

Public Notice Submission

Provider Name: East Ascension Telephone Company LLC

Summary: All EATel customers have access to high speed broadband services. EATel has been a leader in bringing the benefits of Fiber connectivity to its customers and providing advanced services such as IP Video to customers. Most EATel customers are served today by the most up to date technology possible bring the advantages of fiber broadband speeds to its customers. We offer speeds such as 60 Mbps down and 15 Mbps up, so EATel customers have access to some of the highest speed internet in the nation within a rural area. EATel today provides fiber access connectivity availability to 56 critical care entities within this area and an additional 14 facilities that can be served by ADSL technology. EATel is one of the best served areas in the nation for broadband services and our customers enjoy access to some of the highest broadband speeds currently available. Transport is available at all six central office locations at speeds up to 1 Gbps currently at both fixed and burstable capabilities.