PTA to host 'doing business with government' seminar

POHAKULOA TRAINING AREA, Hawaii—All Big Island businesses, contractors, and suppliers are invited to attend a Pohakuloa Training Area (PTA) seminar-style meeting that will provide information highlighting the process, policies and procedures involved in doing business with the government at the 4,000 sf. PTA Recreation Center, Jan. 21, from 9 am to 2 pm. If the capacity exceeds 100 persons, the adjacent 275-seats installation theater will be used.

The meeting is based on requests from suppliers, contractors, businesses, and the two Big Island Chambers of Commerce for information on the methods to establish business and contracting relationships with the government at PTA. Entrance to PTA is located at Mile Marker 36 on Saddle Road. Cars will be parked at a central location and shuttle vehicles provided. Attendees need their current drivers' license, no-fault insurance card and valid safety check prior to entry. Bring your own lunch or lunch (chicken salad sandwich, bag of chips, and bottle water) is available for $5, but you must RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16.

Please RSVP Steve Troute, PTA community relations officer, 969-2405 or Chicpaul Becerra, PTA public affairs liaison officer, 969-2411 or by email chicpaul.becerra@us.army.mil.
