5 requires all personnel riding bicycles on the installation to wear an approved bicycle safety helmet and follow safety guidelines.

There are many pedestrian crosswalks located around the installation. All vehicles must stop when approaching a crosswalk where a pedestrian is waiting to cross. Citations are issued for failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian and carry a $60 fine.

Running Routes

Running routes are established on Fort Jackson for the safety of the Soldiers doing physical fitness training in the morning. Since the majority of Soldiers on Fort Jackson are in Basic Combat Training and not accustomed to running in traffic, orange cones mark the run routes.

Running routes are closed Monday through Saturday, 5:50 to 7 a.m. Permanent party units' running routes usually are marked until 7 a.m., Monday through Friday. Moving a cone or driving through a coned barrier into a running route will result in a traffic fine and could lead to revocation of driving privileges on post. Running is prohibited on Marion Avenue in the morning hours except by Soldiers participating in group physical fitness training. Runners are prohibited from wearing headphones or earphones.

Bicycle Registration/Operation

Bicycle registration is highly encouraged at the PMO/Force Protection Branch. Registration of bicycle serial numbers is a crime prevention method. In the event a bicycle is stolen, investigators will have a starting point. Bicycle operators/passengers must wear approved helmets. The wearing of headphones or earphones is prohibited by anyone operating a motor vehicle, moped, motorcycle, or bicycle or while a person is running.

Weapons Registration

Personnel bringing privately owned weapons on the installation must register them with their unit commander/supervisor within five working days of assignment/employment using FJ Form 190-11-100.

Transportation and Storage of Privately Owned Weapons

Fort Jackson Supplement 1 to AR 190-11 prohibits keeping privately owned weapons in vehicles, even when properly secured, while at work or while attending to other business on the installation not directly related to authorized shooting activities on the installation.

If transporting a privately owned weapon in a vehicle, it must be done in a manner prescribed by the laws of South Carolina and must be properly secured by ensuring the weapon is unloaded and that the ammunition is secured in a separate container and area of the vehicle. Pistols must be secured in a closed glove box, console or trunk compartment, or if the vehicle does not have a trunk-type compartment, preferably in a separate locked container (such as a gun case), or in a locked gun rack. In addition, carrying concealed firearms on one's person except by military, state or federal law enforcement authorities in performance of their duties is prohibited.

Pets

Pet owners living on the installation must register their animals within five working days of their arrival. This should be done at the Fort Jackson Veterinary Clinic, Building 2445, Knight Avenue. To register a pet, proof of rabies immunization is required.

The Veterinary Treatment Facility provides limited medical care for pets, by appointment only. Such care includes immunizations, heartworm and intestinal parasite examinations, preventive medication, health certificate exams and sick-call evaluations.

The clinic can perform routine surgeries such as spaying, but it cannot board pets. Also, because it is a non-appropriated funds-supported facility that must support itself, fees are charged for all services and medications. Flea and tick products and other over-the-counter items are sold at the clinic. A $2 user's fee for each transaction is required.

Dogs and cats, three months and older, must be registered, and current rabies vaccinations are required.

Dogs must have current distemper, hepatitis, leptospirosis and parvo vaccinations and must be on heartworm prevention. Cats must be vaccinated for distemper, feline leukemia and upper-respiratory diseases.

All animals living on post must be microchipped. If this procedure is done off post, the microchip number must be reported to the VTF and filed in the animal's record. Cost of the procedure is $15.

If you plan to live off the installation and intend to use the Veterinary Clinic or specified areas of Fort Jackson for hunting, you also must register your animals at the clinic. Soldiers and their families living off post also need to review local ordinances regarding the supervision and upkeep of family pets. In Richland County, call the Department of Public Works Animal Control Office at 735-7322.

The Veterinary Clinic also maintains an animal shelter where unclaimed strays may be adopted. The clinic will neuter these animals at a reduced cost. All animals will be vaccinated and free of heartworm disease.

The clinic is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Please call 751-7160 for an appointment. Over-the-counter sales are available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Better Business Bureau

Investigate before you invest. Those are wise words, particularly when you are new to an area. Before you sign a lease, buy a new car or purchase furniture for your new home, determine whether a company is reputable.

An easy way to do this is to contact the Better Business Bureau of the Midlands, which maintains lists of businesses which have unresolved consumer complaints or unfair business practices. The bureau also can help consumers resolve complaints with businesses. All services are free. The Better Business Bureau of the Midlands is located at 2330 Divine St. For more information, call 254-2525. The Web site address is <http://www.columbia.bbb.org>.

Housing

Arriving at the Installation

All customers are required to in-process at the Housing Services Office before seeking off-post housing. Those who want to reside on-post will be referred to the Balfour Beatty Communities Office, located in Building 5939, Thomas Court.

On-post Housing

Fort Jackson's permanent party on-post housing is divided into eight areas, seven for enlisted and one for officers' families. Units are unfurnished, but they are equipped with central heating and air conditioning, refrigerators and gas ranges. Many of the units have built-in dishwashers. Portable dishwashers are available for others. Select homes also come with carpet in the bedrooms and wood-like flooring in common areas.

In August 2008, Family Housing was transferred to Balfour Beatty Communities, which is now responsible for managing on-post housing, constructing new homes, renovating existing homes and demolishing inadequate homes. Since this transition, Balfour Beatty Communities is also responsible for all landscaping within the on-post housing areas (with a few exceptions). Also, for the families living on-post, Balfour Beatty Communities LifeWorks program hosts weekly events, free of charge.

Applying for On-post Housing

Service members interested in living on-post will need to come to the Balfour Beatty Community Management Office located at 5939 Thomas Court (within the family housing area) where they can fill out an application, provide their PCS orders and meet with a resident specialist to complete the process.

During the meeting, the resident specialist solicits information from the resident such as size of family and housing requirements and collects copies of orders. Leave and Earning Statements, marriage certificates and copies of birth certificates may be required for verification.

Residents must apply for housing within 30 days of arrival to receive an eligibility date of the “date departed last permanent duty station” or they will be placed on a waiting list, effective the date of application. This is the date that determines the resident’s application date on the housing waiting list.

To apply early, please visit the Web site www.ftjacksonfamilyhousing.com and click on “Submit an Application.” A Web site will appear in the browser that will allow the service member to log on with his or her AKO address and password.

There is never a security deposit or application fee at Balfour Beatty Communities, and pets are welcome at no additional fee or deposit. Your rent at Balfour Beatty Communities includes your utilities (except phone, cable and satellite), renter’s insurance, landscaping and curbside garbage pickup.

With customer service in mind, office hours are designed to accommodate the residents’ needs.

Office hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Residents can submit applications, check their status on the waiting list, receive move-in instructions, place service requests, and discuss specific needs with the management staff.

In the case of an emergency, personnel are available around the clock with an immediate response and resolution. Balfour Beatty Communities is committed to long-term solutions to maintenance problems, not just cosmetic fixes and wants to foster pride of ownership in homes and community by effectively maintaining physical appearance, cleanliness, state of repair, and surrounding landscapes. To speak with a Balfour Beatty Communities Management staff member, call (803) 738-8275.

Off-Post Housing Referral

The Housing Services Office (HSO) is located in the Strom Thurmond Building, Room 240. The HSO is your first point of contact and will assist you in finding or locating housing off the installation. You are required to report to the HSO prior to making any arrangements for renting, leasing or purchasing any off post housing. You must report to the HSO in order to validate permissive TDY (PTDY) for house-hunting purposes. Failure to do so will result in the Soldier being charged leave for the entire period. DA Form 31 for PTDY must be approved by a lieutenant colonel or above.

The staff is ready to provide personal service and the most current rental information. If on-post housing is unavailable or you simply wish to reside off-post, the HSO staff will assist with locating suitable housing in the local community. Telephone numbers for HSO are 751-7566/5788.

Selecting a Home Off-Post

Select your home after considering the following:

- Is the size adequate for your family with the possibility of additions to your family?
- Is the cost within your means?
- Will the neighborhood be a safe, secure place for the growth and well-being of your family?
- Does the location provide access to shopping centers, churches, schools and playgrounds for your family?
- Once you've made your choice, read your lease carefully before signing. Make sure you're given a check-in inspection list, and note the condition of the residence at the time of occupancy. If there are problems when you take possession, have them stated on the inspection list with the landlord's signature on your copy.

Reviewing this will come in handy when you are ready to move out. A representative from HSO can accompany you to the check-in inspection at your request. Once you plan to move out, have the landlord sign the list again. If this is not done, you may find yourself paying for damages when you leave. The HSO staff can provide you with other tips about smart leasing.

Residential Lease Agreement

A written lease agreement is required for most residential leases. This agreement should outline the responsibilities and obligations of all parties and should constitute the entirety of the agreement. Before signing a lease agreement, make sure you understand everything written in the agreement.

Signing the agreement is generally evidence of that party's intent to be bound and agree to all the terms within the agreement. The HSO office can review the lease before you sign it.

Oral Representations

When you are shopping for a rental property, you may receive oral representations from property managers in regard to many aspects of the property. Oral representations that conflict with written provisions in a lease are generally unenforceable. Oral evidence that modifies a written lease agreement is likewise generally inadmissible in court. The written lease agreement controls the obligations of the parties and is generally the enforceable agreement.

Landlord and Tenant Obligations

The written lease agreement will outline the obligations of both the landlord and tenant. However, according to South Carolina law, landlords and tenants have general obligations when leasing a rental property. Landlords have a general obligation to maintain premises. Landlords must comply with all applicable building codes, make repairs and keep the premises in a fit and habitable condition, and keep all common areas safe. A landlord may also be required to make running water, hot water, and heat available as well as keep all electrical, gas, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilation, air conditioning and other facilities in working order if these obligations are not specified in the written agreement to be the tenant's obligations.

Tenants have a general obligation to comply with all building and housing codes, to keep the dwelling unit reasonably safe and clean, dispose of trash, keep all plumbing fixtures clean, and use all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and other facilities in a reasonable manner. The tenant may also incur further obligations as outlined by the written lease agreement.

Security Deposits

Security deposits are usually an up-front expense a tenant pays a landlord to secure interest in the leased property. Security deposits may also provide a means for a landlord to seek reimbursement for damage to the property or repair costs. Generally, a landlord has an obligation to maintain the premises and should not use the security deposit to pay for normal wear and tear of premises. According to South Carolina law, a landlord is required to provide the security deposit, less the amounts used for repairs and damages, along with an itemized list of expenses to a tenant no later than 30 days after termination of a written lease agreement. The tenant is required to provide the landlord with written notification of a forwarding address. If this provision is violated, a landlord may have a legal cause of action and may seek treble damages (three times the amount of damages) plus reasonable attorney's fees by statute.

Early Termination

A written lease agreement will usually contain the date of termination of the agreement. Parties may have the option of renewing the lease, usually with new terms or increased rent, by providing written notice. Most residential leases are for a one-year period, but may be longer or shorter. Termination of the lease before the termination date may give the aggrieved party a legal action for damages.

Damages are usually the monetary damages a landlord may incur for this early termination. Many leases also include early termination clauses and provisions that cover the procedures for terminating the lease early, often with some sort of penalty-fee provision and/or a liquidated damages clause designed to estimate the amount of monetary loss a party would suffer for this early termination. These clauses are often drafted to protect the landlord's interests and can make it difficult or costly for a tenant to terminate the lease early.

This is usually to ensure that the tenant either performs the obligations they agreed to in the contract for the contract period or compensates the landlord for this early termination.

SCRA and Lease Termination

The Service Member's Civil Relief Act of 2003 has some added provisions, which may help service members terminate a residential lease agreement prior to the termination date. The SCRA is not limited only to protections covering lease termination.

Other protections include issues such as security deposits, prepaid rent, eviction, installment contracts, credit card interest rates, mortgage interest rates, mortgage foreclosure, civil judicial proceedings and income tax payments. It also provides many important protections for military members on active duty.

Off-Post Conduct

Fort Jackson and the City of Columbia have maintained a model relationship for many years and the installation community is particularly proud of this fact. Those who work at Fort Jackson should be mindful that, because of their government association, their conduct reflects on the Army. Service members and their family members, who reside off-post, should be aware that such residency requires exemplary behavior in conducting business transactions safeguarding of private property, meeting obligations, and maintaining good housekeeping practices.

Personnel will abide by local laws and ordinances, and will extend the same respect toward local citizens and personal property as they do when living on the Installation.

Soldiers and their Families are good citizens, and should maintain that image with the local community. The following are reminders that could help you avoid tricky situations:

1. Pay rent and other fees by the agreed due date.
2. Keep the interior and exterior of your dwelling in a good state of cleanliness.
3. Control your children and pets.
4. Avoid damage to private property. When damage occurs, promptly make necessary repairs or assessments.
5. Learn and abide by all house rules promptly, particularly in multiple-family dwellings, such as apartments.

6. Notify the owner or landlord of needed repairs.
7. Avoid disturbing your neighbors; practice the Golden Rule.
8. Give required notification before termination of occupancy.
9. Leave your home clean and undamaged. This should be done regardless if it is outlined out in your lease agreement.

Permanent Party Unaccompanied Personnel Housing

Single Soldiers reside in the Freddie Stowers' Single Soldier Complex, located on Bragg Street. This complex is for housing of permanent party unaccompanied personnel who are E-5 and below. All single permanent party E-1s through E-5s entitled to BAH at the without dependent's rate are required to live in the Stowers' Complex unless granted advance approval by the Garrison Commander. A request for approval must be prepared on a DA Form 4187 (Personnel Action Form) with accompanying DA 4187-1-R and processed through the Soldier's entire chain of command. Once signed by the Soldier's chain of command, the request must be submitted to the Housing Director for processing. The GC is the only person who may authorize single Soldiers to live off post and receive BAH. The approval/disapproval from the GC will be returned through the chain of command. Pets and/or household goods are not considered justifications to reside off-post.

There are eight barracks buildings, all of which are designed in the one-plus-one style, and can house NCO's and Junior Enlisted Soldiers. This means that two Junior Enlisted Soldiers of the same gender each have a private bedroom but share a connecting kitchenette and bathroom.

NCOs are given the entire suite, with one of the bedrooms set up as a living room.

All suites are furnished with a single bed, bedside table, lamp, chair, an entertainment center, small refrigerator and microwave.

The rooms are pre-wired for cable and telephone, and services can be purchased from the local service providers. The community centers are equipped with a full-size kitchen, a television room with large screen TV, a game room with pool tables and a laundry room with washers and dryers.

There are basketball courts in the common areas, as well as outdoor grills in the patio areas. Storage bins are located in the basement of the community centers for small items, and non-temporary storage of excess household goods is available through the Transportation Division.

Qualified Recycling Program (QRP)

Fort Jackson's award winning Qualified Recycling Program (QRP) is dedicated to protecting the environment through these initiatives, Reduce-Reuse-Recycle. All members of the Fort Jackson community can do their part by bringing their recyclables to the QRP. The 24 hour drop-off point accepts aluminum and metal cans, cardboard, all types of office paper, newspapers, magazines, clear, brown and green glass and plastics (numbers one and two). There is also curbside recycling in the housing area every Wednesday. The QRP is located in Building 5671 on the hill overlooking Burger King, just off Lee Road. It is extremely important to protect our fragile environment, and we can do this by using these principles: Reduce-Reuse-Recycle. For more information, call 751-4208.

On-Post Banking

Two other financial institutions on the installation provide a wide range of services: the main office of AllSouth Federal Credit Union and a branch of Wachovia Bank.

AllSouth Federal Credit Union, located at the corner of Hill Street and Lee Road, has lobby hours 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and drive-up window hours Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Lobby and drive-up windows are open Friday until 6 p.m.

The Credit Union offers access to more than 11 ATMs on Fort Jackson that are connected to a number of ATM networks, including STAR and the Armed Forces Financial Network.

Home banking is available to members. Also available is Respond 24, a telephone teller service that allows members toll-free access to their accounts from any touch-tone phone in the continental United States.

Credit Union members also benefit from a wide variety of savings plans, auto loan programs, mortgage programs, Visa and MasterCard, full family membership, direct deposit, safe deposit boxes and branch offices located throughout the Columbia area. For more information, call 782-9830.

Wachovia Bank is located at the intersection of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Lee Road. The hours of operation are Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wachovia's drive-up hours are Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

For your convenience, Wachovia offers a variety of methods to manage money. Its extensive ATM network allows you to make deposits and withdrawals at four locations on post and at more than 1,300 locations in South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Virginia and Florida. Plus, you can make withdrawals at Honor and Cirrus locations worldwide. With Wachovia-On-Call, you can talk with a Wachovia banker from any phone 6:30 a.m. to midnight, seven days a week. With Wachovia Phone Access, you can obtain automated account information around the clock.

Wachovia offers a special package of discounts for service members and civilians employed by Fort Jackson. To learn more about this offer, call Wachovia's Fort Jackson office at 790-8345.

Army Career and Alumni Program

The Army Career and Alumni Program (ACAP) Center, located in Building 4600 at the corner of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Lee Road, assists active duty, Reserve and National Guard Soldiers, DoD civilians and their Family members in transitioning from military to civilian life.

The ACAP Center conducts congressionally mandated pre-separation counseling up to 24 months before retirement for retirees and up to 12 months prior to separation for all others. Family members are encouraged to participate in this process. The pre-separation counseling is conducted on a walk-in basis Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., and is an automated process. Pre-registration can be arranged and training scheduled in advance by calling (803) 751-4109.

The pre-separation counseling provides information to the client about all available transition services, and the ACAP Center makes referrals based upon the client's needs and desires. Soldiers located farther than 50 miles from an ACAP Center can register at www.acap.army.mil/transitioner/remote\_clients/index.cfm and receive remote services online.

After receiving pre-separation counseling, clients are scheduled for a Transition Assistance Workshop sponsored by the Department of Labor. The two-day workshop consists of instruction in resume writing, translating military experience into civilian terminology, marketing and networking skills, dressing for success and preparing for job interviews, job offers and salary negotiation and other job-search skills.

The ACAP Center has a job announcement resource book and a reference library. It assists clients in obtaining DD Form 2586, Verification of Military Experience and Training (VMET), and associated documents.

The ACAP Center has an automated self-service resume writer. The resume writer has two built-in formats for resumes, a built-in cover letter and thank-you letter format and word processing. All are produced on a LaserJet printer.

The ACAP Center also provides the following services and information:

- ACAP job listing database — a computer network containing hundreds of jobs acquired through local ACAP Centers and dispersed around the globe to other centers.
- Internet: Giving clients access to various Web sites, both federal and private industry.
- A practice interview module: Giving clients the ability to practice interview skills and to bounce their answers off already provided answers commensurate with their rank or position.
- A Job Assistance Training Application (JATA) for those unable to attend the monthly workshop.
- A scheduling module that enables clients to make their own appointments.
- A Federal Job Search seminar.

All services provided by the ACAP Center are free. The facility is open Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. For information, contact the ACAP Center at 751-4109/4104.

Army Community Service

Army Community Service (ACS) is the focal point for the installation's family-support services. ACS is located in the Strom Thurmond Building (Building 5450), Room 120. At Fort Jackson, ACS has restructured its services into three areas: Relocation and Referral services, Financial Assistance services, and Soldier and Family Advocacy services. Under Relocation and Referral services, ACS provides services necessary to support military personnel and their families. For more information, call 751-5256.

American Red Cross

The American Red Cross provides services to Armed Forces personnel, their families, and retirees, including family emergency messages, health and safety courses, disaster assistance and education, and blood mobile services. Red Cross offers volunteer opportunities at Moncrief Army Community Hospital and in the main office, located at 2179 Sumter Ave. Year-round activities for Youth Volunteers are scheduled. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The local office phone numbers are 751-4329/5923. After duty hours, weekends and holidays, active duty members and their families can call (877) 272-7337 regarding emergency messages and for access to emergency financial assistance.

Legal Assistance and Claims

The Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, 9475 Kershaw Road, provides legal assistance and claims services. Useful information can also be found on our Web site at www.jackson.army.mil/SJA.

Legal assistance: Client service hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each duty day. Reserve Component legal assistance attorneys are available on some weekends by appointment. The telephone number for appointments is 751-4287.

