FIC Members:

The Federal Information Council (FIC) consists of federal public information officers and congressional district staff in the Greater Kansas City metropolitan area. It is an informal group that meets regularly to discuss media, crisis communication, and training. The FIC provides a communications link between federal agencies, congressional staff and the news media. The goal of the FIC is to encourage the exchange of ideas and strengthen partnerships.

The FIC was developed 30 years ago by the Federal Executive Board (FEB). The Kansas City FEB provides a clear and effective communications medium between federal agencies and all levels of government. It encompasses eight counties and encourages partnerships with other government entities and community groups.

We encourage you to send a representative to the monthly meetings, which are held at Cascone's Restaurant, 3737 North Oak Trafficway, Kansas City, Missouri. Monthly luncheon programs include emergency response coordination, partnerships with local and state agencies and congressional staff and speakers from local newspapers, radio and television outlets.

Please reserve the third Thursday of every month, except December, on your calendar, so you can join our luncheon meetings. Members will receive an email reminder to place your food order and learn about the speaker for the meeting.

We look forward to seeing you!

Charlie Cook and Larry Hisle
Co-Chairs
