Conversation & Culture

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

- WHO: All spouses of International Fellows, their sponsors, any American spouse who would like to participate, and adult dependents. Some events will require a RSVP due to space considerations.
- WHAT: A program to help integrate spouses of our International Fellows with members of the greater Carlisle Community.
- WHEN: Every Tuesday and other designated days throughout the academic year from 1200 – 1400 hours. For some out of town trips, times will vary – watch for information through seminars and community calendars.

Conversation & Culture

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

- WHERE: Usually at the Post Chapel in the Multipurpose Assembly Room. Some events will require travel by bus or car pool to other locations. Any changes will be published ahead of time.
- WHY: To ease the transition of spouses from other countries into U.S. Culture and the local community. A social network that provides a venue to interact with spouses from around the globe to share/compare military and cultural lifestyles, share our spirit of volunteerism, and expand their use of the English language.

Conversation & Culture

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

- OTHER INFORMATION: Summer and Fall events focus on transition and U.S. Culture, becoming comfortable in the greater Carlisle area. Winter and Spring events focus on IF Spouses sharing their culture by inviting them to do a presentation about their country to the C & C group.
- PLACES C & C WILL VISIT THIS FALL: GIANT tour, Meadowbrooke Gourd Farm, Farmer's Market, The Milton Hershey School, King of Prussia Mall, Philadelphia Walking Tour, PA State Capitol and the Governor's Residence.
- “Know Your World” – 11 October 2012, 108th Field Artillery HQ, 504 Cavalry Rd, Carlisle

Conversation & Culture

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

“Conversation & Culture is not about how we discover how much we are different. Conversation & Culture is about embracing one another's uniqueness.”

~ International Spouse, class of 2011