Clients wishing to speak with a legal assistance attorney are normally seen by appointments, which are generally available within three to five working days. Walk-in clients may see an attorney on Friday, 9 to 11 a.m.

Clients who need to obtain powers of attorney, notary services or routine information are assisted on a walk-in basis.

Claims: Claimants may file their 1840/1840R (Statement/Notice of Loss or Damage) anytime during office hours (9 a.m. to 4 p.m.). The telephone numbers for appointments to have a claim adjudicated and other information are 751-7504/3603.

Army Continuing Education System

The J. Willis Cante Education Center houses 18 classrooms, including three digital training classrooms, a science laboratory, four computer labs and two testing rooms. In addition, the 35,000-square foot structure houses a modern learning center, five college/universities offices, the Army Career Alumni Program and a faculty lounge. The Education Center, Building 4600, is located on Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Lee Road across the street from Burger King and next to the Thomas Lee Hall Library. For more information on available programs and services, call 751-5341.

College/Universities Courses

Midlands Technical College offers associate degrees in criminal justice and management at Fort Jackson. Numerous other degree and certificate programs are offered at the airport and Beltline campuses. Soldiers and family members are welcome at both campuses. The Beltline campus is located only 2 miles from Gate 2, and the airport campus is about 15 miles from Fort Jackson, near the Columbia Metropolitan Airport. Midlands Technical College is a member of Service Members Opportunity Colleges (SOC) and offers Liberal Arts transferable courses under this program.

The University of South Carolina on Fort Jackson offers a varied curriculum rooted in the liberal arts and aimed at preparing students to continue learning in higher education settings and throughout life. The curriculum allows students to complete associate degrees in science and the arts. Military students and family members also may take undergraduate and graduate course at the Columbia campus.

Clafin University on Fort Jackson offers two undergraduate degrees that lead to initial teacher certification: The Bachelor of Science in elementary education (Grades 2 to 6) and the Bachelor of Science in middle level education (Grades 5 to 8). Prior university level coursework is required for admission. The program is open to active duty military, adult family members, retirees and civilians. Convenient weekend classes are offered on base. Contact the Clafin at Fort Jackson office at (803) 787-0596 or visit the Web site at <http://www.clafin.edu>, School of Education, Fort Jackson Program.

Webster University on Fort Jackson offers the Master of Business Administration and three Master of Arts degree programs: human resources management, information technology management, and management and leadership. By completing the required courses in two Master of Arts areas, students may obtain a dual-emphasis degree in the Webster program. Soldiers, family members of active duty military, Department of Defense (DoD) civilians employees, retirees, National Guard and Army Reserve Soldiers may enroll at the Fort Jackson tuition rate. Civilians may enroll on a space-available basis and a different tuition applies. Tuition assistance, veterans' benefits and deferred-payment plans are available. Classes meet one night each week. Contact the Webster University Fort Jackson office, (803) 738-0603.

Education Examination Programs

In addition to college and technical training, a wide range of examinations are provided through which an individual may earn a high school credential, satisfy undergraduate- and graduate-level, college-admission requirements, earn college credit or gain professional certification. Also available are interest inventories and achievement tests to assist military members and their family members as well as civilian employees in planning their future. Army Personnel Tests are offered. Most examination programs are available free of charge for the military.

Multi-Learning Facility

The Multi-Learning Facility offers self-study programs in many subject areas. General Education Development (GED), College Level Exam Program (CLEP), Armed Forces Classification Test (AFCT), Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), Admission College Test (ACT) and the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) test preparation materials are available through Web sites. Multi-media courses are available in reading, math, study skills, recreation, consumer education and other areas of interests to adult learners.

Individualized computer-based instruction provides students with numerous self-paced programs in such areas as Basic Skills in Education Program (BSEP), computer applications, accounting, management, effective writing and defensive driving. Programs are free. For more information on available programs and services, call (803) 751-6596

Thomas Lee Hall Library

Fort Jackson's Thomas Lee Hall Library, Building 4679, on the corner of Lee Road and Strom Thurmond Boulevard, houses a well-balanced book collection for the avid reader. The library also has a wide selection of educational videotapes and audio books. All members of the Fort Jackson community with valid identification cards may check out materials. The library also offers general reference materials such as SIRS and Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, as well as access to the Internet. For information, call 751-4816/5589.

Child, Youth & School Services

Child, Youth & School Services provides the Fort Jackson community with quality child development options and youth programs, which can reduce the conflict between parenting responsibilities and mission requirements, enhance the development of children and youth and engage them in constructive activities during their discretionary time.

Child, Youth & School Services Central Enrollment Office, located in Room AO1 of Mann Community Center, Building 3392 on the corner of Magruder Avenue and Gregg Street, provides one-stop service for families interested in registering their children for child care and youth services. Vacancy information and waiting lists are maintained there, as well as information for all available programs. The office also offers babysitter training and referral, and installation-to-installation referral. For information on any Child, Youth & School Services program, call 751-4865/4824.

Child Development Centers

There are two child development centers on Fort Jackson with sufficient space to meet the diverse needs of the community. The Scales Avenue Center is open Monday through Friday, 4:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., and on Saturday from 5 a.m. to 6 p.m. The center has an operating capacity for 340 children and provides primarily full day-care with extended hours available. In addition, the center offers part-time options for parents employed on a less than full-time basis and before and after school care for children in kindergarten. The Hood Street Center is open Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and the first and third Friday of the month, 6 to 11 p.m. The center has an operating capacity for 60 children and provides hourly care.

Curriculum for all center programs is child-oriented with an emphasis on creative, age-appropriate activities, which encourage children to acquire knowledge about themselves and their environment and prepare them to succeed academically. Both centers are accredited through the National Association for the Education of Young Children and are committed to providing quality options for the children of the Fort Jackson community.

Child Development Homes

A recent newcomer to the CYS Services family of programs is the addition of Child Development Homes. The homes are located at 5953 A/B and 5955 A/B Parker Lane in the housing area. A CD home is a cross between a child development center and a family child care home. It provides small group care for children in a home setting by paid staff members. The CD homes at Fort Jackson were initiated to meet the demands for mission-related extended hours child care. Two of the homes operate Monday through Friday, 4 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturday, 5 a.m. to 6 p.m. The School Age extended hours home operates from 5 to 9 p.m. The fourth home operates for full day care from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Arrangements for use of the CD homes are handled by the CYS Services Central Enrollment Office and the Hood Street Child Development Center.

Family Child Care

The Family Child Care Program is a system of home-based childcare. Family members living in government housing who provide child care for more than 10 hours per week on a regular basis are required to be certified through this program. This requirement does not apply to care given in the child's home. Family Child Care provider applicants go through an extensive certification process before being allowed to care for children in their government quarters. Once certified, these individuals provide services that offer an alternative to and/or complement the care given in centers. Some providers on Fort Jackson offer extended hours care, which meets the needs of Soldiers in drill status and those working shifts.

The Family Child Care program also includes off-post providers. For assistance in finding a home-care provider, contact the Central Enrollment Office or Family Child Care Office at 751-6234.

Youth Center

The Youth Center, located on the corner of Imboden Parkway and Chestnut Road, serves as the focal point for many youth programs and is an affiliate of the Boys and Girls Club of America and 4-H. School Age Services, Middle School/Teen programs and Youth Sports are all home-based in this facility. The center provides open recreation and opportunities for youth at scheduled times and are the site of many special events and activities such as dances, lock-ins, block parties, and sports and games contests.

School Age Services

School Age Services is based at the Youth Center but utilizes many other post facilities to enhance the quality of its services. It operates before and after-school options during the public school year for children in grades one through five and full-day options during the summer months. The before-school program operates 4:30 to 8 a.m. and provides transportation or escort services to Fort Jackson elementary schools as well as select off post schools. After-school options operate 2:30 to 6:30 p.m., including pick-up services from Fort Jackson schools and select off-post schools. During teacher in-service days and school holidays, the program operates 4:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The curriculum is based on four service areas: fitness and sports; leisure and recreation; life skills and citizenship; and mentoring and support. Children are offered a choice in the type and frequency of activities. Typical activities include the computer lab, homework assistance, leisure time, sports and fitness activities, arts and crafts, instructional classes and club time. During the summer months, the curriculum includes field trips and off-site activities which cannot be accomplished during the school year.

Whether enrolled in a Before and After School program or not, school age children are encouraged to participate on the Preteen Council and assist staff in programming activities and events for their age group. Youth registered with Child, Youth & School Services, but not enrolled in a regularly scheduled program receive 10 free hours a month as well as operating hours on Saturday and Sunday. Additional hours are available at $2.50 per hour. A monthly calendar is available that outlines events/activities for school age children.

Middle School/Teen Program

Options for middle school and high school youth include four service areas: sports and fitness, leisure and recreation, life skills and leadership, and intervention and support.

Middle school youth and teens are encouraged to be active members of the Torch and Keystone Leadership clubs and assist staff in the programming activities and events for their age group. A monthly calendar of events is available.

In 2000, the Middle School/Teen Program established an after-school program for youth in grades six through eight. This program is offered at no cost to parents. The Middle School After-School Program is currently operating out of the Pinckney Annex at 5615 Hood St.

During the summer, the Middle School/Teen Program offers a variety of camp options for middle school youth and teens. Youth Services also has a year-round Teen Hire Program. Teens, 14 and up, may apply at the Non-appropriated Fund Personnel Office for one of the Teen Hire positions at the Youth Center. These teens are taught employment skills in a supportive environment and are given an opportunity to gain experience that will help them find other employment.

Youth Sports and Fitness

Fort Jackson's Youth Sports and Fitness Program is a great place for youth to learn sportsmanship, practice new skills and make new friends. Youth Sports emphasizes sportsmanship, while encouraging youths to have fun and learn fundamentals of the game.

A variety of sports, including flag football, cheerleading, soccer, basketball, baseball, volleyball, cross country, swimming and track are offered. Youth Sports also provides fitness activities and health and nutrition education throughout the year. The Youth Sports Branch boasts a modern Youth Sports Park, which features several softball and baseball diamonds, soccer fields, a football field and a concession area for game days.

Mobile Recreation

Each summer, Child, Youth & School Services takes to the street providing recreational activities for youth in the housing area and/or school playgrounds and select off-post locations. The activities are provided free of charge and intended to give children, who do not need full-day camp, something to do during the long, hot summer. Child, Youth & School Services is also available to support unit organization days with recreational activities for children. For more information, contact Outreach Services at 751-4869.

Jumping Jacks and Young & Fit

The Outreach Services Program provides on site child care services, Jumping Jacks, at the Solomon Center for community members while they work out at Andy's Fitness Center. This service is available Monday and Wednesday, from 9 to 11 a.m. and 3:45 to 7:45 p.m., and on Saturday mornings from 8 a.m. to noon. Also available Saturday mornings are fitness activities for children preschool through 11 years of age, provided by Youth Sports staff and MWRs Young and Fit Program for youngsters, 12 to 18. Advance registration with Child, Youth & School Services is required prior to participating in Jumping Jacks and Young & Fit.

SKIESUnlimited Instructional Programs

Schools of Knowledge, Inspiration, Exploration, and Skills, or SKIESUnlimited, provides the framework for Child, Youth & School Services instructional programs with offerings provided through the School of the Arts, School of Academics, School of Sports and School of Life Skills. Fort Jackson offers programs in dance, music, art, gymnastics, swimming, martial arts, babysitter training, culinary arts, preschool-age academic learning, foreign language, and more. Contact the CYS Services Central Enrollment Office or visit www.fortjacksonmwr.com/skies for more information.

4-H Clubs

Child and Youth Services, a 4-H affiliate, offers a variety of 4-H Clubs on the installation for youth during the school year. The Scales Avenue Child Development Center is the site of the 4-H Club for children in kindergarten. School Age Services provides a variety of 4-H Clubs for youth in grades one through five and the Middle School/Teen Program does the same for youth in grades six and up. 4-H Clubs are developed around the interests of club members and may change from school year to school year. Children/youth do not have to be enrolled in a regularly scheduled program to take advantage of the 4-H Clubs. All that is necessary is CYS Services registration. For more information, contact the appropriate program for your child's grade.

Scouting

Fort Jackson has a strong foundation in scouting and can offer a wide variety of programs for all ages. The point of contact for the Boy Scout programs is Don Copley at (803) 699-1720 and the POC for the Girl Scout programs is Norma Ferguson at (803) 736-5875.

Boy Scouts of America was incorporated to provide a program for community organizations that offers effective character, citizenship and personal fitness training for youth. Specifically, the BSA endeavors to develop American citizens who are physically, mentally, and emotionally fit; have a high degree of self-reliance as evidenced in such qualities as initiative, courage, and resourcefulness; have personal values based on religious concepts; have the desire and skills to help others; understand the principles of the American social, economic, and governmental systems; are knowledgeable about and take pride in their American heritage and understand our nation's role in the world; have a keen respect for the basic rights of all people; and are prepared to participate in and give leadership to American society.

Cub Scouts do fun things with other kids. They get to wear a cool uniform, go places and see things. They play all kinds of sports and build things, like race cars and birdhouses. Want to learn a secret code? Want to learn about wild animals? If you're a boy in the first through fifth grades (ages 7 to 10), go Cub Scouting.

Boy Scouts get away from it all. They camp, hike, and fish in the great outdoors. They get together in troops and try out new experiences. Scouting is available to boys 11 to 17 years old, or who have earned the Arrow of Light Award, or have completed the fifth grade.

Venturing is for young adults ages 14 to 20 who, along with adult leaders, are registered with the Boy Scouts of America. The program matches the interests of young adults with adult expertise and resources of the chartered organization and other adults in the community.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout program can change the way girls see the world and their place in it. Girls learn the importance of personal responsibility, the value of goal-setting, the spirit of teamwork, and the thrill of accomplishment. The Girl Scout program is based on the Girl Scout Promise and Law and four fundamental goals that encourage girls to:

1. Develop to their full potential;
2. Relate to others with increasing understanding, skill and respect;
3. Develop a meaningful set of values to guide their actions and to provide for sound decision-making; and
4. Contribute to the improvement of society.

Girl Scouts are divided into Daisy Girl Scouts (ages 5 to 6), Brownie Girl Scouts (ages 6 to 8), Junior Girl Scouts (ages 8 to 11), and STUDIO 2BSM for girls ages 11-17.

Religious Support

The Installation Chaplains Office (ICO) provides a variety of dynamic and inspirational worship services, programs, and activities for the Fort Jackson Community.

Worship services and counseling support are available at all six of Fort Jackson's Installation chapels. Schedules and information can be obtained by calling 751-3122/3121 or by visiting the Installation Chaplains Office, located at 4475 Gregg St.

Updated schedules are posted weekly in The Fort Jackson Leader newspaper.

All Fort Jackson chaplains are dedicated to providing for the free exercise of religion; and the practice of religious beliefs, traditions, and customs, in order to enhance the spiritual quality of life of the Fort Jackson community.

Anderson Chapel

A Troop Chapel is located at 2335 Jackson Blvd. and Anderson St., which offers a Church of Christ Service on Sunday, 11:30 a.m. and Latter Day Saints (Mormon) Service Sunday, 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Bayonet Chapel

A Troop Chapel, located at 9476 Kemper St., is the location of the 193rd Infantry Brigade Chaplain. It offers a Hispanic Protestant service on Sunday, 8 a.m. and General Protestant at 9:30 a.m.

Daniel Circle Chapel

Located on Jackson Boulevard across from Darby Field, Daniel Circle Chapel also serves the permanent party population. This large and vibrant Collective Protestant Gospel congregation has a complete program consisting of children's, youth, men's and women's ministries. Worship services begin each Sunday at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. For more information on services at Daniel Circle Chapel, call 751-1297.

Magruder Chapel

A Troop Chapel, located at 4360 Magruder Ave., is the location of the 165th Infantry Brigade Chaplain. Protestant Services are conducted at 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Main Post Chapel

Opened in early 1986, the Main Post Chapel (MPC) is designed to serve the installation's permanent party population. MPC is conveniently located at the corner of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Scales Avenue, near the housing areas and adjacent to the Child Care Center. The chapel is used for Family services by Protestant and Catholic congregations. Protestant programs include: Sunday School, Children's Church, Chapel Youth Group, PWOC, and Bible studies. Catholic programs include: weekday

Mass, CCD and Catholic Youth of the Chapel. In addition, the Islamic Services are held at MPC. For more information, call 751-6469.

Memorial Chapel

Memorial Chapel, located on Jackson Boulevard, is Fort Jackson's historic chapel. It is the original main installation chapel and displays the flags of the 11 divisions that have been stationed on Fort Jackson. A very active Protestant congregation worships here each Sunday at 11 a.m. In addition, Lutheran/Episcopal and Jewish services are conducted on Sunday.

Chaplain's Family Life Center

The Family Life Center mission is to improve quality of life by helping people solve personal, marital, and relational problems. It is a safe place that provides preventive education, enrichment programs, and pastoral care for the Fort Jackson Community. Counseling appointments are made through unit chaplains, Family support agencies, medical, and command referrals. For more information, call 751-5780.

Hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. It is located at the corner of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Scales Street (inside Main Post Chapel).

SCHOOLS

School Liaison Officer

The SLO provides transition services, school information and assistance to military families. Contact the Fort Jackson SLO Keisha McCoy-Wilson at (803) 751-6150.

E-mail: keisha.mccoywilson@us.army.mil

Web site: http://www.fortjacksonmwr.com/school\_liaison

On-Post Elementary Schools

Fort Jackson's Elementary Schools are authorized under Section 2164 of Title 10, United States Code and are among 13 states with DoD School Systems, commonly referred to as Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS). In 2003, the Fort Jackson Schools became part of a newly consolidated school district for the State of South Carolina and part of Georgia. The Laurel Bay Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) in Beaufort, S.C., and Fort Stewart, Ga., form the other portions of the new consolidation, now known as the South Carolina/Fort Stewart DoD DDESS District. In 2007, schools in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, were added to the district. These schools serve dependent children, pre-kindergarten through the sixth grade, who live on post in permanent quarters.

Superintendent

Dr. Joseph Guiendon

376 Davis Ave.

Fort Stewart, GA 31315

(912) 408-3090; (912) 369-6691 or 6659

Pierce Terrace

Pierce Terrace provides for all 4-year-olds, kindergarten and first grade students. Construction of a four-classroom addition was completed for use in school year 2004-2005. The two-level structure was opened in 1972 as an "open design" facility. Many changes have been made since then, and the school now functions with self-contained classrooms.

Pierce Terrace Elementary School

Principal: Ms. Carol Kress

5715 Adams Court

Columbia, SC 29206

782-1772

Grades: PK-1

Hours: 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Charles Cotesworth Pinckney

Opened in 1987, Charles Cotesworth Pinckney Elementary School serves children in grades 2 through 6. Due to renovation and construction the entire school was relocated to the old Hood Street School for the 2007-08 school year. It reopened in a freshly updated building with a new roof for the 2008-09 school year. This state-of-the-art facility contains a science lab, gymnasium, computer lab, career education center and a completely developed outdoor recreation area including tennis court, a soccer and football field, baseball complex, apparatus and equipment play area, hard-surfaced basketball courts and numerous private benches.

The Fort Jackson school system's most important goal is to structure the curriculum and instructional program so that transient military children are accommodated based upon their educational needs. The schools are staffed with all the necessary regular classroom and specialty teachers, and educational aides are available to help all new children acclimate as they are enrolled. The schools serve dependent children in PreK through 6 grades who live on post in permanent quarters.

C.C. Pinckney School

Principal: Ms. Carol Kress

5900 Chesnut Road

Columbia, SC 29206

787-6815/6826

Grades: 2-6

Hours: 7:55 a.m. to 2:40 p.m.

Off-Post Schools

Children grades 6 through 12 living on post attend two off post schools. Dent Middle School for grades 7 and 8, and Richland Northeast High School for grades 9 through 12. Both schools are part of Richland District Two and have earned Blue Ribbons twice from the U.S. Department of Education. The award is presented to public schools that are unusually effective in meeting local, state and national goals in educating all of their children.

