This reprogramming action transfers funds between appropriations for proper execution. The reclassification is required to execute funds properly in accordance with congressional intent. These actions are determined to be necessary in the national interest. These actions do not change the purpose for which the funds were originally appropriated. This reprogramming action meets all administrative and legal requirements, and none of the items has been previously denied by the Congress.

This reprogramming action transfers $150.0 million among Fiscal Year (FY) 2012 Defense appropriations. This reprogramming action is pursuant to the transfer authority provided in the Research, Development, Test and Evaluation (RDT&E), Defense-Wide, 12/13, appropriation in division A of Public Law 112-74, the Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2012, and section 1073 of Public Law 111-383, the National Defense Authorization Act for FY 2011

Explanation: Funds are transferred from the RDT&E, Defense-Wide, 12/13, appropriation to the RDT&E, Army, 12/13, appropriation for the continuation of the Rapid Innovation Program (RIP) efforts. These efforts will accelerate fielding of innovative technologies into military systems and department programs to reduce acquisition lifecycle costs, address technical risks, and improve timeless and thoroughness of test and evaluation outcomes in direct support of defense acquisition programs that meet national security needs. This is a base budget requirement. This is a congressional special interest item.

Explanation: Funds are transferred from the RDT&E, Defense-Wide, 12/13, appropriation to the RDT&E, 12/13, appropriations of the Military Departments for continuation of the FY 2012 RIP efforts. Funds are being transferred because the funding exceeded the number of executable Office of the Secretary of Defense RIP efforts. Section 1073(e) of Public Law 111-383, the National Defense Authorization Act for FY 2011, provides the Secretary of Defense (SECDEF) with the authority to transfer funds to the Military Department if proposals support the purposes of the RIP. The RDT&E, Defense-Wide, 12/13, appropriation language also provides the authority to transfer funds to the Military Departments for the RIP provided that the SECDEF shall, not fewer than 30 days prior to making transfers from this appropriation; notify the congressional defense committees in writing of the details of any such transfer. The Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics) notified the congressional committees on August 1, 2012, of the proposed transfers and provided the required details. This is a base budget requirement. This is a congressional special interest item.
