FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Army authorities investigate bomb threat

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Hawaii – Army authorities are investigating a bomb threat received at 12:40 p.m. today at Schofield Barracks in the vicinity of C-Quad.

Facilities have been evacuated after receiving the threat via telephone. Motorists are advised to stay clear of the area. Macomb Gate is temporarily closed to inbound traffic to support the current law enforcement operations.

Army law enforcement officials and an Army Explosive Ordnance Disposal team are at the scene. C-Quad is on Waianae Avenue on Schofield Barracks parallel to Wilikina Drive.