Dent Middle School is a School of Promise Flagship winner and home to several innovative magnet programs. Dent partners with parents and community to provide a quality education in a supportive environment by providing relevant, challenging learning experiences to prepare students as responsible individuals and citizens. Richland Northeast stresses parental and community support, staff dedication to quality education and high standards.

"The goal at RNE is to find the value in every student." RNE is a Creative Ticket National School of Distinction, A Red Carpet school, National High School Model UN Conference first-place winner for 18 consecutive years, has the only arts conservatory in the Midlands, has a Theatre Department selected four times in eight years by the American High School Theatre Festival to represent the U.S. at Scotland's Edinburgh Fringe Festival, and was four times on Newsweek's list of best high schools nationwide.

As for children living off post, the vast majority of our military students attend school in Richland School District Two. Several other districts serve our military children as well. See the School Liaison Web site for information on the various districts.

Enrollment information for on post schools

Students registered will be enrolled the following day.

In order to register your children in the on post schools, you will need to bring the following items:

- Lease or Memorandum from Housing Office verifying residence or residency assignment within 90 days.
- Student's original birth certificate or certified copy.
- Student's original Social Security card.
- South Carolina Certificate of Immunization (DHEC-1148). The following immunizations are required: DTP — four doses at least (one dose must be administered after the fourth birthday); Hepatitis B — three doses; MMR — two doses; Polio — three doses (at least one dose must be administered after the fourth birthday); Varicella — one dose.
- Form 1172 (DEERS Enrollment Form) is required if the student's legal last name differs from the sponsor. (This form can be obtained from the Welcome Center.)

Guidelines for Enrollment in Richland School District Two

The following is a list of guidelines for enrollment in Richland School District Two. Students must reside in Richland School District with their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) to be eligible. To ensure that students are qualified for enrollment in RD2, three proofs of residency are required.

1. All documentation presented must show the current month's date and the parent or legal guardian's name.

Acceptable Address Verification Documentation:

- Electric bill
- Water bill
- Land line phone bill
- Rental lease or real estate purchase contract
- Cable bill/satellite bill

2. A copy of the student's birth certificate must be presented for all kindergartners and first graders before their enrollment. Birth certificates may also be requested for students at any other grade level. To be eligible for enrollment, kindergarten students must be 5 years old on or before Sept. 1, and first graders must be 6 years old on or before Sept. 1. To be eligible for 4-year-old programs, a child must be 4 years old on or before Sept. 1. Hospital birth reports are not acceptable for this purpose. If necessary, duplicate birth certificates can be obtained from the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, Vital Records and Public Health Statistics Division at 2600 Bull St., Columbia, S.C., or a similar agency in the child's state of birth.

3. A valid South Carolina Certificate of Immunization must be presented for all students prior to their enrollment. Some schools will transfer other state records to the S.C. form for you at the nurse's office or you can have them transferred at the Immunization clinic at Moncrief Army Hospital. For information on immunization requirements: www.scdhec.net/health/disease/immunization/immunizations.htm.

Or call DHEC's immunization branch at (800) 27-SHOTS.

4. Student's Social Security Number (optional).
5. A previous report card and/or transfer sheet from the school the student is leaving.
6. In the case of guardianship, a copy of the document establishing the guardian relationship must be filed at the Richland School District Two Administration Office, 6832 Brookfield Road, Columbia, SC 29206.

Enrollment will not be permitted until the appropriate guardianship has been established and the document is on file. For deployment or extended TDY situations, a copy of the Family Care plan and of orders will fill this requirement.

7. High schools will request a letter of discipline from previous school.
8. Students must attend the school that serves their legal residence. (Unless in a magnet or expanded choice program)

School Choice and Magnet Programs — Richland District Two

All Richland District Two students have the option of attending the school where they are zoned, or they may apply for Expanded Choice to attend another school.

At designated times of the year students may apply to attend a different school than the one in their attendance area either through the district's various magnet programs and/or the district's Expanded School Choice Program. Magnet programs are available at every grade level for science, technology, performing arts, single gender, classic education, health sciences, media, business and more. Go to www.richland2.org to view videos of the various schools and programs.

Soldiers arriving after the cut-off date may apply for Expanded Choice up until the first day of school on a space available basis. Contact the School Liaison Officer for magnet application information. Parents must provide transportation for students attending non-zoned school.

Students living on post may apply for school choice during the sixth grade for the seventh-grade year and any year after. On-post students may also apply for magnet programs during the fifth grade for the sixth-grade year and any year after.

For more information about Choice and the various magnet programs, contact the School Liaison Officer. (803) 751-6150.

Richland School District One — Magnets and Transfer Option

Requests for transfer from zoned school applications are submitted to the district registrar beginning April 15 for the upcoming year. Applications are based on child care or on other extenuating circumstances. Applications are also accepted for severe hardship cases anytime during the school year. Applications are available for download at the district Web site at www.richlandone.org link to departments and then student registrar. Parents must provide transportation.

For RD1 Magnets — apply at individual school. Information is available on the district and school Web sites. Application due dates vary.

- Richland One Middle College — this tech school for grades 11 and 12 provides students hands-on experiences and the chance to gain free college credit while still in high school.

The Web site is romc.rcsd1.org.

This program is open to students in other districts as well!

- Carolina School of Inquiry — elementary age students. www.carolinaschoolforinquiry.com
- Montessori Program in three schools: Caughman Road, El., Gadsden El., Brockman El., Logan El. Go to school link on district Web site.
- Midlands Math & Business Academy — Grades 4 through 8 Rolling applications; contact school at 799-5101.
- W.A. Perry School of Aerospace — Grades 5 through 8.

MEDICAL/DENTAL SERVICES

Medical Care

Moncrief Army Community Hospital, Fort Jackson's main medical facility, is a 12-story medical treatment facility which operates 36 inpatient beds and 25 ambulatory clinics. On an average day, Moncrief provides medical care for 15 inpatients, sees 1,576 patients in its ambulatory clinics, fills 2,195 prescriptions, and performs approximately 2,126 laboratory procedures and 378 radiological procedures, including nuclear medicine tests. Moncrief Army Community Hospital works closely with the Dorn Veterans Administration Medical Center, the 20th Medical Group at Shaw AFB, and local civilian facilities to provide quality healthcare services.

Family Health Center

The Family Health Center (FHC) is the major primary care access point for permanent party active duty service members, their family members and retirees and their family members who are enrolled in TRICARE Prime.

Located on the ground floor to the right of the hospital's main entrance, the FHC is open Monday through Friday, 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and is closed on holidays. Patients are asked to arrive 15 minutes before the scheduled appointment for check-in and vital signs screening. Please plan for anticipated delays at the entrance gates to post. All TRICARE Prime patients are assigned a healthcare provider who serves as the patient's primary care manager.

Your PCM will provide for your healthcare needs or coordinate referrals for any healthcare services required. To make an appointment with your PCM, call 751-CARE (751-2273). Your PCM will initiate specialty referrals to other clinics throughout the hospital or within the TRICARE network as necessary. Permanent party Soldiers may call 751-CARE (751-2273) between 6:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. to obtain an appointment for sick call. Sick-call appointments for permanent party are available throughout the day in the FHC to be as convenient as possible. An effort is made to schedule that appointment with the Soldier's PCM.

If a scheduled appointment needs to be canceled, call 751-CARE (2273) between 6:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. For after hours call our automated line at 751-2904. You will be asked your name, the last four numbers of the sponsor's Social Security number, the date and time of the appointment and the clinic where the appointment was scheduled.

TRICARE

TRICARE, the Military Healthcare System's managed care program, has been in operation in South Carolina since 1996. In partnership with the Humana Military Healthcare Services and Blue Cross/Blue Shield of South Carolina, a large, robust network of civilian providers has been established in the Columbia metropolitan area. TRICARE offers three options for eligible beneficiaries: Prime, Extra and Standard. TRICARE Standard, formerly known as CHAMPUS, offers beneficiaries the widest choice of providers and facilities, but also has the highest cost-sharing requirements. Active-duty family members, retirees and retiree family members are encouraged to enroll in TRICARE Prime. TRICARE Prime enrolled beneficiaries have priority for care within the Military Treatment Facility. Active-duty service members assigned to Fort Jackson are required to in-process through the TRICARE Service Center to transfer their Prime enrollment and their Primary Care Manager to Moncrief Army Community Hospital. For more information, please contact the staff at the TRICARE Service Center in the hospital or call (800) 444-5445.

TRICARE Service Center

The TRICARE Service Center is located within Moncrief Army Community Hospital on the 10th floor. The TSC staff can help with TRICARE questions, TRICARE Prime enrollment or billing issues. Newly arriving families, who are enrolled in TRICARE Prime, should make the TRICARE Service Center one of their first stops after arriving at Fort Jackson.

The center will provide information on how to access care and the steps to take for emergency care or care while traveling. MACH also has a patient services office 751-2123/2425/2778 located on the 10th floor that can assist with health benefits questions, debt collections assistance or patient complaints/compliments.

Pharmacy

The Main Outpatient Pharmacy, located on the ground floor of the hospital, is open Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and Saturday, 7:30 a.m. to noon. Please have a valid military identification for all patients older than 10. Quick formularies are available in the pharmacy lobby or on the Web site. For more information, call 751-2385.

Refills may be obtained at PX Refill Pharmacy at the main Post Exchange Mall. The Refill Pharmacy is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. to noon. The Refill pharmacy is not able to fill new prescriptions. All refills are picked up at the PX refill pharmacy by calling 751-2250 or (866) 489-0950. In addition to Moncrief's services, beneficiaries may use the TRICARE Mail Order Pharmacy (TMOP) or network retail pharmacies. The TMOP enables eligible beneficiaries to obtain a 90-day supply of their medication via the postal system.

McWethy Troop Medical Clinic

McWethy Troop Medical Clinic provides healthcare to all initial-entry training Soldiers, Soldiers on temporary duty status, Reserve Component Soldiers on drill or annual training status, and any Soldier in student status assigned or attached to Fort Jackson. The clinic also provides well-woman exams and pap screenings for Advanced Individual Training female Soldiers. Located across from the hospital, McWethy Troop Medical clinic is open Monday through Saturday and holidays, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m., closing at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Community Mental Health Services

Located in the McWethy Troop Medical Clinic, Fort Jackson's Community Mental Health Services provides a wide range of mental health services, including evaluation and treatment of emotional illness and human interaction problems. Appointments are required, but active duty Soldiers with emergencies will be seen on a walk-in basis. For information, call 751-5183.

Preventive Medicine

The Department of Preventive Medicine, serving as Fort Jackson's "Public Health Department," is located at 4556 Stuart St., between Scales CDC and Troop Medical Clinic. Community Health Nursing, Occupational Health, Environmental Health, Health Physics and Industrial Hygiene are all components within the Department of Preventive Medicine. It offers a wide variety of services that include Tuberculosis screening, overseas travel evaluations, HIV education and health promotion services (e.g., tobacco cessation).

In addition, Preventive Medicine conducts sanitary inspections, monitors health issues for Child Development Services and monitors pest prevalence and communicable diseases. Occupational Health and Community Health Nursing also are components of the Preventive Medicine Service.

Dental Care

Fort Jackson's Dental Activity (DENTAC) operates five dental treatment facilities (clinics), which provide a full range of dental services to eligible beneficiaries. All clinics are open Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A Soldier's empanelled dental clinic is determined by his or her unit of assignment.

The Dental Headquarters (751-6213) is located at 3295 Forney St. The Caldwell Dental Clinic (751-5178/6017) is located on Strom Thurmond Boulevard and treats predominantly Soldiers in training (Initial Entry Training, Soldier Support Institute students, etc). Hagen Dental Clinic (751-3255/4091) is located near the intersection of Moseby Street and Magruder Avenue and treats Fort Jackson permanent party Soldiers. The Hospital Dental Clinic (751-2108/2141) is located on the third floor of Moncrief Army Community Hospital and is a referral clinic.

The Physical Examination Station Dental Clinic (751-3105/3106) is adjacent to the Reception Station on Washington Road and conducts dental in-processing for new Soldiers.

The Individual Ready Reserve Dental Clinic (751-4069/1786) is located at 2179 Sumter Ave. and conducts examinations on mobilizing and demobilizing Soldiers. Emergency care (after hours) can be accessed through the Moncrief Army Community Hospital Emergency Room and the Dentist on Duty will be notified as needed. Dental services are not available for other than active duty or those on active duty for fewer than 30 days, IAW AR 40-35. Only Active Duty Soldiers verified in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System are eligible to lawful access to Army dental health care.

Active duty family members are strongly encouraged to enroll in the TRICARE Dental Program (TDP-United Concordia) <http://www.tricare dental program.com> and Retired Service Members are strongly encouraged to enroll in the TRICARE Retiree Dental Program (RDP-Delta Dental) <http://www.trdp.org>. These programs are provided by the Department of Defense to provide dental care for other than active duty beneficiaries.

TRAINING

Victory Starts Here!

Fort Jackson plays a major role in shaping today's U.S. Army by training almost half of tomorrow's disciplined, well-trained, professional Soldiers. With an ideal climate for year-round training, more than 45,000 Initial Entry Training Soldiers are trained here each year.

The first stop on the road to becoming a Soldier is the 120th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception), one of the finest facilities of its kind anywhere. This modern complex receives new Soldiers at any time of day or night and has the facilities to feed, house, administratively process and properly outfit the men and women beginning Army service.

Basic Combat Training

After processing and general orientation, new Soldiers begin nine or 10 challenging weeks of Basic Combat Training assigned to a battalion in either the 193rd Infantry Brigade or the 165th Infantry Brigade.

The focus of Basic Combat Training is transforming civilian volunteers to basically trained, disciplined, motivated and physically fit "Warriors" who espouse the Army's Core Values and are focused on teamwork.

This is accomplished by the mentoring, teaching and coaching provided by highly-trained, professional noncommissioned officers, called drill sergeants. Basic Combat Training Soldiers are taught Soldier skills, starting with the most basic and gradually adding to those skill sets and eventually using all the skills in a field-training environment. Soldiers must meet required standards and tasks throughout the cycle in order to graduate.

Combat in Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom has resulted in the addition of many combat skills to basic training to better prepare Soldiers for the possibility of deployment in the future. This training includes convoy operations, urban operations, checkpoint operations, media and civilians on the battlefield, advanced first aid procedures and other combat skills.

Woven throughout basic training and serving as the foundation for Soldier's training, are the Army's Seven Core Values and Warrior Ethos. The Core Values — Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity and Personal Courage — are emphasized throughout the nine or 10-week cycle by relating them to training events, Army heritage and teamwork development. With proper training and application, the values become a way of life.

The Warrior Ethos is the spirit of the American Soldier. Regardless of his or her occupational specialty, the American Soldier is known for total commitment to victory — Mission First, Never Accept Defeat, Never Quit and Never Leave a Fallen Comrade. The Warrior Ethos is reinforced throughout basic training so that these principles gradually develop into an absolute faith in themselves and their fellow Soldiers to succeed in all they do.

Organization

Two Combat Training Brigades operate on post, each commanded by a colonel who is centrally selected by Department of the Army. There are nine active-duty lieutenant colonel commands for basic training; each capable of training 1,200 Soldiers every cycle.

Fort Jackson also conducts Advanced Individual Training (AIT) for chaplains' assistants, administrative specialists, finance specialists and wheeled vehicle mechanics. The 369th Adjutant General Battalion, part of the Soldier Support Institute, conducts the administrative training. The 171st Infantry Brigade's AIT battalion is the 187th Ordnance Battalion. They conduct the 63B wheeled vehicle mechanics training. Both AIT battalions provide realistic training at Camp Victory. This forward operating base (FOB) is used to complete their field training.

In support of Fort Jackson's training mission are the 171st Infantry Brigade, the medical and dental activities, and a number of other support units.

193rd Infantry Brigade

The 193rd Infantry Brigade, or "Task Force Bayonet," comprises five active component Basic Combat Training Battalions: the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Battalions, 13th Infantry Regiment; and the 2nd and 3rd Battalions, 60th Infantry Regiment.

The Brigade's history includes participation in World War II during operations in the Ruhr pocket and with the Third Army's operations in Czechoslovakia. The 193rd Infantry Brigade moved to Panama in 1962, and in December 1989, participated in Operation Just Cause to depose Manuel Noriega. Today it is based at Fort Jackson, S.C., with the mission to conduct basic combat training and transform America's sons and daughters into Soldiers.

1st, 2nd and 3rd Battalions, 13th Infantry Regiment, "First at Vicksburg"

The regiment was initially formed in July 1789, as the 13th Infantry Regiment. Reconstituted in May 1861, Gen. William T. Sherman was the colonel of the regiment and Phillip Sheridan was one of the original captains.

During the Civil War, the regiment participated in the battles of Haynes Bluff, Champion Hill and Black River. During the assault on Vicksburg, May 19, 1863, the regiment earned its motto "First at Vicksburg," as the 13th Infantry Regiment was the only unit to plant its colors on the Confederate position.

On Feb. 27, 1987, 2nd and 3rd Battalions, 13th Infantry Regiment was transferred to the United Army Training Center Command and reorganized at Fort Jackson. On Nov. 16, 2005, 1st Battalion, 13th Infantry Regiment was reactivated at Fort Jackson. Today, the 1st Battalion, "Vicksburg," 2nd Battalion, "Forty Rounds," and 3rd Battalion, "Forty Rounds" 13th Infantry Regiment conduct Initial Entry Training at Fort Jackson.

2nd and 3rd Battalions,
60th Infantry Regiment "Go Devil"

With distinguished combat service during World War I, World War II and Vietnam, these two battalions — the 2nd Battalion "Scouts Out," and 3rd Battalion "River Raiders," 60th Infantry Regiment — are today located at Fort Jackson, S.C.

The 2nd Battalion was reactivated on Fort Jackson in August 1996, and the 3rd Battalion was reactivated here Nov. 16, 2005. Both battalions of the historic "Go Devil" regiment train and prepare new Soldiers to become an integral part of America's Army.

165th Infantry Brigade

The 165th Infantry Brigade conducts gender-integrated basic combat training. The basic training units include the 1st and 3rd Battalion, 34th Infantry Regiment; the 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry Regiment; the 1st Battalion, 61st Infantry Regiment, 3rd Battalion, 323rd Infantry Regiment; and the 2nd Battalion, 485th Infantry Regiment.

A Brigade Headquarters oversees all the units and creates a synergistic, team-concept approach to training.

1st Battalion, 61st Infantry Regiment,
"Roadrunners"

The 61st Regiment was constituted in the Regular Army on May 15, 1917, as Company A, 61st Infantry, and organized at Gettysburg National Park, Pa., on June 10, 1917. On Nov. 17, 1917, the 61st Infantry was assigned to the 5th Division. With the 5th Division, the unit received its first taste of combat.

The regiment deployed to Europe during World War I, where it was awarded four battle streamers for its gallant participation in the bloody campaigns of Saint Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne, Alsace and Lorraine in 1918.

After the war, the 61st returned to Camp Jackson, S.C., where it was inactivated on Sept. 2, 1921. The unit was relieved from assignment with the 5th Division and assigned to the 8th Division on Aug. 15, 1927. On Oct. 1, 1933, the 61st Infantry was relieved from assignment to the 8th Division and again assigned to the 5th Division.

The unit was disbanded Nov. 11, 1944. On Aug. 10, 1950, the 61st Infantry was reconstituted in the Regular Army as Company A, 61st Infantry, an element of the 8th Infantry Division. It was activated on Aug. 17, 1950, at Fort Jackson.

After a period of activation, inactivation and reassignments spanning over a period of 18 years, the unit was once again inactivated in September 1956 at Fort Carson, Colo., and was concurrently relieved from assignment to the 8th Infantry Division. On Jan. 17, 1962, Company A, 61st Infantry was redesignated as Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 61st Infantry Regiment. HHC 1-61 Infantry was assigned to the 5th Infantry Division and activated at Fort Carson, Colo., (organic elements constituted and activated) on Feb. 19, 1962. The unit was reassigned to the 4th Infantry on Aug. 2, 1971, and assigned back to the 5th Division Aug. 21, 1974. HHC 1-61 was inactivated on June 19, 1989, at Fort Polk, La., and relieved from assignment to the 5th Infantry Division.

