

U.S. Consulate General, Yekaterinburg, Russia
Message for U.S. Citizens
Final Opportunities to Return Voted Ballots
24 October 2012

Embassies and consulates are not polling places. The majority of states require voted ballots to reach local election officials by the close of polls on Tuesday, November 6. U.S. citizens who want to participate in the 2012 U.S. elections should already have returned their absentee ballots to their local election officials. U.S. embassies and consulates are not polling places; same-day in-person voting is not available outside the United States.

Ballot not yet sent to local election officials? All voters who wish to participate in this election who have not yet sent their ballots to their local election officials should consider returning their ballot to the United States via an express courier service such as FedEx, UPS, or DHL. Some states or counties may allow you to return your voted ballot electronically. Check your state's voting procedures at www.FVAP.gov for guidance.

Returning your Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot by email or fax. The following states allow voters to use email or fax to send signed, voted Federal Write-in Absentee Ballots to local election officials: Arizona, California (fax only), Colorado, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Utah, Washington, and West Virginia. Check your state's voting procedures at www.FVAP.gov for guidance.

Returning ballots via express courier service. Voters can hire express courier companies such as UPS, DHL, and FedEx to return voted ballots. Through October 31, FedEx is offering discounted shipping for last-minute voters in 94 countries through the Express Your Vote program <https://www.overseasvotefoundation.org/overseas/ExpressYourVote.htm>. Ballots sent to local election officials via express courier service do not receive standard postmarks, so voters using this method should confirm delivery on or before November 6 prior to payment and shipment.

Returning your ballot by mail. Ballots sent via mail at this late date are unlikely to reach local election officials by state ballot receipt deadlines. If you still wish to send your voted ballot via mail, place your voted ballot in a U.S. postage-paid envelope addressed to your local election officials. Drop it off at the Consulate and we'll send it back home for you without the need to pay international postage. If you can't visit the Consulate in person, ask a friend or colleague drop it off for you. If it's easier for you to use Russian postal system, be sure to affix sufficient international postage, and allow sufficient time for international mail delivery.

Voters, who wish to submit their ballots to the consular section for return to the U.S. via pouch, are welcome to visit the U.S. Consulate General in Yekaterinburg, Russia, from Monday till Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. In order to ensure that ballots arrive to the United States on time, they should be turned in at least three weeks before the due dates.

Have Questions? Please contact Yekaterinburg Voting Assistance Officer at +7(343) 379-3001, ext. 130, or at consulyekat@state.gov.

Confirm your registration and ballot delivery online. Learn more at the Federal Voting Assistance Program's (FVAP) website at www.FVAP.gov.
