3 (1) may authorize the heads of DoD laboratories to grant nonexclusive, exclusive, 4 or partially exclusive licenses, royalty free or for royalties or for rights to other 5 intellectual property, for computer software and its related documentation developed at a 6 DoD laboratory, provided that—

7 (A) the computer software and related documentation would be a trade 8 secret under the meaning of section 552(b)(4) of title 5, United States Code, if the 9 information had been obtained from a non Federal party;

8 makes payments to employees of a DoD laboratory under clause (i) or (ii).

9 (iv) The department may retain an amount reasonably necessary to pay expenses

16 the fiscal year in which they are received or during the 2 succeeding fiscal years—

17 (i) to reward scientific, engineering, and technical employees of the DoD 18 laboratory, including developers of sensitive or classified technology, regardless of 19 whether the technology has commercial applications;

20 (ii) to further scientific exchange among the laboratories of the agency;

12 (2) If, after payments under paragraph (1)(A), the balance of the royalties or other 13 payments received by the department in any fiscal year exceed 5 percent of the funds received 14 for use by the DoD laboratory for research, development, engineering, testing and evaluation or 15 other related administrative, processing or value-added activities for that year, 75 percent of such 16 excess shall be paid to the Treasury of the United States and the remaining 25 percent may be 17 used or obligated under paragraph (1)(B). Any funds not so used or obligated shall be paid into 18 the Treasury of the United States.

19 (3) Any payment made to an employee under this section shall be in addition to the 20 regular pay of the employee and to any other awards made to the employee, and shall not affect 21 the entitlement of the employee to any regular pay, annuity, or award to which he is otherwise 22 entitled or for which he is otherwise eligible or limit the amount thereof except that the monetary 23 value of an award for the same project or effort shall be deducted from the amount otherwise

1 available under this paragraph. Payments, determined under the terms of this paragraph and