The unit received several awards and decorations during the Vietnam conflict, which include the Valorous Unit Award, two Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry awards and a Civil Action Honor Medal. After reorganizing again for the Korean and Vietnam conflicts, the unit was transferred to the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command and organized at Fort Jackson on June 13, 1993, to fulfill its current role in conducting Basic Combat Training for initial entry Soldiers.

2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry Regiment,
"Fighting Falcons"

The 39th Infantry Regiment was organized at Camp Syracuse, N.Y., June 1, 1917, by transfer of veteran troops from the 30th Infantry Regiment. In December, the 39th was assigned to the 4th Infantry Division and in the spring of 1918, sailed for France as part of the American Expeditionary Force in World War I. The regiment distinguished itself in the key Alsne-Marne, Champagne, St. Mihiel, Lorraine and Muesse-Argonne campaigns, earning its famous nickname, "Fighting Falcons."

During the lull between wars, the regimental crest was designed and approved. Each of the devices in the crest holds significant meaning for the regiment. The shield is blue for infantry. The fleur-de-lis is from the coat of arms of Soissons, a town in France recaptured by the 39th Regiment in 1918. The two trees represent the Groves of Cresnes, the sight of the regiment's first military success in France during World War I. The boar's head on the canton is taken from the crest of the 30th Infantry Regiment and indicates the 39th was organized with personnel from the 30th Infantry Regiment. The crest is a falcon's head, for Mount Faucon in Muesse-Argonne. The falcon holds, in its bill, an ivy leaf from the shoulder sleeve insignia of the 4th Infantry Division to which the regiment was assigned during World War I. The motto "D'une Vaillance Admirable" is a quotation from the French citation, which awarded the Croix de Guerre with Gilt Star to the regiment for its distinguished service in World War I. The motto best translates — "With a Military Courage Worth of Admiration."

The 39th Infantry Regiment was reactivated Aug. 1, 1940, and became the first unit of U.S. combat troops to set foot on foreign soil when they stormed the beaches of Algiers in November 1942. During fighting in Sicily, Italy, the regiment came under the command of the legendary Col. Harry A. "Paddy" Flint, who gave the regiment its triple A-Bar Nothing slogan — Anything, Anywhere, Anytime — Bar Nothing.

The regiment took great pride in the AAA-O slogan, displaying it on helmets and vehicles, even in combat. Later in the war, the 39th landed at Utah Beach and fought through France. The Fighting Falcons joined the 47th Infantry Regiment in capturing Roetgen, the first German town to fall in World War II.

After a series of inactivations and activations spanning a 20-year period, the 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry Regiment was reactivated on Feb. 1, 1966, as part of the 9th Infantry Division and in late 1966 it deployed for combat in Vietnam.

For its part in World Wars I, II and the Vietnam conflict, the 39th Infantry Regiment possesses 21 battle streamers. Its decorations include four Presidential Unit Citations, four French Croix de Guerre (two with Palm and one with Gilt Star) and the Belgian Fourager.

Following reactivation and transfer to the TRADOC, the 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry Regiment departed Fort Dix, N.J., for Fort Jackson, arriving on Aug. 22, 1990. The battalion is justifiably proud of its historic past and today continues to uphold these same high standards of excellence in Basic Combat Training as it prepares young men and women for service to their nation. Anything, Anywhere, Anytime...Bar Nothing!

1st Battalion and 3rd Battalion, 34th Infantry Regiment, "Leyte Dragons"

The 34th Infantry Regiment was constituted July 1, 1916, in the Regular Army. It was organized in El Paso, Texas, on July 15, 1916, by transfer of personnel from the 7th, 20th and 23rd Infantry Regiments. Its initial mission included guard duty on the Mexican border and the training of National Guard units.

During World War I, the 34th was shipped to France, arriving Aug. 27, 1918. On Oct. 9, 1918, the regiment held the extreme left of the 7th Infantry Division's flank. The regiment received battle honors "Lorraine" for actions during this period.

In World War II, the 34th Infantry was chosen to spearhead the assault on Leyte, to liberate the Philippines. The unit was in a series of bloody battles for 78 continuous days. The 1st Battalion, 34th Infantry Regiment received the Presidential Unit Citation for conspicuous valor and outstanding performance. The battalion's nickname, "Leyte Dragons," derives its recognition during the Leyte assault.

The 34th Infantry Regiment made its second beachhead assault in the Philippines on the island of Luzon. It was later chosen to assault the island of Corregidor. On June 30, 1950, in the Republic of Korea, the 34th Infantry Regiment, with the 24th Infantry Division, began to successfully delay the North Korean People's Army until the United Nations forces could arrive to hold the Pusan Perimeter.

The 1st Battalion, 34th Infantry Regiment was deactivated on Jan. 15, 1993, and was reactivated on Jan. 12, 1996, at Fort Jackson. Following periods as a Reserve and inactive unit, the 3rd Battalion, 34th Infantry Regiment resumed active duty as a Basic Combat Training unit.

Advanced Individual Training

Chances are that Soldiers remaining here for advanced individual training (AIT), the second and final step during initial entry training, may receive all their training while assigned to one brigade.

The 187th Ordnance Battalion, 171st Infantry Brigade, is the only AIT battalion in the Army that trains light- and heavy-wheel vehicle organizational mechanics.

The 369th Adjutant General Battalion is responsible for conducting the Soldier Support Institute's AIT mission in several administrative military occupational specialties.

AIT is actually an integration of the attitudes, skills and knowledge necessary to become a proficient Soldier in today's Army. The process begins by merging the newly acquired Soldier skills learned in Basic Combat Training with the teachings of an MOS. These are then integrated into simulated mission settings.

Graduation

Graduation from Basic Combat Training or Advanced Individual Training is a good time to celebrate a Soldier's accomplishments.

Detailed schedules of graduation events are available from the Soldier's unit/company. Highlights of the Soldier's unit/company training experience are presented in an orientation provided by the unit/company on Thursday before graduation on Friday. Following the orientation, a buffet dinner will be available on Fort Jackson.

Family and friends may visit with their Soldier in the company area until 8 p.m. Graduation is held outdoors at Hilton Field in good weather, or indoors at the Solomon Center during inclement weather. Graduating Soldiers may be signed out "on pass" after graduation so families are free to explore the activities Fort Jackson and the Columbia area have to offer.

Return times must be met so that Soldiers can proceed as scheduled to the next training location or assignment.

MAJOR UNITS, DIRECTORATES AND STAFF

171st Infantry Brigade

171st Infantry Brigade is the largest permanent party command on Fort Jackson. The brigade includes Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) Soldiers as well as Forces Command (FORSCOM) Soldiers. The brigade provides administrative command and control to the Soldiers assigned to Fort Jackson's Headquarters and special staff sections.

The brigade also assists drill sergeants and company commanders from the basic combat training battalions in conducting specialized and tactical instruction, including map reading, first aid, rifle marksmanship and communications training as well as combat indoctrination training.

171st Infantry Brigade has assigned the subject-matter experts key in TRADOC's Initial Entry Training strategy and maintains first-class, state-of-the-art training ranges using computerized scoring systems.

171st Infantry Brigade consists of: 4th Battalion, 10th Infantry Regiment (formerly the Victory Support Battalion); 120th Adjutant General Reception Battalion; 187th Ordnance Battalion; Victory University, consisting of the Pre-Command Course and the Company Commander/First Sergeant Course; and the United States Army Drill Sergeant School.

(Note: Under the Fort Jackson Center of Excellence concept, the pre-command course, Victory University and the Drill Sergeant School no longer fall under 171st Infantry Brigade. Within these five distinct elements of 171st Infantry Brigade, thousands of Soldiers are serviced and trained every day.)

HHC 171st Infantry Brigade

The HHC provides unit administration and logistical support for the Brigade Staff Sections and provides the operating personnel to support the functional requirements for the HQ Staff and Commander. The HHC Commander is responsible for discipline, security, training and administration of personnel assigned to the HHC. The Commander is also responsible for unit level supply activities and manages support facilities in the Brigade area

187th Ordnance Battalion, "Geared to Maintain"

The 187th Ordnance Battalion was first constituted May 1, 1936, in the Regular Army as Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment, 3rd Battalion, 54th Quartermaster Regiment. The unit was redesignated on Oct. 7, 1942, as Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment, 187th Ordnance Heavy Maintenance Battalion, but was inactivated in 1945.

As a result of the U.S. Army Regimental System, the headquarters was transferred in 1987 to TRADOC. Originally assigned to the 4th Training Brigade at the U.S. Army Training Center at Fort Jackson, it was activated and organized for its present training mission with 171st Infantry Brigade of producing specialists in light and heavy wheeled vehicle repair and additional skills in vehicle recovery.

The 187th Ordnance Battalion is the only unit in TRADOC which trains and produces apprentice level Light Wheel Vehicle (63BMOS — 10 weeks) and Heavy Wheel Vehicle (63S MOS — nine weeks) mechanics for the operational Army.

Once Soldiers graduate from the 63B or 63S AIT courses, they are able to perform unit-level maintenance in the areas of troubleshooting, fuel systems, electrical systems, power trains, chassis/suspension and steering systems, brake systems and Preventive Maintenance Checks and Service.

The 187th Ordnance Battalion also operates one of only three additional skill-identifier courses in TRADOC that awards the "H8" recovery specialist identifier for Soldiers in the active National Guard and enlisted Reserve Component forces.

4-10 INF

Victory Support Battalion was reflagged to 4th Battalion, 10th Infantry Regiment in the spring of 2009. Originally established as Task Force Victory on Jan. 1, 1998, and activated as it currently stands on July 29, 2005. Victory Support Battalion was established from units assigned/attached to the 171st Infantry Brigade. Its mission includes the Headquarters, Fort Jackson and its mission related staff sections that support Fort Jackson's Initial Entry Training Mission. Task Force Victory consists of Company A; Company B; the 282nd Army "Victory" Band; United States Army Student Detachment, and the 748th Ordnance Company, Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD). Victory Support Battalion is the largest and most diverse unit on Fort Jackson, serving multiple missions on Fort Jackson and all over the world.

Task Force Marshall

Task Force Marshall, named in honor of citizen-soldier and trainer Gen. George C. Marshall, was formed with the sole mission of providing basic skills refresher training to mobilized Individual Ready Reserve Soldiers.

TFM is a battalion-sized training force made up of mobilized U.S. Army Reserve units from North Carolina, Kentucky, Virginia and Louisiana. TFM headquarters consists of command and control elements originally from the 1/518th Regiment, 108th Division (Institutional Training) from Asheville, N.C., and operates now as a member of 171st Infantry Brigade, United States Army Training Center & Fort Jackson. TFM is based at Camp McCrady, S.C.

Alpha Company/4-10 INF

Alpha Company provides post training and support by providing personnel to the Installation Command Group; Staff Judge Advocate; Inspector General, G3; 171st Infantry Brigade; Victory Support Battalion and other staff sections on the installation.

Bravo Company/4-10 INF

Bravo Company provides direct support of the Fort Jackson mission of training Soldiers. This company provides personnel to serve as range cadre on all installation Basic Rifle Marksmanship Ranges, Combat Indoctrination Ranges, and instructors for the General Subjects Committee. Every Soldier trained on Fort Jackson is instructed and supported by the members of Bravo Company as they work in conjunction with Basic and Advanced Individual Training Battalions to ensure the Army receives the best trained Warriors in the world.

282nd Army "Victory" Band/ Victory Support Battalion

One of Fort Jackson's most colorful units, the 282nd U.S. Army "Victory" Band, provides countless hours of entertainment for military and civilian audiences throughout the area. Consisting of some 40 Soldier-musicians, the band can provide a marching, stage or concert band or a small combo. Its major function is to provide musical support for all military ceremonies, such as basic combat training graduations, retirement reviews, command retreats and other functions that are part of the installation routine. The band also participates in festivals and other civilian functions throughout South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia in support of community relations and Army recruiting programs.

United States Army Student Detachment/Victory Support Battalion

The United States Army Student Detachment (USASD) provides command and control to more than 1,500 senior Army officers attending civilian colleges and universities worldwide, including the Air and Naval War Colleges and the Command and Staff Colleges. They also support those officers and enlisted personnel serving in the Training with Industry program. USASD links the student, the military personnel center and the Army Finance community.

748th Ordnance Company, Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD)

The 748th Explosive Ordnance Disposal unit, attached to Fort Jackson since 1956, serves the state of South Carolina and Fort Gordon, Ga. The 748th EOD provides service to the installation as well as to law enforcement agencies throughout its area of operations to render safe and dispose of any hazardous military explosive material. In addition, it also handles all military chemical and nuclear ordnance and responds to incidents that involve improvised explosive devices. The 23-member unit also provides training seminars for military and civilian law enforcement agencies, and often assists the Secret Service and State Department in providing protective security for the president, vice president, foreign heads of state and other VIPs who visit the area. The 748th EOD maintains a response team on a 24-hour basis year-round.

120th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception)

This battalion receives Basic Combat Training recruits, processes them into the Army, begins the Soldierization process and sends them on to one of Fort Jackson's training battalions. The battalion also conducts pre-basic combat fitness training for new Soldiers who do not meet the minimum physical fitness standards to enter Basic Combat Training. The reception battalion also processes prior service Soldiers back into the Army. The 120th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception) consists of a headquarters Company, Company A, Company B, Company C, Company D and the Fitness Training Company (FTC), which supports basic training and advanced individual training in both the Fitness Training Unit (FTU) and the Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Program (PTRP).

Directorate of Basic Combat Training

The Directorate of Basic Combat Training (DBCT) develops, refines and supports Basic Combat Training (BCT) across the United States Army Accessions Command (USAAC) through doctrine, education, research, training support and acts as the proponent for BCT, Drill Sergeant Program, IET Reception, IET Leader Education and Training (Victory University) Courses, Army Physical Readiness, and Warrior Transition Course (WTC) to ensure BCT is as effective and world class as possible. The Directorate achieves outcomes from strategic and critical thinking that determine the right tasks, drills and support systems for BCT.

To accomplish its mission, the Directorate of Basic Combat Training is organized into the following sections:

Doctrine and Training Development provides the most current doctrine and training development, derived from strategic and critical thinking, for Basic Combat Training (BCT), Drill Sergeant Program (DSP), Warrior Transition Course (WTC), and IET Reception Program in order to support Initial Entry Training for the U.S. Army.

Leader Development and Training and Training Support (Victory University) plans, assesses and reviews IET Leader and Cadre Training Programs developed and implemented for Initial Entry Training. Advises the BCT COE Commanding General on training development of IET Cadre Training and assists all training installations in cadre training programs.

Experimentation and Analysis Element (EAE) provides support in the Initial Entry Training environment to increase Soldier performance and reduce attrition through applied research, education and cooperative associations with other organizations and agencies.

Army Research Institute Cell improves the acquisition and retention of individual Soldier skills and values in IET and institutional training programs supported by Fort Jackson through research advances in training methods and training outcomes measurement.

Center for Army Lessons Learned (CALL) Representative collects, analyzes, disseminates, integrates and archives Army and Joint, Interagency, Intergovernmental and Multinational (JIIM) Observations, Insights, Lessons (OIL) and Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures (TTP) to support Initial Military Training at Fort Jackson and across Basic Combat Training.

Army Center for Enhanced Performance (ACEP) Cell provides Peak Performance instruction to the Drill Sergeant School, Basic Combat Training, DSS, BCT and other Ft. Jackson units in order to enhance soldier effectiveness through systematic training and development of key mental skills.

Headquarters, U.S. Army Garrison, Installation Management Agency

The Fort Jackson Garrison is commanded by an Army colonel, and is under the command and control of the U.S. Army Installation Management Agency – Southeast Region, which is located at Fort McPherson (Atlanta), Ga.

Garrison/Installation Directorates and Staff

Fort Jackson's installation support functions are provided by the United States Army Garrison and like all Army installations operate under the direction of the Installation Management Command. The Garrison commander reports to the director, Southeast Region, Installation Management Command and the commanding general in his role as installation commander. The installation has a wide range of support directorates and activities with the mission of supporting the community's objectives. Each directorate or activity plays a key part in conducting the business of Fort Jackson.

Civilian Personnel Advisory Center (CPAC)

CPAC provides advisory services on all areas of civilian personnel to include labor/management employee relations, recruitment and placement, training and development, position management/classification, benefits and Workers' Compensation. Vacancy announcements and application procedures for appropriated fund jobs are available on the Internet at www.cpol.army.mil and www.usajobs.opm.gov. ### Provost Marshal's Office (PMO)

The Provost Marshal's Office is part of the Directorate of Emergency Services and is assigned to the office of the garrison commander. It comprises military police Soldiers, Department of the Army police officers, contract security guards, civilian employees and support personnel. The PMO performs a myriad of duties and functions including vehicle registration, police administration, traffic accident investigations, Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), Drug Awareness Resistance Education (DARE), civil liaison and AWOL apprehension, Military Police Investigations (MPI), military working dogs (MWD), game warden, installation access control, physical security, crime prevention, lost and found property and investigating and reporting criminal activity on the installation.

The PMO plays an integral role in the successful outcome of a multitude of post-wide events such as weekly graduations and the yearly Torchlight Tattoo celebration by managing the flow of traffic and parking during these events. The PMO is the focal point in promoting traffic safety on the installation by routinely conducting sobriety and contraband checkpoints, speed-enforcement operations and conducting random gate searches.

The MWD section assists units and organizations on the installation with health and welfare inspections, building searches for unsecured buildings and other such requests as needed. With an emphasis on community support and safety for resident Soldiers and their families, the PMO provides bicycle patrols in the housing areas using assets from COPS and provides an active DARE program to the DoD schools on Fort Jackson.

911 Center

The 911 Center is staffed by full-time, enhanced 911 dispatchers who receive all calls for the need of emergency response pertaining to any fire, police or emergency medical situation. They also dispatch all appropriate response units to a call and act as the communications focal point for all operations performed at an emergency scene.

Fire Prevention and Protection Division

The Fort Jackson Fire Department, located in the Emergency Services Center, maintains 10 pieces of fire apparatus with a continuous staffing of firefighters who are always on duty. The Operations Branch is responsible for responding to all fires, chemical releases/spills and medical emergencies in support of Moncrief Hospital, natural disasters and any type of rescue situation. They also provide community education in first-aid, CPR and AED use. A fire prevention staff of fire inspectors performs fire inspections of all post facilities, ensures fire code enforcement in new construction projects and educates various groups in fire safety matters.

17th Military Police Detachment

Assigned to the Fort Jackson Directorate of Emergency Services (DES), the Military Police Company, consisting of both military police and administrative logistical personnel, supports the PMO by performing administrative/logistical functions.

Public Affairs

The Public Affairs Office is responsible for providing a comprehensive Public Affairs program in support of the commands, units and organizations located on, operationally assigned to, or associated with the installation. Divided into three sections, Public Information, Command Information, and Community Relations, the public affairs staff is a key asset for the commander to accurately project and convey information.

The Fort Jackson Leader, a weekly commercial-enterprise Army newspaper with a circulation of 15,000, is published and distributed each Thursday. Story ideas are always welcome. For more information, call 751-7045 or 751-1475/6739 or go to the public affairs Web site at <http://www.jackson.army.mil/PAO/PAO.htm>.

Plans, Analysis and Integration Office

The Plans, Analysis and Integration Office (PAIO) provides strategic and operational analysis and integration for the installation through performance, process, and cost assessments; implementation of best business practices; and the promotion, collection, and analysis of customer feedback. The PAIO is located in Building 3499 on Daniel Street (next to Darby Field).

Installation Safety Center

Located at 3290 Forney St., the Installation Safety Office is responsible for staff oversight of the Safety and Occupational Health Program, as well as the integration of Composite Risk Management into operations and training. The Safety Office identifies hazards and recommends mitigation measures for the elimination or reduction of risk. Customers that wish to report hazards anonymously may call the Safety Hotline at 751-SAFE (7233). The Safety Office also provides Risk Management and Safety training for a wide variety of topics, including Hazard Communication and Motorcycle Safety training. All questions or requests may be directed to the Safety Office switchboard at 751-6004.

