

MILITARY ONESOURCE/MILITARY HOMEFRONT

Around the clock, around the country, Military OneSource \(MOS\) can help with child care, counseling, recreational opportunities, financial matters, deployment and reunion support services, and lots more.

Military HOMEFRONT \(MHF\) is the DoD website for official Military Community and Family Policy (MC&FP) information: "Whether you live the military lifestyle or support those who do, you'll find what you need!"

Military Community & Family Policy \(MC&FP\) eMagazine: MHF's bi-monthly online magazine which highlights the latest updates to, and resources available through, MHF and related applications; includes an "Around the Services" section, highlighting programs that support military personnel and their families

Military Installations: find complete contact information on military installations worldwide, details on installation programs and services, mapping data and driving directions, links to local community points of interest

Special Needs / EFMP Information: learn about and find the resources that will support military families with special needs

Military Youth on the Move: covers topics specifically for military youth, including dealing with deployments and frequent moves