MEMORANDUM FOR Directorate of Emergency Services, USAG Stuttgart

SUBJECT: SUBJECT: USAG Stuttgart Command Policy Letter #28, Delegation of Signature Authority, Director of Emergency Services, USAG Stuttgart

1. References:

- a. Article 28, NATO SOFA Supplementary Agreement, 29 March 1998
- b. Army Regulation 190-56, Chapter 5, 15 October 2009
- c. Army in Europe Regulation 190-62, 7 July 2005

2. Pursuant to my authority as Commander, USAG Stuttgart, and pursuant to the provisions of reference 1(b), I designate and authorize the USAG Stuttgart Director of Emergency Services to perform law and order functions throughout USAG Stuttgart Area of Responsibility (AOR).

3. I specifically delegate to the Director of Emergency Services all authority and responsibility to further delegate to Department of Army personnel performing law enforcement duties in support of the installations under my command, the empowerment necessary for them to enforce all laws, regulations, and other applicable directives on those installations, and in off post locations and venues frequented by US forces personnel or their family members.

4. This responsibility includes the selection, employment, in service training, certification, management, supervision and issuance of policies and procedures governing Army civilians employed for the specific purpose of providing law and order services to the installations under my command. This delegation also includes all responsibilities associated with the management and monitoring of Army contracted security guard services.

5. The Director of Emergency Services will coordinate all policies and procedures concerning authority or any further delegation of authority and jurisdiction with the Staff Judge Advocate and other offices and activities as appropriate. All such procedures, guidance, instructions and directives, will be reviewed not less than every 12 months for adequacy and legal sufficiency.
