Parents and Students:

Welcome to Osan Middle School for the 2010-2011 school year. This year promises to be exciting and productive. One piece of advice as we approach 30 August that will serve you well is to be involved in the life of your school. Participation is a key ingredient in the recipe of success. Students, participate in athletics and after school activities. Parents, we invite you to volunteer whenever your schedule permits. When we work together and stay involved we have the chance to make this not just a good year, but a great one.

Onward!

Mr. McGee, Principal
