PTA donates paddles to benefit canoe club keiki program

POHAKULOLOA TRAINING AREA, Hawaii—Lt. Col. Warline Richardson, on behalf of U.S. Army's Pōhakuloa Training Area (center, in uniform) presents a ceremonial paddle, one of 15 donated paddles, to Mike O'Shaughnessy, president of the Puna Canoe Club (left of Richardson), and members of the canoe club at Hilo Bayfront, April 16. The aluminum and plastic practice paddles are for the club's keiki program and will compensate for the kids' shortage of practice paddles. Photo by Chicpaul Becerra, Pōhakuloa Public Affairs.
