

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C.

DATE: December 12, 2012

MEMORANDUM TO: Interested Parties

FROM: Lisa R. Barton
Acting Secretary

SUBJECT: Extension of Deadline for Interested Parties to Respond to the Commission's Notice of Institution in Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico, Inv. No. 731-TA-747 (3rd Review)

In light of the Department of Commerce's decision to extend by 30 days the deadlines for interested parties to file notice of intent to participate and substantive responses to its notice of institution in its review of fresh tomatoes from Mexico,¹ as well as Mexican Respondents request that the Commission extend its deadline for interested parties to respond to the Commission's Notice of Institution by 30 days,² the Commission has determined to extend the deadline for interested party responses to its Notice of Institution by 30 days. Accordingly, the deadline for interested parties to respond to the Commission's Notice of Institution is extended from January 2, 2013 to February 1, 2013.

¹ See Dec. 4, 2012 Memorandum from Lynn Fisher Fox (DOC) to Interested Parties; see also Initiation of Five-Year ("Sunset") Review, 77 Fed. Reg. 71684 (Dep't of Commerce, Dec. 3, 2012).

² See Dec. 5, 2012 Letter on Behalf of Confederacion de Asociaciones Agricolas del Estado de Sinaloa A.C., Consejo Agricola de Baja California, A.C., Asociacion Mexicana de Horticultura Protegida, A.C., Union Agricola Regional de Sonora Productores de Hortaliza Frutas y Legumbres, and Confederacion Nacional de Prodcutores de Hortalizas ("Mexican Respondents"); see also Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico: Institution of a Five-Year Review Concerning the Suspended Investigation on Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico, 77 Fed. Reg. 71629 (Dec. 3, 2012)