On April 21, the Camp Parks Family Moral, Welfare and Recreation celebrated Month of the Military Child with a festival at the post housing area from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

More than 300 people participated making it one of the most attended events in recent history. Informational booths from the Blue Star Moms of Alameda County, Pleasanton VFW Post 6298, Pleasanton American Legion 237, Spectrum of Science and Navy Sea Cadets RADM Parks Battalion were present. Also available were booths from the Parks Chapel, FMWR (Gym, ACS and recreation center) in all there were 10 booths

"A great event and well attended by the Soldiers, families and residents of the community I want to especially thank Dorrie Coman and the people at the MWR for organizing and putting together a great festival." Said Command Sgt. Maj. Patrick McKie

Also, Dorrie Coman who was the organizer of the event said, "I would like to thank all of the volunteers that helped make this event a success including the 80th TTC, 152nd TIOG, the organizations who provided information tables and youth activities, as well as all of the FMWR staff who worked so hard to support the event. I would also like to thank the Military Youth for their strength and resiliency as the youngest members of the Armed Forces."

The next FWR event will be a 5K "Run For The Fallen" on Saturday June 9, for more information call (925) 875-4392. This event will be in conjunction with The Army Birthday celebration week on June 11-14.