Equal Opportunity Staff Office

The Equal Opportunity Staff Office (EOSO) mission is to formulate, direct and sustain a comprehensive effort to maximize human potential and to ensure fair treatment for all based solely on merit, fitness and capability, which supports readiness. EO advisers conduct inquiries into allegations of race, color, religion, gender or national origin discrimination and sexual harassment for Soldiers, civilian employees and their families. The EO office is located in Bay D, Building 3230 on Sumter Boulevard. For more information on the EOSO and its mission, call 751-4916.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The Equal Employment Opportunity Office (EEO) promotes a work environment free of discrimination and sexual harassment for federal civilian employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, religion, color, age, mental or physical disability, national origin or gender. The EEO Office processes complaints of discrimination and sexual harassment, monitors affirmative employment, manages special emphasis programs and coordinates and conducts EEO training. The EEO office is located at 5450 Strom Thurmond Blvd., Room 117. For more information, call 751-7248.

Internal Review and Audit Compliance Office

The Internal Review and Audit Compliance (IRAC) Office is responsible for providing internal review evaluations, liaison services and management control process services to installation personnel. Audit requirements identified by the installation commander or members of the Fort Jackson senior leadership team are addressed by IRAC Office personnel. The IRAC Office serves as the installation commander's liaison between installation and external audit personnel to process follow-up on tentative findings and recommendations and final reports of audit. The Internal Review Officer serves as the garrison commander's management control administrator and executes that program. For more information on the IRAC Office, call 751-7709.

OTHER UNITS

U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute

The U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute (SSI) was established in July 1973, at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., as the U.S. Army Institute of Administration. AIA became the training component of the U.S. Army Administration Center, one of three combat and training development integrating centers assigned to the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command. ADMINCEN became the TRADOC focal point for Army missions related to pay, personnel and administration, military justice, religious activities, medical services, public affairs and foreign language training. In 1980, ADMINCEN was reorganized into the U.S. Army Soldier Support Center, gaining mission responsibility for the “human dimension” of military operations doctrine and training aimed at improving the foundations of military leadership and ethics and increasing Soldier performance and unit cohesion.

With the establishment of SSC, the Institute of Administration was reorganized into the U.S. Army Institute of Personnel and Resource Management. The resulting organization consisted of five directorates and four separately identified schools: the U.S. Army Adjutant General School, U.S. Army Finance School, and the Computer Science and Personnel Management Schools.

In January 1983, two schools were forged out of training missions assigned to the Personnel Management School — the U.S. Army Recruiting and Retention School and the U.S. Army Community Activities School. In July 1984, three additional Army schools were added to the roster to bring the total number of IPRM schools to eight. The new schools included the Reserve Officer Training Corps School, the Soldier Physical Fitness School, and the Army Element of the School of Music at Little Creek, Va. Subsequently, USAIPRM was reinstated as the U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute to reflect its newfound missions. In 1987, SSI leadership established a Noncommissioned Officer Academy to provide leadership training for senior enlisted specialists from the personnel service support mission area.

A reorganization of the TRADOC's combat development community in 1990 disestablished the Soldier Support Center and merged its integrating mission with the Logistics Center at Fort Lee, Va. The merger of Army logistics and personnel service support missions culminated in the establishment of the Combined Arms Support Command in October 1990. Under the reorganization, SSI became one of many TRADOC schools that formed the training base of the new CASCOM. Following on the heels of the 1990 TRADOC reorganization, the Base Closure and Realignment Commission in April 1991 nominated Fort Benjamin Harrison for closure and the transfer of the SSI to Fort Jackson. The transfer began officially in October 1994 and was completed by the end of September 1995.

Located in Gates-Lord Hall on the corner of Hampton Parkway and Lee Road, SSI provides military training and doctrinal, force structure and equipment development programs that anticipate and address the human resource and financial management needs of America's armed forces, committed to military operations along the full spectrum of conflict. USASSI is a subordinate organization of the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command and includes the U.S. Army Recruiting and Retention School, the U.S. Army Adjutant General School, the U.S. Army Financial Management School, the Army School of Music (Little Creek, Va.) and the Noncommissioned Officer Academy. The NCOA is located in Mabry Hall at the corner of Bragg Street and Jackson Boulevard. The NCOA provides enlisted leadership training for Soldiers holding military occupational specialties in the human resource management, financial management, recruiting and retention, legal and religious areas of Army operations.

The U.S. Army Recruiting and Retention School trains commissioned and noncommissioned officers charged with meeting manpower requirements for both the active and reserve components of the Army. The RRS offers courses of instruction that train NCOs for assignment as recruiters or career counselors and prepares officers to assume company or battalion command within the U.S. Army Recruiting Command. The school also is the Army-wide proponent for the Recruiting and Retention Career Management Field. Ultimately, the RRS is responsible for imparting the special skills required to man America's all-volunteer force.

The Adjutant General and Financial Management Schools are “home” to their respective Army branches, the Adjutant General's Corps and the Finance Corps. The two branch schools offer the Basic Officer Leadership Course for newly commissioned lieutenants and the Captain's Career Course for first lieutenants and captains in their third or fourth year of commissioned service, advanced technical training for personnel warrant officers, and Advanced Individual Training for enlisted Soldiers in the human resource management, financial management and legal specialties. As Chief of Army

Bands, the commandant of the Adjutant General School also oversees the training and combat developments of the Army band program at the Army School of Music. The Adjutant General School's Interservice Postal Training Activity trains enlisted Soldiers and noncommissioned officers from all of America's military services in modern postal operations.

USASSI branch schools are also responsible for human resources and financial management combat developments that determine both the means and methods by which Army human resource and financial management specialists will operate on the battlefields of the 21st century. All told, the various agencies of the U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute train annually nearly 19,000 Department of Defense civilians, military personnel from all services, and students from allied nations around the world.

369th Adjutant General Battalion "Army Pride"

The 369th Adjutant General Battalion is a subordinate command under the U.S. Army Soldier Support Institute at Fort Jackson. Soldiers of the 369th Adjutant General Battalion trace their unit's lineage back to the Pacific Theater of Operations during World War II. Activated as the 74th Replacement Battalion in November 1943 at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, the unit comprised a headquarters and headquarters detachment and four replacement companies. Processing replacements and casualties, the 74th supported combat divisions during the U.S. Army's island hopping campaigns in the southwest Pacific. For its support of Tenth Army operations during the invasions of the Ryukyu Islands and Okinawa, the 74th was awarded the Meritorious Unit Commendation with battle streamer. After the cessation of hostilities, the 74th was inactivated in March 1946. In June 1947, the unit was redesignated as the 369th Replacement Battalion, Organized Reserve Corps, and assigned to the Third Army. In July 1947, the 369th was activated at Fort Jackson and remained in that status until June 1950 when it was inactivated again. On May 30, 1987, the unit was reactivated as the 369th Adjutant General Battalion. The 369th Adjutant General Battalion conducts Advanced Individual Training (AIT) for enlisted Soldiers striving to achieve technical and tactical competence in the personnel, administration, finance, and legal military occupational specialties (MOSs). Although focused primarily on specialized technical training, the 369th also concerns itself with the whole Soldier, strengthening combat survival skills and providing young Soldiers with instruction in human relations, Army values and branch heritage.

Armed Forces Chaplaincy Center

The AFCC, fully operational in January 2010, was established as a result of the 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment legislation. Each service's religious ministry training program will continue to operate as a separate school. The directorship of the AFCC rotates annually between the Navy Commanding Officer and Army and Air Force Commandants. The three schools conduct training to meet Joint and service specific requirements.

United States Army Chaplain Center and School

The USACHCS was created in 1917 to train chaplains for service in World War I. Chaplain (Maj.) Alfred A. Pruden developed the plan for the school.

On Feb. 9, 1918, the War Department approved the plan, and the first session of the Chaplain School commenced March 3, 1918, at Fort Monroe, Va. Since then, the school has moved 16 times, the last from Fort Monmouth, N.J., in 1996. The school is now located in Building 10100 on Lee Road.

The school's mission is the training of chaplains and chaplain assistants who provide for the free exercise of religion for Soldiers and their family members.

One chaplain and one chaplain assistant, at minimum, compose a Unit Ministry Team.

The school conducts basic and advanced officer training for active and reserve-component U.S. and allied nation chaplains.

The 13-week Chaplain Basic Officer Leader Course (CH-BOLC) trains ordained civilian clergy and seminarian students to be military chaplains. Upon graduation from this course, these Soldiers are assigned as battalion chaplains or return to their active, Reserve or National Guard units.

The six-month Chaplain Captain Career Course (C4) trains chaplains who have served in at least two assignments either stateside or overseas, enhancing leadership and supervisory skills and abilities and prepares them to function as brigade chaplains.

For reserve component C4 students, the training encompasses both distance and resident education. Division-level and installation chaplain courses are also offered, as well as the Chaplain Resource Manager Course and the Non-appropriated Chaplain Fund Clerk Course.

The school also provides training for chaplain assistants (56M) at the Advanced Individual Training level (seven-week course). Specific tasks for the chaplain assistant MOS track for the basic and advanced NCO courses are taught as part of the Soldier Support Institute's NCO Academy training.

As part of TRADOC, the school develops concepts and doctrine and produces doctrinal literature for religious support. The proponent for chaplain training is the Chief of Chaplains, located in Washington, D.C.

The facility contains the USACHCS Library, a primary research center for Army chaplains, and the Chaplaincy Religious Support Simulation Center.

The school employs a branch historian and also houses the USACHCS Museum, a repository for artifacts relating to the history of chaplains and chaplain assistants. For more information, call 751-8900, or visit the school's Web site at <http://www.usachcs.army.mil>.

Naval Chaplaincy School and Center

NCSC provides indoctrination to Chaplain Candidate Officers, instruction to newly commissioned Chaplain Corps Officers, Supervisory, Senior Supervisory Chaplain Corps Officers, and professional development to all active and reserve components throughout their years of service with the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. Additionally, with the move to Fort Jackson and the AFCC, the Religious Program Specialist rate training program has been relocated from Meridian, Miss., to form a combined program for training Chaplains and Religious Program Specialists. In 2007, the NCSC was reorganized as an independent command ashore, under the direction of Naval Education and Training Command.

Naval chaplaincy has been part of the Sea Services since the Revolutionary War. The Naval Chaplains School was established in 1942 at Naval Station Norfolk, Va., to provide training for the large number of newly commissioned chaplains entering service during World War II. In 1951, the school was re-established at Naval Station Newport, R.I., where it remained until relocation to Fort Jackson in October, 2009. The Religious Program Specialist rate, created in 1979, provides professional enlisted support to the Religious Ministry Team in Navy and Marine Corps organizations.

United States Air Force Chaplain Corps College

The USAFCCC prepares chaplain candidates, new chaplains and chaplain assistants for initial Air Force service, as well as supervisory and professional development training for all Air Force chaplains and chaplain assistants. Established in 1953 as the USAF Chaplains Course, the program was integrated into the Ira C. Eaker Center for Professional Development in 1992, and re-designated as the U.S. Air Force Chaplain Service Institute, located at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala.

With the move to Fort Jackson as a member of the AFCC, the Air Force has re-designated its chaplain and chaplain assistant training program as the USAFCCC. The name reflects the Air Force's commitment to a high standard of educational excellence, and its emphasis on an academic environment. USAFCCC programs are designed to provide not only first rate training and education, but are also certified for college course credit through the Ira C. Eaker College for Professional Development.

Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment Mission

The Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment (DACA) DACA is the federal center for credibility assessment education, oversight, research and development, threat analysis, and operational support and guidance. DACA supports 26 DoD and Federal agencies to:

- Qualify DoD and other federal personnel for careers as Psychophysiological Detection of Deception (PDD) examiners.
- Provide continuous research in PDD and credibility assessment methods.
- Manage the PDD continuing education certification program for federal agencies.
- Manage the Quality Assurance Program that develops, implements and provides oversight of PDD standards for the federal polygraph programs.
- Provide strategic support to intelligence and law enforcement operations and investigations in the form of advice, analysis and assistance.

The Origin and Evolution of DACA

The original U.S. Army Polygraph School was established in 1951 as part of the Provost Marshal General School at Fort Gordon, Ga., and graduated its first class that same year. In September 1962, the Provost Marshal School was redesignated the U.S. Army Military Police School (USAMPS) and the Army Polygraph School remained under the auspices of USAMPS. In 1975, USAMPS and its Polygraph School transferred to Fort McClellan, Ala.

In 1985, Congress passed a bill directing and authorizing the Secretary of Defense to institute a program of counterintelligence polygraph examinations for military, civilian, and contractor personnel whose duties involved access to classified and highly sensitive compartmented information.

In August 1985, the Deputy Secretary of Defense signed a memorandum designating the Secretary of the Army as Executive Agent for polygraph training within DoD; and in November 1986, USAMPS Polygraph School was realigned and designated as the DoD Polygraph Institute (DoDPI). Shortly thereafter, DoDPI transitioned from a vocational/technical polygraph training school to an educational institute in PDD.

In September 1991, the Secretary of the Army executive agency responsibility was eliminated, and changed the authority, direction and control of DoDPI to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Command, Control, Communications and Intelligence.

In June 1993, the Joint Security Commission (JSC) was formed to address security concerns within the Federal Government, specifically within the intelligence community and the defense community.

One of the recommendations was to consolidate the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Polygraph School with DoDPI to form a polygraph institute that would conduct all PDD education and training of government polygraph examiners. Another recommendation was that DoDPI be the executive agent for a robust, interagency-coordinated and centrally funded research program concentrating on developing valid and reliable security and applicant screening tests; investigate countermeasures; and conduct developmental research on PDD techniques, instrumentation and analytical methods.

In May 1999, operational responsibilities for DoDPI were placed under DSS. As part of the Base Realignment and Closure, in June 1999, DoDPI moved to its present location at Fort Jackson.

In July 2000, graduate level academic credit was recognized for the DoDPI Psychophysiological Detection of Deception Program (PDD). Argosy University — Washington, D.C., will award graduate credit for this program toward a Masters Degree in Forensic Psychology, Forensic Psychophysiology track.

In December 2002, DoDPI was functionally transferred from the DSS to the newly established Counterintelligence Field Activity (CIFA) in accordance with DoD Directive 5105.67, dated Feb. 19, 2002. Since Oct. 1, 2003, DoDPI is operationally under CIFA.

In January 2003, DoDPI was accredited by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools to award a Certificate of Graduate Study in the Psychophysiological Detection of Deception.

On Jan. 25, 2007, the Deputy Secretary of Defense signed a Directive renaming DoDPI the Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment (DACA) which encompasses the full spectrum of the credibility assessment mission.

Security Investigations

The U.S. Army Military Personnel Center's Personnel Security Screening Program Detachment handles security investigations for Soldiers entering the Army at Fort Jackson for duty in sensitive security positions and military occupational specialties.

Criminal Investigation Command

Fort Jackson's 37th MP Detachment (CID) investigates felonies committed by or against the installation's Soldiers and civilians, on and off post, to include property crimes of high-dollar value. The detachment also performs logistical security missions at area ports, protective services for high-ranking Department of the Army and DoD officials, and deploys agents worldwide in support of Army operations.

The special agents assigned to this office are the counterparts of other federal law enforcement agents and civilian detectives. Fort Jackson's CID office has geographic responsibility for the 31 southeastern counties of South Carolina, and the majority of northwestern North Carolina counties, to include Charlotte.

Defense Reutilization and Marketing Office

The Defense Reutilization and Marketing Office stores, reuses, recycles and sells government surplus. Located at 1902 Ewell Road, DRMO conducts monthly auction, sales open to the public. Property may be inspected three days prior to the auction 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Property is offered for sale on an as-is basis. For more information, call 751-7716.

Military Entrance Processing Station (MEPS)

The Fort Jackson Military Entrance Processing Station is a jointly staffed, Department of Defense organization. The MEPS handles the initial testing, physical examinations, screening, occupational counseling and other administrative actions necessary for entry into all branches of the armed services based on service standards for aptitude, medical, and morals. The MEPS staff of 42 conducts more than 15,000 physical examinations and inspections, and processes nearly 10,000 people annually into all branches of military service.

In addition, the MEPS conduct more than 25,000 Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) tests each year throughout South Carolina and Eastern Georgia.

Reserve

South Carolina has approximately 170 reserve-component units manned with about 15,000 Soldiers. Fort Jackson is the training site for many of these units. South Carolina Army National Guard units train here, and operate their Officer Candidate School, Noncommissioned Officer Academy and Primary Leadership Development School. For more information on scheduling a unit to train, call 751-7586.

108th Division

Fort Jackson is the home for two Army Reserve brigades and one drill sergeant battalion. The 3rd Brigade, 7th Brigade, and 1st Battalion, 321st Regiment, 1st Brigade are assigned to the 108th Division (Institutional Training) based in Charlotte, N.C. They are located in the Army Reserve Center on Boyden Arbor Road.

The 3rd Brigade oversees the individual training of combat support military occupational skills for the Army Reserve and Army National Guard enlisted Soldiers in the southeastern United States.

The 7th Brigade provides training support to the 108th Division as well as active duty units at Fort Jackson. Soldiers spend their battle assemblies conducting Army Reserve drill sergeant training and certification. They also operate and support various training ranges on Fort Jackson.

1st Battalion, 321st Regiment

The 1st Battalion, 321st Regiment, 1st Brigade is one of 10 similar units in the 108th Division made of Army Reserve drill sergeants who support Fort Jackson in their mission to train initial entry Soldiers during basic training.

When called to active duty, they would enhance Fort Jackson's ability to train additional Soldiers in their early weeks in the Army.

These three units combined with the other units of the 108th Division (Institutional Training) provide initial entry training, school training in areas of combat support, health services and professional development, and instructor support to the Army National Guard and leadership school brigades. Remember, before warfighter, there is trainer.

157th Infantry Brigade

The 157th Infantry Brigade was activated Dec. 4, 2006 at Fort Jackson. The 157th Infantry Brigade has 600 active duty and Reserve Soldiers assigned to its five battalions spread over South Carolina and Georgia. 2-307th FA, 1-345th EN and 2-345th CS/CSS are located on Fort Jackson. 1-349th LSB and 2-347th CS/CSS are stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga.

The 157th Infantry Brigade's primary mission is to provide training assistance and evaluation to Reserve and National Guard units in South Carolina and the Southeastern United States.

These priority Reserve and National Guard units will be the first Reserve Components to deploy in the event of war. Additionally, in the event of disasters such as hurricanes, the 157th Infantry Brigade provides the Defense Coordinating Officer and the Defense Coordinating Element.

Together, they exercise command and control of federal military forces working in conjunction with FEMA to assist state and local governments.

360th Civil Affairs Brigade (Airborne)

The 360th Civil Affairs Brigade (Airborne) is the U.S. Army Reserve's only Airborne Brigade, and a Tier-One unit. Activated in 1946, the late Senator Strom Thurmond was the first Brigade Commander. The coveted Airborne designation was awarded in 1992.

The 360th is the most deployed USAR unit, deploying Soldiers attached to Special Forces and other Special Operations Forces units as the "Tip of the Spear" on all major operations. These include Operation Early Victor, Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. The Brigade's four Battalions provide Civil Affairs support to the XVIII Airborne Corps' 3rd ID, 10th Mountain, 82nd ABN and 101st ABN (AA) divisions.

USAR Readiness Command

The USAR Readiness Command, located in Building 9810 on Lee Road, is a major subordinate command of the U.S. Army Reserve Command, located at Fort McPherson, Ga. The USARRC has two primary missions; to provide command and control (C2) to 20 units and 1,600 Soldiers located throughout the Continental United States.

The units consist of Army Reserve Elements to Combatant Commands (Joint Forces Command-JFCOM, Transportation Command-TRANSCOM), to Department of Defense/Department of the Army Agencies (UCOM, Iceland defense Force, LOGCAP DISA, Corp of Engineers, DLA) and two highly specialized units (Army Reserve Information Operations Command and Small Arms Readiness Group).

The USARRC also conducts the Command Logistics Review Program of USARC major subordinate commands. For more information, contact 751-7653.

