SAFETY – MISSION ACCOMPLISHMENT – CARING FOR AIRMEN & FAMILIES – DEVELOPING AIRMEN – STRENGTHENING PARTNERSHIPS

Greetings Team Travis,

Throughout the last several weeks I have witnessed an absolutely amazing feat by Team Travis. You tackled nine different inspections over a three week period and emerged victors all while never compromising mission accomplishment. All the hours of training and preparation are paying off in the final days of the CUI. I wish I could convey to you how proud it makes me to see Team Travis running like a finely tuned machine. This weekend our fly-away ORI members are returning to Travis, allowing us all a chance to celebrate as the inspectors reveal the results during the CUI outbrief scheduled for 15 February at 0730 in the Base Theater. Seating will be limited so arrive early and bring your noise makers. For those who can't make it, a live video will be available on IPTV (link).

Following the CUI outbrief, we will have another opportunity that evening to recognize and reward everyone's hard work this past year. I ask that you join me at the 60 Air Mobility Wing's Annual Awards Banquet on Friday, 15 February starting at 1800 at the Delta Breeze Club. It will be an honor to welcome retired CMSgt Robert Gaylor as the guest speaker during the event. If you haven't had a chance to hear him speak I encourage you to come and I promise you will leave inspired.

Thank you for "Answering the Call," and not just during the CUI. Thank you for everyday you show up early to work making sure your shop is ready, and for the times you have stayed late ensuring the job gets done right. Your dedication to service and excellence has enabled Team Travis to shine during the inspections and remain "America's First Choice!" I know we will have a strong finish as the CUI wraps up this weekend. I encourage you to take some time to decompress following these action packed weeks. Please keep safety in mind as you enjoy time with your family and friends this weekend.
