

Academic Games

Each year Naples High School sends a four person team to Germany to compete in the Academic Games. The team competes against other high school teams and is required to have fast recall of facts in many different subject areas as well as the ability to quickly compute the answers to mathematical problems. The team trains for several months and holds intra school competitions in preparation for the games. This year the team will travel the first week of February.