81st Regional Readiness Sustainment Command

The 81st Regional Support Command (RSC) is a Major Subordinate Command of the United States Army Reserve Command. The 81st RSC provides base-operations support to nearly 600 Army Reserve units and 54,000 Soldiers located in 268 facilities in nine states and Puerto Rico, encompassing more than 7.9 million square feet. The 81st RSC also commands and controls three Army Reserve bands.

Navy Reserve Center

The Navy Reserve Center Columbia at 2620 Lee Road provides leadership, support and coordination for 10 assigned Navy Reserve units. To accomplish Navy goals the center staff, consisting of 12 Sailors, manages more than 250 mobilization-ready Sailors.

Marine Corps Detachment

The Marine Corps maintains a detachment on Magruder Avenue in Building 2300 with the following mission: to continue to develop and groom Marines in the accession pipeline to meet the challenges of present and future operational environments in support of operational forces and supporting establishments, through mentorship and formal Military Occupational Skill (MOS) training.

RECREATION AND LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Recreation at Fort Jackson

Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation (FMWR) programs are for every aspect of your life. From sports and fitness to social events at the clubs, concerts and other special events FMWR offers something for every stage of your life. When it comes to recreation and leisure, our facilities have something for everyone, from boats and campsites, to fitness facilities and a golf club comparable to any civilian club. You will find our programs and activities committed to quality and service and aimed toward making your tour at Fort Jackson a pleasant one.

All services are available to active duty military, retirees, reservists, National Guard members, DoD civilian employees and their family members. Come to our FMWR facilities and see what they have to offer you. The Retiree Bulletin, published twice a year, is mailed to some 13,000 retirees and widows living in South Carolina to keep them informed of changes in Army policy and Fort Jackson recreational events.

The park features a "loopy-loop" slide, two speed slides, two gang slides, a lazy river, family activity pool featuring tumble buckets, a lap pool, spray pad with several spray features and children's pool. Palmetto Falls Water Park is open Memorial Day through Labor Day. Daily/seasonal passes are available. Group rates are also available for groups larger than 15.

Palmetto Greens Miniature Golf

Palmetto Greens Miniature Golf scaled down, 18-hole golf facility is located adjacent to the Solomon Center and Palmetto Falls Water Park, providing hours of fun for every age group. Enjoy 18 holes of golf surrounded by a lush, botanical garden setting with meandering streams and waterfalls, beautiful fountain displays and realistic rock sculpturing. Although miniature golf has been a favorite game for many decades, it has evolved away from its early day predecessors of windmills and obstacles into a sport.

Today's miniature Golf Courses are "golf in miniature" facilities featuring miniature replicas of regulation golf's "Famous Holes."

Expect undulations, contours, moguls, water and sand and vegetation traps on Palmetto Greens. Palmetto Greens offers the player many of the challenges of real golf. This new facility provides a park-like setting for the whole family. Regular price is $4.50 per round. For more information, contact Kris Roth at 751-4218.

Sports Branch

For the sports enthusiast, the Sports Branch offers intramural programs for everyone. With the four-field softball complex at Hilton Field, Semmes Road tennis courts, At company and battalion levels, intramural sports include summer/winter basketball, coed volleyball, flag football and men's, women's and coed softball.

For the whole community, recreational teams are also welcome in basketball, volleyball, golf and softball. In addition, the Sports Branch hosts annual special events such as the Army 10-miler teams, bench press meets, swim meets, strongman contest and tennis and racquetball tournaments. For more information, contact Cindi Keene at 751-3096.

Weston Lake

From camping facilities to hiking and mountain bike trails, Weston Lake has something for everyone, year round. Weston Lake's camping facilities include campgrounds, recreational vehicle facilities and cabins, all fully equipped for an enjoyable getaway.

If being on the water is your way of relaxing, the watercraft at the lake is available to rent on an hourly or daily basis. Choose from motorboats, canoes or paddleboats. Or how about trying out the After-Hours Fisherman's Access Program? Don't let the big one get away. Patrons have caught catfish, shellcrackers and largemouth up to 11 pounds. South Carolina licenses and post permits are required to fish at Weston Lake.

Weston Lake also has picnic shelters and a spacious recently updated community house to provide the perfect setting for barbecues or reunions, located near playgrounds and sports areas. The hiking and mountain-bike trails accommodate all fitness levels so you can enjoy the scenery and wildlife. During the summer months, enjoy a cool swim at the beach after a hot day of picnicking or participating in outdoor activities. For information or to make a reservation, call (803) 751-5253.

COMMUNITIES

Columbia

Your host city, Columbia, was founded at the beginning of the 19th century and planned from its inception to serve as the state capital. As such, it represents much of what you would expect to find in the state as a whole.

Its major attractions include the Riverbanks Zoo and Botanical Gardens, the South Carolina State Museum and the Columbia Museum of Art.

In addition, lovely antebellum homes, various smaller museums and historical markers can be found throughout the city. For a bit of self-indulgence, you also will find superb dining and everything from interesting shopping districts to modern malls. For more information on areas of local interest, call the Columbia Metropolitan Visitor's Center at (803) 545-0001, (800) 264-4884 or visit its Web site at <http://www.columbiacvb.com>.

University of South Carolina

Another jewel in Columbia's crown is the beautiful campus of the University of South Carolina. The university adds concerts, theater groups, and all manner of festivals and celebrations to the city's mix of attractions not the least of which is a full range of sporting events featuring USC's Fighting Gamecocks. The Columbia campus is home to more than 27,000 students. The University offers more than 350 degree programs, including 11 programs of study for associate degrees, baccalaureate degrees in 140 areas, master's degrees in 160 areas, doctoral degrees in 63 areas and professional doctorates in law, medicine and pharmacy.

Before you step onto campus, be sure to step into the Visitor Center at the University of South Carolina, our official "front door." Located in Mckissick at the head of our historic Horseshoe, the Visitor Center offers complete information and maps, as well as tours for prospective students and other groups who wish to learn more about the University. Parking for the Visitor Center is located in the cul-de-sac where Bull Street meets Pendleton Street.

For more information about visitor parking, pull into this cul-de-sac. You can reach the Visitor's Center at (803) 777-0169, (800) 922-9755, or at <http://www.sc.edu/visitors>.

The Media

Fort Jackson and the Columbia area are served by a variety of newspapers, magazines and radio and television stations. The area has 28 radio stations, a daily newspaper, several weekly newspapers and five television stations, including the Public Educational Television Network. Time Warner Cable provides cable service to the city and Fort Jackson with a wide variety of channels.

South Carolina at Your Leisure

There is a lot to see and do in South Carolina when you have a few days or more available to spend off post. The following is just a sampling, but should wet your appetite for the kaleidoscope of recreational opportunities this part of America has to offer.

The Grand Strand

The Grand Strand is just 147 miles east of post and comprises some 60 miles of broad white sand beaches facing the Atlantic. Myrtle Beach gets much of the attention but there are half a dozen more towns strung out along the shore to choose from. Meals can be anything from the Hard Rock Cafe to an elegant dinner cruise.

If you're looking for nightlife, there is everything from country and comedy to Broadway classics and jousting knights. There are water parks and the Ripley Aquarium. You can fish from the surf, from piers or aboard deep-sea charter boats.

If golf is your thing, there are more than 100 courses in the area. For summer fun, this is the place!

Charleston

Historic Charleston is just 113 miles southeast of the post and filled with magnificently restored antebellum homes that once housed plantation owners who summered there for the cool ocean breezes.

The harbor's major attractions include storied Fort Sumter, where the first shots of the Civil War were fired. For the more modern history buff, the harbor also boasts Patriot's Point, which comprises the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Yorktown, WWII's "Fighting Lady," as well as a submarine, a destroyer, a Coast Guard cutter, a re-creation of a Vietnam naval support base and the Medal of Honor Museum. The Citadel, one of the oldest and most storied of the military academies, is located on the western edge of Charleston.

Just outside of Charleston is the lovely Magnolia Plantation and Gardens. This is the 300-year-old ancestral home of South Carolina's illustrious Drayton family and is credited with being America's oldest man-made attraction.

The plantation has been open to the public for more than a century. In it, you will find 250 varieties of azaleas and 900 varieties of camellias. Other features include an 18th-century herb garden, a biblical garden, a horticultural maze and the Audubon Swamp Garden. It is located 10 miles northwest of Charleston on Route 61. For more information call (843) 571-1266 or (800) 367-3517.

Plan your off time wisely while you serve at Fort Jackson. There is much you will regret missing out on if you don't. From Revolutionary War sites to NASCAR events at Darlington International Raceway, South Carolina, has it all. For more information, contact the South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism at (803) 734-1700 or at <http://www.discoverouthcarolina.com/index.asp>.

Lake Murray

For those who enjoy the outdoor life and more strenuous activities, the area in and around Columbia is a golfer's paradise and a hiker's dream. While there are numerous nearby streams and lakes to choose from, the most spectacular is Lake Murray, just west of the city.

It provides a huge 78-square-mile playground for all types of recreational activities, from fishing to swimming to camping. Be it wind, motor or paddles that power your boat, there is a place for you on Lake Murray. The lake marina is open seven days a week and offers services including boat sales, rentals, live bait, accessories, launch ramp, wet/dry storage, Mericruiser techs, boat detailing, gas and a ship's store. For more information, contact the Lake Murray Country Visitor's Center at (866) SCJEWEL or www.lakemurraycountry.com, or <http://www.lakemurray.com>.

Asheville, NC

Whether you're seeking lively and creative culture, breathtaking landscapes, exciting outdoor activities like camping in the Blue Ridge Mountains, fishing, or hiking, or relaxing get-aways, Asheville offers an opportunity for everyone. Asheville is located 157 miles northwest of Columbia on Interstate 26.

Charlotte, NC

Charlotte, known as the "Queen City," is located 92 miles north of Columbia on Interstate 77. The city offers everything from cultural institutions and attractions to world-class dining and nightlife to shopping and sporting events (NASCAR, NFL, NBA) unique to the Charlotte region. Enjoy the southern hospitality for which Charlotte is so well known.

HISTORY AND MUSEUMS

A Tradition of Excellence

On June 2, 1917, a new Army Training Center was established to answer America's call for trained fighting men the early ominous days of WWI. This installation would become the largest and most active of its kind in the world.

First known as the Sixth National Cantonment, and later as Camp Jackson, Fort Jackson has always served as the Army's pioneer in the training environment. Named the Army's Community of Excellence in 1988, Fort Jackson has continued to earn awards for excellence year after year.

The initial site of the cantonment area consisted of almost 1,200 acres. The citizens of Columbia donated the land to the federal government, thereby initiating the long tradition of respect, cooperation and friendship between the city and the installation. In fact, Fort Jackson was incorporated into the city in October 1968.

Named in honor of Maj. Gen. Andrew Jackson, a native son of the Palmetto State and the seventh president of the United States, Camp Jackson was designated as one of 16 national cantonments constructed to support the war effort.

Years of Growth

The pressure of World War I brought swift changes. Within 11 days of the signing of a contract to construct the camp, the 110-man camp guard arrived. By the end of the first month, the labor force had grown to more than 1,200 and the first two barracks were completed.

Two months later, the force had grown to almost 10,000 men. Virtually overnight, Camp Jackson had grown from a sandy soil, pine and scrub oak forest to a thriving Army training center, complete with a trolley line and hundreds of buildings.

Three months after construction began, some 8,000 draftees arrived for training. The first military unit to be organized here was the 81st "Wildcat" Division, under the camp's first official commander, Maj. Gen. Charles H. Barth. Members of the original guard, who had been the first to occupy the camp, were moved to Camp Sevier in Greenville, S.C., and incorporated into the 30th "Old Hickory" Division, named in honor of Jackson.

More than 45,000 troops from these famed divisions went to France as part of the American Expeditionary Forces, including Freddie Stowers, the only African-American recipient of the Medal of Honor from that war. He was a member of the 1st Provisional Infantry Regiment, which trained at Fort Jackson.

The World War Years

In less than eight months, construction of the vast camp was complete. But almost as suddenly as it began, the clamor subsided. With the signing of the Armistice in 1918, the famed 30th Division was inactivated. The 5th Infantry Division trained here until it was inactivated in 1921. Control of the camp reverted to the Cantonment Lands Commission, and from 1925 to 1939, the sleepy silence was broken only by the occasional reports of weapons fired by state National Guardsmen.

In 1939, the demands of war brought the area again under federal control, and Fort Jackson was organized as an infantry training center. Four firing ranges were constructed, and more than 100 miles of roads were hard surfaced and named for legendary Revolutionary War figures and heroes of the Civil War.

During World War II, the "Old Hickory" Division was one of the first units to reappear on the scene, just as it had in 1917. More than 500,000 men and women received some phase of their training here. Other famed units to train here during this period were the 4th, 6th, 8th, 26th, 77th, 87th, 100th and 106th. Other units at Fort Jackson trained thousands of troops during the Korean and Vietnam conflicts.

In May 1946, Fort Jackson became a replacement-training center. The 5th Infantry Division was reactivated here in 1947 as a training division. It was replaced in August by a reactivated 8th Infantry division following the outbreak of the Korean War. In January 1951, the 31st Infantry Division joined them.

By May 1954, the 31st and 8th Divisions had been transferred and were replaced by the famed 101st Airborne Division, defenders of Bastogne during the Battle of the Bulge. On March 16, 1956, Fort Jackson was formally designated the United States Army Training Center, Infantry, as 10,000 troops paraded on Hilton Field and colors were changed in the ceremony. The 101st was transferred to Fort Campbell, Ky.

Throughout the 60s and 70s, Fort Jackson continued its mission of conducting basic training. In June 1973, Fort Jackson was designated as the United States Army Training Center, where young recruits were taught to think, look and act as Soldiers always.

Thousands of Soldiers were trained here as the Army experienced a "training revolution." Part of those changes included train fire, a system of rifle training that was tested and instituted at Fort Jackson. Another addition to the training environment included Victory Tower in 1976.

This structure is used to reinforce the skills and confidence of the individual Soldier.

In 1987, more change took place, as 10 basic training battalions became part of regiments. The purpose of the United States Army Regimental System is to provide the opportunity for affiliation, develop loyalty and commitment, and improve esprit de corps.

90 Years of Excellence

Fort Jackson had grown over the years, but most of the buildings were temporary. Finally in 1964, construction began on permanent steel and concrete buildings to replace wooden barracks which had housed the fort's troops since the early 1940s. In recognition of the fort's 50th anniversary in 1967, the citizens of Columbia gave Fort Jackson the statue of Andrew Jackson that stands at Gate 1.

With the establishment of the modern volunteer Army in 1970 and the need to promote the attractiveness of service life, construction peaked in an effort to modernize facilities and improve services.

Through the years, changes have been made to enhance training. Victory Tower, an apparatus designed to complement Basic Combat Training, is used to reinforce the skills and confidence of the individual Soldier. Field training exercises were incorporated into advance individual training so Soldiers would have an opportunity to practice MOS and common skills in a field environment.

By 1988, initial entry training strategy was implemented. The standard unit of training was the platoon. Training focused on hands-on skill development rather than platform instruction.

Fort Jackson continues to win awards as it moves toward its vision of the future. The goal is to make Fort Jackson the best living, working and training environment it can be. "Victory Starts Here," as it has since 1917.

Post Museums

Fort Jackson Museum

The Fort Jackson Museum, located at 4442 Jackson Blvd., across from Post Headquarters, was established in 1972 with an initial collection of only 20 artifacts. Since opening to the public in July 1974, the collection has grown to more than 4,500 pieces of historical objects.

The museum exhibits an assortment of military weapons, uniforms and other equipment to illustrate how the American Soldiers trained to perform their duties in peacetime and war. These displays are supplemented by exhibitions that deal with special areas of interest, such as women in the Army and the major units that have trained at Fort Jackson since World War I.

Several typical military vehicles from World War II to the present are displayed outside the museum building, which is adjacent to a small picnic area. Additional vehicles and artillery pieces are located throughout the installation.

Museum hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., closed weekends and federal holidays. Extended Family Day hours are available. For information, call 751-7419.

Finance Corps Museum

The Finance Corps Museum transferred from the Army Finance Center, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. to Fort Jackson in 1995 with the U.S. Army Finance School. It is the historical repository for artifacts documenting the history of the Finance Corps from its birth in 1775 to present. The Museum preserves branch-related historical memorabilia and provides interpretive displays representative of the history of the Finance Corps.

The Museum supports the training and professional development needs for Soldiers affiliated with the Finance Corps to encourage a better understanding of their branch values and contributions to the history of the U.S. Army.

The Museum is dedicated to furthering the educational needs and interests of the Fort Jackson community and the public. It is collocated with the U.S. Army Adjutant General's Corps Museum. The exhibit gallery is open to the public Tuesday through Friday, noon to 4 p.m., except federal holidays. The Museum facility is located on the corner of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Magruder Avenue in Building 4392. Admission to the Museum is free and it is handicap accessible. Group tours are available by appointment. For more information, call 751-3771.

Adjutant General Museum

For more than 230 years, the mission of the Adjutant General's Corps has remained constant — to assist the commander in war and peace, and to provide superior personnel support to the Soldiers, civilians and the families which make up our Army. Traditionally, the Corps has been responsible for developing Army personnel and administrative policies and programs.

Today, they continue to build and sustain combat readiness through dynamic human resources and administrative programs. The Adjutant General's Corps promotes the Soldier's well being by maintaining personnel and management support services, personnel strength management, casualty and memorial affairs, and the band and postal operations for America's Army.

The Adjutant General's Corps Museum is dedicated to the history of the Army's Adjutant General's Corps from 1775 to present. Historical documents, photos, uniforms and equipment depict the diverse history of the Corps. Today's AG Corps serves as human resource manager for the Army. It functions as the supervisor and coordinator of a unit's personnel and administration systems.

Additionally, the AG Corps is the proponent for the Army bands, postal operations, and Morale, Welfare and Recreation activities.

The museum is open to the general public on Tuesday through Friday, noon to 4 p.m. The museum facility is located on the corner of Strom Thurmond Boulevard and Magruder Avenue in Building 4392. Admission to the museum is free and it is handicap accessible. Group tours are available by appointment. For more information call 751-1747.

Chaplain Museum

Ever since armies have gone into battle, accompanying them were persons who would provide spiritual comfort to the soldiers. The Chaplain Museum displays the history and evolution of military chaplaincy since its inception on July 29, 1775 through present day. It chronicles the men and women who have aided and served the Army both spiritually and militarily.

The exhibits offer visitors the opportunity to learn about the dedicated service of the Chaplaincy to our Army in response to the challenges of war and peacetime.

Featured displays include the development of equipment enabling chaplains and chaplain assistants to comfort and minister to all faith groups and the ingenuity of soldiers who used simple materials on hand to construct a chapel, the altar and its furnishings on a South Pacific island during World War II.

From the Korean War era, observe a field service and the poignant memoir of a chaplain assistant. The Museum is located at the U.S. Army Chaplain Center and School, (10100 Lee Road) on the corner of Lee and Benning Roads. Museum hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., closed weekends and Federal holidays.

Admission is free and the general public is welcome. Parking is available across the street from the building on Benning Road. Group tours are available by appointment. For more information, call 751-8827/8079, or visit our Web site at <http://www.usachcs.army.mil>.

FORT JACKSON

CAMPAIGN PLAN 2009 - 2011

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

COMMANDING GENERAL'S MESSAGE

I am privileged to have served at Fort Jackson since July of 2008. The post is truly blessed with an abundance of resources, talent, and unlimited potential. I cannot overstate how honored and proud I am to lead so many professionals. The people here and the missions they complete are truly remarkable. That fact, which is at the very core of our proud legacy, will help us sustain confidence and momentum as we approach our new path. We have developed a plan with an integrated common vision to bridge Fort Jackson into a future that is even greater than its storied past.

The nature of what we do here at Fort Jackson is integral in supporting our Army. The way we accomplish this common goal of Army support is expressed in our vision statement. This clear, concise, and insightful declaration provides purpose, direction, and motivation for all on Fort Jackson. It provides an overarching concept, which will serve to focus on specific organizational goals, plans, and programs. This vision provides the direction for every member of Team Jackson to strive toward higher goals and improved performance as it relates to training, quality of life, and supporting and sustaining the Soldiers, Families, and Civilians of Fort Jackson. The vision statement was the initial step in implementing positive change.

