

Approved eVS Mailers

The parcel mailers listed in the table at the end of this article are currently the only ones authorized to manifest parcel mail using the Electronic Verification System (eVS) to pay for packages that are prepared under Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 705.2.9 and that meet the technical specifications in Publication 205, Electronic Verification System Business and Technical Guide.

If you receive eVS mail for someone other than an authorized eVS mailer listed here, please notify the eVS Helpdesk immediately by email at eVS@usps.gov or by telephone at 877-264-9693 option 4. If they are unable to verify that the mailer is approved for eVS, the mail should be refused.

The following mailers were recently authorized as new eVS customers:

- Thirtyone Gifts: Authorized to mail under eVS starting 2/15/2013, using the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on its mailing labels at origin locations
- Ingram Micro: Authorized to mail under eVS starting 2/04/2013, using the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on its mailing labels at origin locations
- Medco (Company Permit): Authorized to mail under eVS starting 2/04/2013, using the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on its mailing labels at origin locations
- Stella & Dot, LLC: Authorized to mail under eVS starting 1/04/2013, using the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on its mailing labels at origin locations.
- QVC, Inc.: Authorized to mail under eVS starting 1/03/2013, using the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on its mailing labels at origin locations.

The following customers are testing eVS and not using eVS for postage payment:

Please note that the following customers have closed their businesses and are no longer mailing under an eVS authorization. They are no longer submitting eVS manifests, and all mailings must be prepared with valid postage payment and appropriate documentation. Packages should not contain the “eVS” endorsement in the permit imprint indicia printed on mailing labels.

- ADC Holdings, LLC
- Dart Air Inc
- Pickuppostal.com
- Video Professor

PS Form 8125

eVS mailers are not required to use PS Form 8125, Plant-Verified Drop Shipment (PVDS) Verification and Clearance, with these exceptions:

- Newgistics uses PS Form 8125 as an option to obtain a “start-the-clock” scan.

Approved ePostage Mailers

The package mailers listed in the table at the end of this article are currently the only ones authorized to manifest ePostage shipments using the Electronic Verification System (eVS) to pay for packages that are prepared under Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 705.2.9 and that meet the technical specifications in Publication 205, Electronic Verification System Business and Technical Guide.

If you receive ePostage mail for someone other than an authorized ePostage mailer listed here, please notify the eVS Helpdesk immediately by email at eVS@usps.gov or by telephone at 877-264-9693 option 4. If they are unable to verify that the mailer is approved for ePostage, the mail should be refused.

Approved PRS Mailers

The mailers listed in this table are the only approved Parcel Return Service (PRS) mailers. PRS allows mailers to manifest parcels which have been returned from consumers to designated postal facilities. These returned packages are picked up by consolidators or mailers at Return Delivery Units (RDU) or Return Network Distribution Centers (RNDC).

If you receive PRS mail for someone other than an authorized PRS mailer listed here, please notify the eVS Helpdesk immediately by email at eVS@usps.gov or by telephone at 877-264-9693 option 4. If they are unable to verify that the mailer is approved for PRS, the mail should be refused.

Resources and Information

Mailers interested in eVS or PRS can obtain information about the program from the following sources:

- Publication 205, Electronic Verification System Business and Technical Guide. This publication contains business and technical information about eVS and PRS, including current coding and file formats. The publication is available online at http://ribbs.usps.gov/evs/documents/tech\_guides/pub205.pdf.
- eVS Help Desk. The Help Desk can provide general business and technical information about the program, provide required forms, and assist mailers in completing the eVS application. Mailers can contact the Help Desk either by email at eVS@usps.gov or by telephone at 877-264-9693 option 4.
