B. RECEIVABLES ATTRIBUTABLE TO CREDIT CARD ACCOUNTS

Receivables attributable* is not separately reported in the quarterly call report. To calculate the independent credit card assessment, it is necessary for you to provide the amount of total off balance sheet receivables attributable ($ in millions) to credit card accounts owned by your institution as of the most recent December 31 or June 30 call report date. If there are no receivables that meet this requirement, please indicate NONE.

Amount ($ in millions): _____

Receivables attributable is the total amount of outstanding balances due on credit card accounts owned by an independent credit card bank (the receivables attributable to those accounts) on the last day of the call report date, minus receivables retained on the bank's balance sheet as of that day.
