

Consular Report of Birth Abroad - Application checklist

Please see this checklist for a list of items that you will need to bring to your appointment. If you have any questions please send an e-mail to osloamcit@state.gov

- Completed application DS-2029. Do not sign until you get to the Embassy.
- Original birth certificate for the child - issued from the Norwegian Folkeregister, (Bureau of Records), showing the parent's and child's full names.
- Original marriage certificate. If unmarried U.S. citizen: Father, please complete the Affidavit of Parentage and Physical Presence. To be signed at the Embassy.
- Prior marriage and divorce documents for parents; originals.
- U.S. citizen parent's valid U.S. passport. Non-U.S. citizen parent may use driver's license or passport.
- Cash or credit card to pay the fees. $100 (Report of Birth), and $105 (passport), Social security application is free.
- Proof of physical presence for the American parent. School transcripts, tax records, proof of employment, or any other document that shows that you were physically in the U.S. long enough to transmit your citizenship to your child. Generally 5 years or 60 months. Special circumstances can apply. More information
- Large unpadding envelope with stamps for NOK 140.

To also apply for a passport and social security number please bring:

- Passport application DS-11. Both parents must sign this application at the Embassy. If one parent cannot come then they may complete and have notarized a consent form DS-3053.
- Photo of the child; 5x5 cm, photo requirements.
- Social Security number application SS-5.