

Army Band Noncommissioned Officer Academy

SLC Small Group Leader – SFC Jonathan R. Graham

SFC Jonathan Graham entered the Army in 2000, after graduating from Marshall University in Huntington, West Virginia, with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education. He attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and arrived at the U.S. Army School of Music for Advanced Individual Training in May 2000. After completing the 23 week course in just 9 weeks, he moved to Fort Gordon, GA, as a member of the U.S. Army Signal Corps Band.

SFC Graham has since served with the 10th Mountain Division Band (LI) deploying to both Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He has since moved to the U.S. Army School of Music as a Doctrine Developer at the Directorate of Training and Doctrine, Virginia Beach, VA, and is now currently assigned as a Senior Leader Course SGL. He has held leadership roles in a variety of musical ensembles such as trombone player in Dixieland Bands, Brass Quintets, MPT B Leader, and MPT E Leader. He has also served in several support roles such as Armorer, Master Driver, Chief Maintenance Division, Chief Safety and Security Division, and Chief Training Division.

SFC Graham's professional military education includes the Warrior Leader course; the Basic Non-Commissioned Officer course, where he received C1 ASI, graduated in the top 20% of his class and was selected as the Honor Graduate; the Senior Leaders Course, where he recertified his C1 ASI, graduated in the top 20% of his class and was selected as the Distinguished Honor Graduate. He has attended Armorer School, the Ammo Handlers Course, the Systems Approach to Training Basic Course, Automated Systems Approach to Training Course, the Training Developers Middle Managers Course, the Small Group Instruction Training Course, and the Army Basic Instructors Course.

SFC Graham and his wife have two children, a two year old daughter and a newborn son, born in May 2010.

Army Band Noncommissioned Officer Academy

SLC Small Group Leader – SFC Jeffrey J. Dudzienski

SFC Jeffrey Dudzienski attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Sill, Oklahoma in 2001 and then attended Advanced Individual Training at the U.S. Army School of Music thru August 2002 where he obtained the MOS of 42R9M, Percussion Player. His duty assignments include: Percussion Section Leader with the US Army Maneuver Center of Excellence Band; Assistant MPT 'C' Leader, Human Resources Section and Logistics NCOIC, and Squad Leader with the 82nd Airborne Division "All American" Band; Platoon Sergeant (Drill Sergeant) 1st Battalion, 61st Infantry Regiment ; Percussion Instructor with the U.S. Army School of Music; and he currently serves as a Small Group Leader - Senior Leaders Course - with the Army Band NCO Academy. He has also deployed in support Operation Enduring Freedom with the 82nd Airborne Division.

His military education includes: the Senior Leaders Course; the Small Group Instructor Training Course; the Air Assault Course; the Army Retention Course; Drill Sergeant School; the Combatives Level 1 Course; the Total Army Instructor Course; the Advanced Leaders Course; the Air Movement Operations Course; the Advanced Airborne School (Jumpmaster); the Warrior Leader Course; the Combat Lifesaver Course; and the Basic Airborne Course.

SFC Dudzienski's civilian education includes: earning an Associate of Arts Degree from Troy University and is currently working in a Bachelor's program with Troy in the field of Criminal Justice. His awards, badges, and decorations include: the Meritorious Service Medal; Army Commendation Medal (3 OLC); Army Achievement Medal (10 OLC), Afghanistan Campaign Medal; Drill Sergeant Badge; Senior Parachutist Badge; Air Assault Badge; and the Irish Parachutist Badge.

SFC Dudzienski is a native of Valparaiso, IN and is married with two daughters and two sons.

Army Band Noncommissioned Officer Academy

ALC Small Group Leader – SFC John C. Addington

SFC Addington entered the Army in 2004 after completing a B.S. in Music Education and a M.M. in Tuba Performance at The University of Akron in Akron, Ohio. After completion of Basic Training at Fort Jackson, SC, and Advanced Individual Training at the Army School of Music Little Creek, VA, he was assigned to the Army Medical Command Band at Fort Sam Houston, TX. He has also served with the Army Ground Forces Band at Fort McPherson and the First Cavalry Division Band at Fort Hood, TX. SFC Addington currently serves as an Advanced Leader Course Small Group Leader for the Army Band NCO Academy.

SFC Addington has filled various positions in bands to include IASO, Operations Clerk, Administrative NCO, Retention NCO, Resource and Logistics NCOIC, and Assistant MPT Leader.

SFC Addington's military schools include the Warrior Leaders Course and the Advanced Leaders Course in which he was selected by his classmates for the cycle's Distinguished Leadership Award. He is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom where he got to perform around the Baghdad AOR with and for his fellow soldiers. He holds the C1 Additional Skill Identifier on the Tuba and doubles on Bass Guitar.

SFC Addington is married and have one son.

Army Band Noncommissioned Officer Academy

ALC Small Group Leader – SSG Danielle C. Turner

SSG Turner entered the Army in 2002 after pursuing a Bachelor's of Music degree at Oklahoma State University in clarinet performance. SSG Turner attended Basic Training at Fort Jackson, SC, Advanced Individual Training at the Army School of Music Little Creek, VA and has been stationed at the 77th Army Band at Ft. Sill in Lawton, Oklahoma and the United States Army Europe Band and Chorus in Heidelberg, Germany. SSG Turner currently serves as an Advanced Leader Course Small Group Leader for the Army Band NCO Academy.

While in the Army, SSG Turner has filled various positions in bands to include Administration NCO, Senior Library NCO, Senior Logistics NCO, and MPT Leader.

SSG Turner's military schools include the Warrior Leaders Course, Advanced Leaders Course, and Property Book Utilization / Supply Enhancement Course. SSG Turner holds the C1 Additional Skill Identifier on the Clarinet.

SSG Turner is married and has two children.