The next step was the creation of Fort Jackson's Campaign Plan; a comprehensive plan for the entire installation which integrates all actions across three lines of operation — training, quality of life, and support and sustainability. These lines of operation outline a common goal of improving Fort Jackson over the next three years while we serve as an integral part of the Generating Force in support of Army Force Generation (ARFORGEN). As the Army's foremost training center, Fort Jackson must continue to excel by improving upon its already solid foundation. In order to accomplish this, we have implemented specific campaign and major objectives which are expressed on our Strategy Map. These campaign and major objectives allow us to quantifiably measure our effectiveness in the accomplishment of our mission and ensure our success.

Our mission is vital and demands the very best in all of us. Our legacy must be one of selfless service, strong leadership, and positive impact. We will accomplish this and build our legacy based upon our deeds, not our words. I encourage each and every member of Team Jackson to understand the ideas presented here, so you can contribute to improving Fort Jackson and our Army.

Bradley W. May
Commanding General

VISION

Team Jackson, a proud legacy of training and inspiring American Soldiers for over 90 years, committed to transforming individuals and institutions, while at the same time providing the highest quality of life and care for our Soldiers, Families, and Civilians.

Fort Jackson: Tradition, Training, Transformation

TRADITION

Fort Jackson has played a vital role in preparing Americans to serve their country for more than 90 years. When the installation was built in 1917, just like today, our nation was at war. Since then, numerous units have prepared for battle here – the 4th Infantry Division, the 101st Airborne Division, and the 81st Infantry Division. More than 500,000 Soldiers trained here before fighting in World War II. The Soldiers who trained here before us leave us with a proud legacy and have inspired many to follow in their footsteps. Although the Army has changed tremendously over the years, we are all part of that lineage of brave Americans. All of us should be proud to be part of the tradition that defines this great installation.

TRAINING

Training is our hallmark. As the Basic Combat Training Center of Excellence, we are transforming civilians, training Soldiers, and developing leaders who live the Warrior Ethos, are physically tough, mentally adaptable, and able to contribute to the success of their first unit of assignment meeting ARFORGEN requirements. Today, Fort Jackson trains approximately 50,000 Soldiers a year in Basic Combat Training. Eighty percent of women who join the Army are trained here. We are home to Advanced Individual Training units, the Soldier Support Institute, the Drill Sergeant School, Joint Forces Chaplain Center and School, Victory University, and the Defense Academy for Credibility Assessment. Additionally, Task Force Marshall prepares Individual Ready Reserve Soldiers and Navy individual augmentees for deployment. Fort Jackson plays a vital part in training Soldiers and protecting our country. Our Army serves a nation at war. Our individual and organizational approach to our duties and tasks must reflect the seriousness and sense of urgency characteristic of an Army at war. Make no mistake, we are an Army and a nation at war. The lives of our sons and daughters in uniform and those of their loved ones at home depend upon our best effort to prepare them for this conflict.

TRANSFORMATION

Although we have a proud tradition on which to rely and inspire us, we must never lose sight of the future. To be effective, we must be willing and ready to accept change. Transformation means more than just modernizing our infrastructure. This means constantly challenging ourselves, our methods, and our means. Transformation is not a new concept here. Our responsibility as leaders hinges on our ability to continually evaluate and improve training. It is only by providing the best training that effective transformation from civilian into Soldier can occur. With the greatest training possible, our Soldiers will always meet the demands of our Operational Army.

MISSION

The Army Training Center and Fort Jackson executes Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training; enhances our Drill Sergeant and Cadre Leader Training; and synchronizes our Service Support Operating Systems in order to effectively transform civilians, train Soldiers, and develop leaders who live the Warrior Ethos, are physically tough, mentally adaptive, and able to contribute to the success of their first unit of assignment supporting ARFORGEN requirements for both the Operational Army and the Generating Force.

COMMANDING GENERAL'S STANDING INTENT

Purpose

The Purpose of this Standing Intent is to provide clarity and unity of effort to all Soldiers and Civilians on Fort Jackson. In the absence of orders, this intent statement summarizes my view of our mission.

Key Tasks

- Live the Army Values. As Soldiers and Civilians, we must be role models.
- Discipline: Is doing the “right thing,” even when nobody is watching. Take pride in our discipline.
- All Leaders, Military and Civilian, are paid to think. We must constantly seek improvement.
- We accomplish nothing by ourselves. Serving here means being a part of a Team and a Team of Teams.
- Know, train, and enforce the “Standard.”
- Fort Jackson Soldiers must be “Masters” in Basic Rifle Marksmanship and all aspects of First Aid.
- Leaders, at all levels, take ownership for our Barracks. Regardless of age, make them a showplace.
- Sexual Assault, in any form, is a crime and is not tolerated here.
- When things go wrong, get accurate information quickly and report it to your chain of command.
- Great Leaders, Military and Civilian, counsel their subordinates. Be a great Leader.

Endstate

Fort Jackson is a great place to serve our nation. Our task is to make it even better. Our mission is vital and our obligations to the nation demand the very best in all of us, Military or Civilian. Our legacy to the generations that follow must be one of selfless service coupled with strong and positive leadership. We will accomplish this task and build our legacy based upon our deeds not words.

Campaign Plan Operational Design

To better support an Army at war now and in the future, we will develop a laser focus on executing Initial Individual Military Training, our core competency. To accomplish this we must embrace change by fostering a culture of innovation. As part of the Generating Force, we will accomplish this by emphasizing our core sub-functions as the heart of what Fort Jackson delivers to the Army. We will accomplish our mission by building and sustaining our core sub-functions. The Fort Jackson Campaign Plan identifies leads for each Campaign and Major Objective nested within the Lines of Operation.

Fort Jackson's core competency and core function is to execute Initial Individual Military Training (IMT)

Our core sub-functions:

- Basic Combat Training
- Advanced Individual Training
- Pre-Command Course, AIT PSG Course, Drill Sergeant School, and Cadre Training Courses
- IET (Initial Entry Training) proponent (Doctrine and Training Development)
- IET Research
- Reception
- Army Prep School
- Quality of Life for Soldiers, Families, and Civilians
- Service Support and Sustainability Operating Systems

Fort Jackson's Strategy: Ends, Ways, and Means

This framework focuses thinking and provides direction. Adopting the Ends, Ways, and Means framework allows Fort Jackson to express its strategy in a succinct, coherent, and simple manner.

The Ends of Fort Jackson's strategy: Fort Jackson's strategic vision consists of three overarching and interrelated strategies, or ends. The ends are to support ARFORGEN by focusing on Initial IMT, our core competency; provide the highest quality of life possible for those who live and work here; and to improve, synchronize and integrate our support and sustainability operating systems supporting the IMT and Quality of Life ends. These explain what Fort Jackson does to support the TRADOC and DCG, IMT Campaign Plans.

The Ways of Fort Jackson's strategy. The ways of our strategy are methods which achieve our ends. The ways are expressed as Campaign Objectives with associated Major Objectives.

The Means of Fort Jackson's strategy. The means of our strategy are the resources and initiatives that enable us to achieve our ends. The means of Fort Jackson's strategy are our strategic communications, knowledge management, physical assets, financial resources, and business transformation processes.

Lines of Operation. The Lines of Operation for our Campaign Plan describe similar, closely related core sub-functions, with actions and activities that link objectives in time and purpose. The lines of operation were developed to focus responsibility for, and cooperation among, like activities. Each line of operation has a dedicated staff lead for achieving desired outcomes, establishing standards, and developing metrics.

The Fort Jackson Campaign Plan has three lines of operation:

★ Training      ★ Quality of Life      ★ Support & Sustainability

VISION: Team Jackson, a proud legacy of training and inspiring American Soldiers for over 90 years, committed to transforming individuals and institutions, while at the same time providing the highest quality of life and care for our Soldiers, Families, and Civilians.

SOUTH CAROLINA FACTS

DID YOU KNOW:

- The Black River Swamp Preserve is located near Andrews. This slow-moving river is characterized by high concentrations of organic carbon, which accounts for the tea-colored water and gives rise to the diverse habitats in its widespread floodplain.
- The Edisto River Canoe & Kayak Trail covers 66 miles of the river for which it's named. The Edisto is reputed to be the world's longest free-flowing "blackwater" stream. "Blackwater" is a term that not only describes the color of the tannin-rich water, but also refers to the peaceful rate of flow that characterizes such rivers.

SOUTH CAROLINA FACTS

- Stretching 60 miles from Little River to Georgetown, South Carolina's Grand Strand is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the United States.
- Little River is the Gateway to the Grand Strand. Giant moss-covered oak trees, that are centuries old, line its waterfront and many streets!
- The Upper Whitewater Falls is the highest cascade in eastern America; it descends for nearly 411 feet.

SOUTH CAROLINA FACTS

DID YOU KNOW:

- The salamander was given the honor of official state amphibian.
- The walls of the American fort on Sullivan Island, in Charleston Harbor, were made of spongy Palmetto logs. This was helpful in protecting the fort because the British cannonballs bounced off the logs.
- The first battle of the Civil War took place at Fort Sumter.
- Every few years, Irmo has a sighting of some kind of water monster that inhabits Lake Murray. The monster first 'surfaced' in 1973 when residents of Irmo and Ballentine saw a cousin of the Loch Ness Monster. It was described in The Independent News in 1980 as "a cross between a snake and something prehistoric."
- Johnston is known as the Peach Capital of the World.

WARNING

Non-secure communication and information exchange is extremely vulnerable to hostile exploitation through monitoring. Do not attempt to "talk around" a classified or sensitive subject. Accumulated bits of seemingly "unimportant" information collected through continued monitoring when analyzed can provide hostile intelligence services with vital National Defense information. (Army Regulations 330-5 and 530-2). Unofficial use of DSN, FTS 2001 and any other Department of Defense (DoD) funded telephone system is prohibited. Personnel found fraudulently using DoD telephone systems are subject to be disciplined to the maximum extent possible. Individuals found placing unofficial toll calls will pay for incurred charges (Army regulation 25-1). Third party monitoring of a telephone conversation is prohibited unless all parties give consent. This also applies to use of hands-free speaker telephones when more than one person is present at the hands-free location. It is a misdemeanor for anyone to use the telephone as a means of conveying obscene or indecent language or to make anonymous or repeated calls to annoy, abuse, embarrass or harass. Do not process, store or transmit classified information on non-secure telecommunications systems. Official DoD telecommunications systems, including telephones, facsimile machines, computer networks and modems, are subject to monitoring for telecommunications systems constitutes consent to telecommunications security monitoring.

DISCLAIMER

Due to the modernization of the Fort Jackson information technology infrastructure, the installation will be introducing a new telephone dialing plan with the following changes:

- A new additional 7-digit telephone dialing sequence (in addition to the current 751-XXXX dialing)
- A new series of phone numbers - (803) 562-XXXX
- A new series of Defense Switch Network (DSN) phone numbers - 859-XXXX

How does this affect you (community users)?

- If you currently have a 751-XXXX phone number, it will not change. You will have to dial the complete 7-digits at all times as the current 5-digit dialing feature will be terminated.
- If you have a new phone installed in your organization, it will have the new telephone number prefixes (803) 562-XXXX/DSN 859-XXXX.
- All Fort Jackson's published phone directories should include the full 7-digit numbers during regular updates.

TELEPHONE SERVICE INFORMATION

FORT JACKSON DIRECT DIAL .....(803) 751-XXXX
 FORT JACKSON DSN .....734-XXXX
 ON POST DIALING .....4-XXXX

Fort Jackson Telephone Network uses FTS2000 for long distance service and Defense Switch Network (DSN) for Official Communications.

From an official Fort Jackson Government telephone, dial the number "4" and the last four digits of the telephone number. For example: "4-XXXX." Dial the number "9" to obtain an outside line for local and long distance calls. To place a telephone call via DSN, dial "88" then the DSN prefix for the particular installation and the number. Direct dial, long distance calls via commercial carriers cannot be made from the Fort Jackson exchange. OCONUS calls require a control number issued by the Staff Duty Officer and provided to the Telephone Operator who actually places the call.

TELEPHONE TROUBLES — To report official telephone service problems, broken phones, bad ringers, and cut or down lines, call 15. To report problems with commercial service, dial 780-2355 as indicated in the front of the Southern Bell Phone Book.

NEW/CHANGED SERVICE — To request new service or changes to existing service (moves, features, etc.), submit a Department of the Army Form 3938, "Local Service Request," to your unit Information Management Systems Control Officer (IMSCO). He or she will verify, approve and forward them to DOIM. DOIM will not accept or process telephone work orders which have not been signed by the IMSCO.

CHANGES TO TELEPHONE DIRECTORY — Any changes in organization names, activations and deactivations, relocations, or use of certain phone numbers or personnel position titles should be submitted on a Department of the Army Form 3938, "Local Service Request" through the unit IMSCO to DOW so the directory listings can be updated. Activities that relocate to new facilities, or deactivate, or require changes in current service, should submit DA Form 3938 to have official service changed or disconnected (each action should be noted on a separate W.O.)

SPECIAL TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT — IAW DA Pamphlet 251-1, Installation Information Services, Aug. 27, 1991, paragraph 3-4.9.1, any special communications equipment to include, but not necessarily limited to telephone instruments, FAX machines, answering machines, computer modems, speaking devices and broadcast devices must be approved in writing by the DOIM prior to connection to an official telephone network. Requests for special equipment should be made to the DOIM Network/Information Center using the Capabilities and Requirements (CAPR) Form.

CLASS OF SERVICE

These are the basic classes of service:

- CLASS 0 — accesses on post numbers only.
- CLASS 1 — accesses numbers on post and within the local Columbia area.
- CLASS 3 — accesses on post numbers and 1-800 only.
- CLASS 5 — accesses numbers on post, Columbia area, DSN and FTS 2001.
- CLASS 9 — accesses on post and DSN numbers
- CLASS 14 — all access, including 24-hour long distance, requires justification and DOIM approval.
- CLASS 15 — on post, local Columbia area and DSN.
- CLASS 18 — restricted TISI dial-up access.

LIMITATION OF AFTER-DUTY ACCESS TO LONG DISTANCE SERVICE AND TELEPHONE CONTROL NUMBERS

— Access to long distance or FTS 2001 service is restricted Monday through Friday, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 a.m., and all day Saturday, Sunday and holidays. Emergency personnel and certain duty officers still have long distance access. Other personnel who need to place an official long distance call during these hours of restricted access are required to have a telephone control number before the call will be placed. To obtain a telephone control number, contact your respective Unit's designated agent. The Post Staff Duty Officer no longer issues telephone control numbers; each Unit, Directorate and Activity issues them. The Post Operator will place the call when a valid telephone control number is provided.

IDENTIFYING DIAL-UP DATA LINES — All data line jacks should have the telephone number written on the jack. If it has been inadvertently erased or painted over the phone number can be obtained by plugging a push-button phone into the jack and dialing 15; the Operator will tell you the phone number. This will facilitate reporting trouble on the line.

TELEPHONE FEATURES

Available telephone features are listed below. To activate these features you need only use the switchhook flash or a combination of the switchhook flash, the * key and the access code. The first three features are available on all single-line, touchtone telephones. Other features must be requested on a Department of the Army Form 3938.

- CALL TRANSFER — Allows a phone to transfer a call to another phone.
  - switchhook flash/dial number/hang up
- LAST NUMBER REDIAL — Will redial the last number dialed from the phone.
  - access code (11 or #)
- THREE-WAY CONFERENCE — Allows a phone to have a three party call of on-post members only.
  - switchhook flash (1st party is now on hold)
- CALL HOLD — Allows any phone to place a call on hold against that phone.
  - switchhook flash/access code (*78)

- CALL PICK-UP — Allows a phone to answer any incoming call to any other directory number in that pick-up group.
  - push *, then access code (74)
- SPEED CALL (LONG) — Allows a phone access to a speed call long list.
  - access code (*77)
- RING AGAIN — Notifies a user when a busy military number becomes idle.
  - to activate: switchhook flash/access code (*75)
  - to cancel: Lift handset/access code (*76)
- CALL FORWARD — Allows you to program your telephone so that calls to your extension will ring at another number.
  - to activate: push *, then access code (70)/dial number of forward station.
  - to cancel: Lift handset/push */access code (71)

FLEXIBLE STATION-CONTROLLED CONFERENCE

— Allows a user to establish a conference call consisting of up to six parties without the assistance of an attendant.

- switchhook flash/access code (*80) to set-up conference
- switchhook flash/access code (*80) to release conference

- SPEED CALL (SHORT) — Allows a phone access to a speed call short list.
  - access code (*76)/one digit code
- CALL WAITING — Alerts a phone that a third party is calling it.
  - switchhook flash/(1st party is now on hold)
- PERMANENT HOLD — This feature allows you put an active call on hold and return the handset to the cradle.
  - switchhook flash/access code (78)

BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES

DIAL 9-1-1 FOR ALL EMERGENCIES

If you receive a bomb threat DO NOT hang up the telephone. Use another telephone to notify the Military Police. If another telephone is not available, then you must use the same instrument. Either way, call the Military Police at extension 3113/3114/911. If possible danger to life or property is involved, alert everyone and vacate the area. Use the following chart as a guide when receiving or reporting a bomb threat.

QUESTIONS TO ASK:

- When is the bomb going to explode?
- Where is the bomb?
- What does it look like?
- What kind of bomb is it?
- What will cause it to explode?
- Did you place the bomb?
- Why?
- What is your name?
- What is your address?

TORNADO PROCEDURES

Tornadoes occur frequently in South Carolina with March, April and May being the peak months. There may be little to no advance warning and tornadoes are extremely unpredictable. Measures to protect yourself and your family must be taken immediately.

TORNADO WATCHES are issued by the National Weather Service (NWS) and mean that conditions are favorable for the formation of tornadoes. Monitor radio and television and listen for the Fort Jackson Tornado Warning Siren. Prepare to take shelter immediately.

TORNADO WARNINGS are also issued by the NWS and mean that tornado formation is imminent or a tornado has actually been sighted. If you see a NWS Tornado Warning on television, for the Fort Jackson area, or hear the Fort Jackson tornado-warning siren, TAKE SHELTER IMMEDIATELY.

TORNADO SIREN The mass notification system (tornado warning siren) is currently located on fifteen towers across the cantonment area. When a tornado warning pertinent to the Fort Jackson area is received from the National Weather Service (NWS) at either the Emergency Services Center (ESC) or the Installation Operation Center (IOC), either one or both of those locations can activate the tornado warning.

The tornado warning consists of a 15-second pulsed steady tone followed by the announcement "Your attention please. A tornado warning is in effect for the Fort Jackson area. Fort Jackson is in imminent danger of severe weather. Take shelter immediately," with one repetition.

When the danger has passed, the ESC or the IOC will issue the "all clear" which is a 15-second pulsed steady tone followed by, "Your attention please. All clear, the danger has passed and Fort Jackson is no longer in an emergency status. You may resume normal activities," with one repetition.

In addition to the "canned" messages that the system is capable of delivering, there is a public address system capability at both the ESC and IOC. This enables the operator to speak over any of the towers independently, in small groups, or across the entire system in order to issue special warnings and instructions.

The Mass Notification System is tested every Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. If bad weather actually threatens at that time, the test will be cancelled.

TORNADO SAFETY

While there is no place that is 100 percent safe during a tornado, some are safer than others.

TAKE SHELTER:

- In an interior closet.
- Under interior stairs.
- In a bathroom (interior if possible).
- Next to a bed with the mattress over you.

STAY AWAY FROM:

- Windows. Flying glass is the greatest danger.
- Heavy objects such as appliances and bookshelves.
- Corridors facing the wind.

IF AWAY FROM HOME:

- If in a motor vehicle, get out and seek shelter. If no shelter is available, seek a depression or ditch. DO NOT attempt to take shelter under an overpass.
- Get away from windows.
- Get low, protect your head.
- Avoid trees, poles and power lines.

