

My name is SSG Prince and I improve stamina by ensuring maintenance is provided for the medical equipment that's utilized by care providers and surgeons to ensure patients are best diagnosed and treated. Our section works with each department to ensure equipment is consistently functioning and safe for patient care. Our processes improve the environment of care and ensure organizational depth by making sure that providers and surgeons consistently have the tools they need.