January means resolutions and renewed perspectives for most people, so now is a good time to look at ways to make the most of what your commissary has to offer.

Here are some things to check out.

Want to know more about nutrition and how to cook? Check out Kay's Kitchen.

When do commissaries hold their case lot sales? Check out Case Lot Sales.

The winter holidays are over, can

I still give a gift of groceries? Check out Commissary Gift Cards.

How can I get 'Commissary Connection' e-mailed to me so I can take advantage of the sales information it has. Check out Commissary Connection.

Is there an on-site sale near me?

Check out On-Site Sale.

Where can I get the news and videos that DeCA releases? Check out News Room.

Want to know more about food safety and what a simple but essential process like "Clean, Separate, Cook and Chill" can do for you? Check out Food Safety.

How can I spread the word about the commissary to others? Share this newsletter with someone you know.

Rewards Card makes couponing easy

Since its introduction late last year, commissary shoppers are discovering the convenience of using coupons with the Commissary Rewards Card.

With your rewards card you can download coupons from the Internet, and then easily redeem them electronically at your commissary checkout. Find out more at Rewards Card.

Staying informed of food-safety-related recalls can be a full-time job. Thanks to Commissaries.com, it's just a couple clicks away. Click Stay Informed for alerts on products sold in commissaries or on All Recalls from the FDA.

Application deadline for scholarships means now is the time to get the forms

There's an essay to write so don't procrastinate

The Scholarships for Military Children Program awards $1,500 scholarships to students from military families.

Eligibility requirements, application forms and other information about the scholarships can be found at www.militaryscholar.org.

This year's applicants must submit an essay and applications must be turned in to a commissary by close of business Feb. 22.

The scholarship program is administered by Fisher House Foundation, a nonprofit organization that provides assistance to service members and their families.

Kay's kitchen always open

Kay's recipes, nutrition tips and shopping advice are just a click away, 24/7.
