Memorial Day Remembrance Ceremony

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Hawaii—U.S. Army Garrison, Hawaii (USAG-HI) will hold a Memorial Day Remembrance Ceremony at 10 a.m., May 26, at the Schofield Barracks Post Cemetery.

The public is invited to join the garrison as it honors Soldiers who gave their lives in service of our country.

Col. Matthew Margotta, commander, USAG-HI, will be the speaker for this event. Representatives from the Military Order of the Purple Heart and the American Legion Post of Hawaii will also participate, placing wreaths at the cemetery flagpole to honor fallen comrades.

Attendees should enter Schofield via Lyman Gate, off Kunia Road.

For more information, call 656-3157.

Moment of Remembrance

USAG-HI will also honor fallen servicemembers during the “Moment of Remembrance.” The National Moment of Remembrance was signed into law in December 2000 to ensure that the sacrifices of America’s fallen heroes are never forgotten.

The “Moment” encourages all Americans to pause at 3 p.m. local time on Memorial Day for a minute of silence to remember and honor those who have died in service to the nation. For more information, visit www.remember.gov.