THUNDERSTORM WATCHES are issued when the National Weather Service determines that conditions are right for the formation of a thunderstorm. You should monitor a radio or television to see if severe thunderstorms are predicted to pass through the area. Keep listening to the radio or television for updates.

THUNDERSTORM WARNINGS are issued when a thunderstorm actually exists and is predicted to hit this area. Remain indoors. If in the field, ground weapons and move to a lightning shelter area.

MINIMIZE LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE TRAFFIC IN AN EMERGENCY

When an actual or simulated emergency arises, or is anticipated, it is necessary to reduce the volume of record and long distance telephone traffic ordinarily transmitted over U.S. Military Networks. This action is required to facilitate prompt transmission of essential traffic, which must be transmitted electronically to avoid a serious impact on mission accomplishment or personnel safety.

Notification will be transmitted by the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) or the Command concerned, as appropriate, MINIMIZE will be automatically imposed upon declaration of a defense emergency. The Joint Chiefs of Staff or Command concerned will convert to MINIMIZE when it is no longer required.

During periods when MINIMIZE is imposed over voice communication, authority to originate or certify long-distance telephone calls will be limited to the Commander or his designated representative within the command or activity, normally the Information Management Systems Control Officer (IMSCO).

Upon notification the MINIMIZE is imposed, switchboard operators will advise the person for whom calls are pending of the MINIMIZE condition. All calls placed subsequently must be authorized according to the Joint Uniform Precedence System.

ACTION HOTLINES

Fort Jackson's leadership is concerned about the overall quality of life of its Soldiers, civilian employees, and family members. This philosophy has helped maintain a true community of excellence. To maintain a safe, pleasant environment conducive to the well being of the Fort Jackson family, as series of telephone hotlines have been established for community members to voice their concerns.

DEFENSE SWITCHED NETWORK

DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS AGENCY MISSION

"To plan, engineer, develop, test, manage programs, acquire, implement, operate and maintain information systems for C4I and mission support under all conditions of peace and war."

DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS AGENCY MANDATE

The Defense Information Systems Agency is transforming the way Department of Defense users move, share and use information. All DoD personnel need information whether they maintain or fly aircraft, operate a periscope, move a platoon, perform surgery, process transactions, or any of hundreds of other jobs supporting our country's defense. As the manager, DISA is integrating hardware and software and constructing a common operating environment to sustain warfighters need for information anytime, anywhere. The pillars of the system are the Defense Information System Network, the Defense Message System, the Global Command and Control System and the Global Combat Support System. DISA is also helping protect against, detect and react to threats to both its information infrastructure and information sources.

DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS NETWORK VISION

"DISN will be the preeminent provider of information systems delivery support to our WARFIGHTERS and others as required by the DoD, under all conditions of Peace and War."

Defense Switched Network (GS23)

Branch Chief - Howard Osman

A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE DEFENSE SWITCHED NETWORK

The DSN is a primary information transfer network for the Defense Information Systems Network (DISN). The DSN provides the worldwide non-secure voice, secure voice, data, facsimile and video teleconferencing services for DoD Command and Control (C2) elements, their supporting activities engaged in logistics, personnel, engineering and intelligence, as well as other Federal agencies.

In 1982, the DSN was designated by the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) as the provider of long-distance communications service for the DoD. The DSN is designated as a primary system of communication during peacetime and during periods of crisis, pre-attack, non-nuclear and post-attack phases of war. The network assures non-blocking service for users with flash and flash override precedence capabilities. Key users include the National Command Authorities, Commanders in Chief (CINCs) of the Unified Commands and strategic and tactical subordinate commanders.

The DSN consists of four subsystems: Switching, Transmission, Timing and Synchronization and Network Administration and Management. The DSN Switching Subsystem consists of multi-function, stand alone tandem, end office, and remote switching units. Using the transmission, timing, and control elements of the DISN, the switching units interconnect all military locations worldwide and provide end-to-end long-distance common user and dedicated voice, secure voice, data and video services worldwide.

In addition to non-secure voice, data, and video services, the DSN provides transmission, switching and support services for Secure Telephone Units, Third Generation (STU-III)s, the Secure Terminal Equipment (STE), the Defense RED Switch Network (DRSN), dial-up alternative routing for the Unclassified but Sensitive Internet Protocol (IP) Router Network (NIPRNet) and the Secret IP Router Network (SIPRNet). The DSN also provides access to the Government Emergency Telephone System (GETS).

FOREWORD

The Defense Switched Network Telephone Directory is divided into six geographical listings: Alaska, Canada, the Continental United States (CONUS), Europe, the Pacific and Central Command.

The Defense Switched Network Telephone Directory cannot list all subscriber numbers. It does provide a facility or organizational central contact telephone number, which is generally an operator assistance number. If you do not have the current number for the party to whom you wish to speak, use the central contact number to obtain your party's number or to have your call forwarded.

Listings in the directory are in two formats. Both proper name and facility type are used for ease of location of posts, bases, camps and stations. For example, Camp (CP) Smith is listed as Smith, Camp and CP Smith; the Naval Air Facility at Atsugi is listed as Atsugi Naval Air Facility and Naval Air Facility-Atsugi; and Lackland Air Force Base (AFB) is listed as Lackland AFB and AFB, Lackland. Units identified by numerical designations are listed in numerical order, not by unit type. For example, the 121ST Tactical Fighter Wing (TFW) is listed only as the 121ST TFW.

The Defense Switched Network Telephone Directory is in alphabetical order by area code (e.g. Alaska, Canada, CONUS). The seven-digit operator assistance telephone number is sorted numerically.

NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM VOICE PRECEDENCE SYSTEM

The National Communications System (NCS) Voice Precedence System, which was established by NCS Memorandum 1-70, 14 February 1970, is for use by all authorized users of DoD voice communications facilities. Since the effectiveness of the system depends on the cooperation of the people authorized to use it, users must: (1) be familiar with the purposes of each precedence category and the type of call that is assigned the precedence and (2) exercise care not to request or use a precedence higher than required.

The NCS Voice Precedence System does not make provisions for conducting test and exercise calls. Those activities or individuals authorized or required to conduct such test or exercise calls will use precedence consistent with the nature of the test or exercise. When the originator of the test or exercise call has contacted the called party, the call will be identified immediately as a flash, immediate, or priority precedence test or exercise.

The following examples should aid users in determining what precedence to use when placing a call. These examples are according to the NCS Voice Precedence System, but are not to be used exclusively for determination of the precedence of a call. This should be at the discretion of the originator of the call.

- Flash Override. Flash override is considered a capability, not a level of precedence. Exercising this capability preempts calls of all other levels or precedence. The flash override capability is available to the following users:
  - The President of the United States of America.
  - The Secretary of Defense and the Chairman of the JCS.
  - Commanders of Unified Command.
- Flash. Flash calls preempt immediate, priority and routine calls. Listed below are examples of flash calls:
  - Calls pertaining to C2 of military forces essential to defense and retaliation.
  - Critical intelligence essential to national survival.
  - Conduct of diplomatic negotiations critical to ceasing or limiting hostilities.
  - Dissemination of critical civil alert information essential to national survival.
  - Continuity of Federal Government functions essential to national survival.
  - Fulfillment of critical United States internal security functions essential to national survival.
  - Catastrophic events of national or international significance.
- Immediate. Immediate calls preempt priority and routine calls and are reserved for communications pertaining to situations that gravely affect the security of national and Allied forces. Listed below are some examples of immediate calls:
  - Reconstitution of forces in a post-attack period.
  - Intelligence essential to national security.
  - Conduct of diplomatic negotiations to reduce or limit the threat of war.
  - Implementation of Federal Government actions essential to national survival.
  - Situations that gravely affect the security of the United States.
  - Civil defense actions concerning the direction of the population and their survival.
  - Disaster or events serious enough to have an immediate and detrimental effect on the welfare of the population.
  - Vital information having an immediate effect on aircraft, spacecraft, or missile operations.
  - Distress assistance.
- Priority. Priority calls preempt routine calls and are reserved for communications requiring expeditious action by called parties furnishing essential information for conducting government operations.
- Routine. The routine precedence applies to official government communications that require rapid transmission by telephonic means but do not require preferential handling. A routine call does not preempt any other call.

WHAT CATEGORY OF NETWORK CUSTOMER ARE YOU?

There are three types of DSN users:

- Special Command and Control (C2) Users. A special class of user who has direct, unrestricted access to the DSN for essential communications and planning and for directing and controlling the operations of assigned forces pursuant to assigned missions. This user requires capabilities that provide crisis, pre-attack and theater non-nuclear war telecommunications service for intelligence, alert and strategic readiness. This user also requires communications among the President, Secretary of Defense, JCS, Services Chiefs, and the CINCs. Specifically, these Special C2 users are identified through one or more Joint Staff, CINC, Service, or agency validation process. Also, they are all RED switch subscribers and the following identified subscribers of common user networks:

- Joint Staff-approved flash override, flash precedence origination capability.
- CINC-or service-approved flash precedence origination capability.
- CINC-service-validated, or agency-validated connectivity identified as part of C2 networks that support secondary (or lower) strategic connectivity missions.
- CINC-validated minimum essential circuits as approved in the Pacific Joint Multi-channel Trunking and Switching System and the European Theater Communications Architecture.
- C2 Users. Users having a requirement for C2 communications who do not meet the criteria for the class of Special C2 users. C2 users include any person (regardless of their position in the chain of command) who issues guidance or orders that direct, control, or coordinate any military forces, regardless of the nature of the military mission, whether said guidance or order is issued or effected during peace or wartime.
- Other Users. DoD, non-DoD, non-government and foreign government users having no missions or communications requirements to ever originate or receive C2 communications under the definitions for C2 or Special C2 Users. During a crisis or contingency, they may be denied access to the DSN or DRSN. These users are provided access to the DSN for the economic benefits to the DoD.

WHO IS LISTED IN THE DSN TELEPHONE DIRECTORY?

Any post, camp, base, or station served by the DSN that formally requests to be included in the directory is listed. Individual listings are restricted to command level, agency level, or organization level. To be included in the Defense Switched Network Telephone Directory, or to correct or delete an existing directory listing, complete the form included in Appendix A: Request for Listing. Return the form to:

HQ DISA, Code GS23
5275 Leesburg Pike
Falls Church, VA 22041

Requests can also be sent through E-mail to PHONEDSN@ncr.disa.mil.

DSN TELEPHONE DIRECTORY DISTRIBUTION

It is neither cost-effective nor productive to publish and distribute a hardcopy version of the global Defense Switched Network Telephone Directory or to provide a listing of all commands, activities, and agencies that have the capability to access the network. However, the directory needs the widest possible distribution to be useful. The directory is made available as a downloadable file on the World Wide Web at <http://dsnbbs.ncr.disa.mil/>. If access to the Web is unavailable, consult your local operator or your servicing command element. Local reproduction is authorized and encouraged. Instructions for accessing the DSN Directory Web site are set forth in Appendix B: Instructions for Accessing the DSN Web site.

Publishers of local directories are strongly encouraged to include any part of this directory in their directories.

NETWORK RECORDING AND SIGNAL TONES

What do the various tones and recorded announcements tell you about the progress or disposition of your call?

- When you hear a dial tone, the network is ready for your call. Dial your number.
- When you hear a ringing tone, your called number is ringing. Wait for your party to answer. On routine calls, you should hear a normal ringing tone (10 rings per minute). On calls of higher precedence, you will hear a very fast ringing tone (30 rings per minute).
- When you hear a busy tone, several possibilities exist. The called number may be in use, local equipment at your location may be busy, network equipment may be busy, or an equipment failure may have occurred. After a brief wait, call again.
- When you hear a preempt tone your call was cut off by a higher precedence call. Hang up; the call may be for you. If the preempted call requires completion, wait a short time and redial.
- A conference call is preceded by a warbling tone. When you hear this, stand by for instructions or for the other parties of the conference to be connected.

Below are some of the recorded announcements you might hear while using the DSN. If you hear one of these announcements and feel it may be an indication of trouble, report the possible trouble according to the procedures outlined in the "Telephone Trouble and Unsatisfactory Service Reporting" section of this directory. Note the error message number and provide it to repair personnel. The error message number will also be helpful to your supporting telephone service provider during the troubleshooting of access problems.

- "Your call cannot be completed as dialed. Please consult your directory and call again or ask your operator for assistance. This is a recording (pause) error message number/switch number and country."
- "The precedence used is not authorized for your line. Please use an authorized precedence or ask your operator for assistance. This is a recording (pause) error message number/switch number and country."
- "Equal or higher precedence calls have prevented the completion of your call, or the number you have dialed is not equipped for preemption. This is a recording (pause) error message number/switch number and country."
- "A DSN service disruption has prevented the completion of your call. Please wait 30 minutes and try again. In case of an emergency, call your operator. This is a recording (pause) error message number/switch number and country."

CALLING PROCEDURES

VOICE TELEPHONE CALLS (31X)

Voice telephone calls can access a DSN line by either direct dialing or dialing the operator. Here is how each process works:

- If you do the dialing:
  - Listen for the dial tone.
  - Dial the DSN number access number if required.
  - Listen for the DSN dial tone.
  - Dial the desired DSN phone number, with precedence and area code if required.
- If the operator dials for you:
  - Give your name and local base telephone extension number.

- Give your precedence.
- Provide the DSN number you are calling and any other information.
- Wait on the line until the operator connects you to the called party.

DATA TELEPHONE CALLS (50X AND 51X)

Transmission of data on the DSN will be allowed by exception and will be severely limited by CINCs, Services, and Defense Agencies. The Defense Data Network (DDN) NIPRNet and SIPRNet are the primary networks for data transmissions.

- Dial-up Data. Use of DSN-switched voice (dial-up) circuits to transmit digital data will be detrimental to voice users. Long circuit holding times will affect the network grade of service (GOS) and significantly degrade other users' ability to complete calls. Data processing equipment may use DSN voice circuits only when the DDN and other transmission media, either commercial or government-owned, do not exist or are required for emergencies or reasons of national security. Data equipment includes computer-controlled graphics (other than facsimile), word processors, mainframe and microcomputers, laptops, and other personal communications system (PCS) and similar equipment.
  - Data processing equipment using DSN voice circuits (dial-up) will be capable of automatically disconnecting from the access line or inter-switch trunk when the transmission is complete or the circuit is preempted.
  - Approval authority for outside CONUS (OCONUS) data transmissions through DSN dial-up circuits is the Combat Commander. CONUS authority is the Combat Commander, Chief of the Service, or the Director of the Defense Agency concerned. Each request will be coordinated with DISA to determine the network impact. DISA will be notified of each approval specifically to determine why the DDN cannot support the requirement. Blanket approvals for use will identify a connect limit, and an expiration or revalidation date.
- Dial-up Facsimile. The DSN may be used to transmit unsecured facsimile traffic without an STU-III only if the facsimile machine or computer transmits within 1 minute after the facsimile transmission ends or the circuit is preempted.
- Secure Transmission with an STU-III. Use of an STU-III in the secure mode for voice communications is not interpreted as data transmission. When the STU-III is used to transmit secure data or a facsimile, the following criteria will be met:
  - The STU-III at each end will be monitored during the entire transmission to ensure the circuit is maintained and the STU-III is in the secure mode.
  - The STU-III preempt feature will be enabled at all times.
  - National guidance for the use of STU-III in secure data transmission, including access control, TEMPEST, and computer security, must be followed.

CONFERENCE CALLS

To schedule a conference call across the DSN, contact your local operator. Tell the operator that you wish to make a conference call and provide a list of numbers to be included in the conference.

Preset conferences may be established. Consult your supporting DISA Field Office for further information.

CALLS TO COMMERCIAL TOLL FREE NUMBERS

(809 Service - Making Toll Free Commercial Calls From The DSN)

As authorized by CJCSI 6215.01B, Policy for DoD Voice Networks, Paragraph 7.b (2)(c), DISA has implemented a new off-netting interface as a Managed Interface between the DSN and the Public Switched Telephone Network (PSTN). This interface allows for the use of any 1-800 type toll free numbers (specifically 800, 888, 866, and 877) on the PSTN and is accessed by dialing the DSN telephone number: (809) 4-OFF-DSN (809-463-3376). Access/usage is authorized for all DSN users as provided by the CJCSI 6215.01B.

This capability was designed to:

- Reduce O&M's manpower requirement for operator assistance.
- Reduce traffic on access trunks.
- Reduce resource overhead during manual call handling.
- Improve Customer Service.
- Reduce requirement for commercial service to tactical sites.

The applicable DSN rates apply, from the user's location to CONUS, since the technical interfaces for the PSTN accesses are located in CONUS. Local commanders can limit/restrict access to this service by Class of Service tables and class-marking user lines to control costs and/or meet other mission requirements.

Authorized users of this interface are:

- Government contractors and vendors with 1-800 numbers.
- Help Desk numbers for hardware/software.
- Non-toll PSTN numbers with a 1-800 number for Credit Card calling, where the toll charges are applied to the Credit Card (Credit Card calling can be made with either Government-provided calling cards (FTS), or personal cards).
- Reverse Billing to call recipient via "1-800 Call Collect" Services.

How to use the 809 service:

1. Dial (809) 4-OFF-DSN (809-463-3376).
2. You will receive a second dial tone.
3. Dial your toll free number, including the "1" (e.g., (800) 123-4567).

CALL ASSISTANCE

Switchboard operators are available to assist DSN users. If you are having trouble completing a call, dial (312) 231-1311 to reach the operator.

INTER-AREA CALLING

The DSN provides global telephone service for authorized users. Some users can call everywhere, while others are limited to one particular area or combination of areas. Where you can call depends on your mission and how your telephone line is class-marked. If your calling area is limited, you will not be able to dial outside your calling area. The local directory indicates the calling areas and codes available to you. The area code need not be dialed for calls within your area. Calls to an area outside the local call boundary require an area code plus the seven-digit DSN number. If you are transmitting data, alternate area codes are used.

NEW OR ADDITIONAL SERVICE

To obtain new DSN service or to change the type of service you now have, consult DISA Circular 310-130-1,

Submission of Telecommunications Service Requests, or consult your local telecommunications support office.

SPECIAL SERVICES

"510" service is the DSN equivalent of commercial "800" toll free service. If you have a requirement for this type of service at your organization, contact DISA HQ, Code GS23.

USER-PROVIDED EQUIPMENT

The terminal equipment provided by the user for connection to a DSN Switching Center must meet the technical interface criteria outlined in DISA Circular 370-175-13.

REPORTING TELEPHONE TROUBLE

Ensure that the DSN number you have dialed is correct. If you dialed the number correctly and are still having trouble, report the problem as follows:

- Keep the line connected if you can. Overseas users should call their local telephone reporting desk or the local operator. CONUS users should call the DSN Customer Service desk at DSN 550-1611 or commercial at (800) 967-6194. Tell the attendant:
- Your DSN number and location.
- Called party DSN number and location.
- What the problem was and when it occurred.
- If you hear an announcement, listen to the entire recording. You will hear an error message and a switch number and country name. Provide this information to the trouble desk. The information will help technicians trace the source of the trouble.
- Get the attendant's initials and then request a call back when the trouble is corrected.

REPORTING UNSATISFACTORY SERVICE

- If you are not satisfied with the results when you report a problem, contact the appropriate DISA organization for your area. If the problem is technical rather than procedural, specific details may be required. If you need assistance in filling out the report, contact your local telecommunications officer or the officer-in-charge (OIC) of the station switchboard. The report must contain the following information:
  - Your station name, unit name, DSN telephone number, and whether the trouble concerns a telephone or a switchboard.
  - The time and date you noticed the problem, the DSN trouble desk to which it was reported, and whether the problem was solved.
  - What kind of problem you had and the impact it had on your mission.
- If you are unhappy with the agency that was supposed to fix the problem, tell us exactly what unit it is, when you called them, when they responded, and when and if the problem was repaired. Let us know why you think their service was unsatisfactory. If this is a repeated problem, inform us how many times and whether your comments apply to each occurrence.

Action: Send the report to DISA HQ, Code GS23, or the supporting DISA Field Office for your organization. A list of field offices is provided in Appendix E, "List of DISA Field Offices."

Information: The Operations and Maintenance (O&M) Agency in your area responsible for providing service.
