JAGINST 5813.1B
Code 05

JAG INSTRUCTION 5813.1B

From: Judge Advocate General

Subj: STANDARDIZATION OF GENERAL COURTS-MARTIAL AND SPECIAL
COURTS-MARTIAL VERBATIM AND SUMMARIZED RECORDS OF TRIAL

Ref: (a) U.S. Government Printing Office Style Manual, 2000
(b) Manual for Courts-Martial, United States, 2008 (MCM)
(c) DD Form 490, May 2000
(d) DD Form 491, May 2000
(e) DD Form 491-1, May 2000

Encl: (1) Standard format for verbatim records of trial
(2) Standard format for summarized records of trial
(3) Boilerplates for summarized records of trial

1. Purpose

a. To reissue the standard format required for all General Courts-Martial (GCM), and Special Courts-Martial (SPCM), verbatim and summarized records of trial.

b. This is a major revision and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. JAGINST 5813.1A.

3. Applicability. This instruction supplements the requirements for preparation of records of trial promulgated in references (a) and (b), and is supplemented by references (c), (d) and (e). It applies to all personnel involved in the preparation and authentication of GCM and SPCM verbatim and summarized records of trial.

4. Procedure

a. Rule for Courts-Martial (R.C.M.) 1103(b)(2)(B) requires a verbatim record of trial when any part of the sentence adjudged exceeds six months confinement, forfeiture of pay greater than two-thirds pay per month or any forfeiture of pay for more than six months, or exceeds any other punishments that may be adjudged by a special court-martial, or a bad-conduct discharge has been adjudged. In all other cases, a summarized record of trial may be prepared. However, the convening authority may direct that a verbatim record of trial be prepared in lieu of a summarized record of trial.

b. SPCM and GCM verbatim records of trial shall be prepared in the format provided in enclosure (1).

c. SPCM and GCM summarized records of trial shall be prepared in the format provided in enclosure (2) and with the boilerplates provided in enclosure (3).

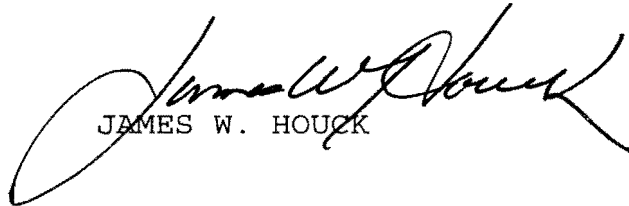

5. Evidence in Child Pornography Cases. For cases in which child pornography is introduced into evidence in a digital format, and published to the military judge or members on a computer monitor, the government trial counsel will provide to the court reporter a password protected compact disk (CD) containing the electronically formatted evidence for inclusion in the record of trial. In cases in which the evidence of child pornography is introduced in a printed format, the government trial counsel will scan the evidentiary exhibit or exhibits into a portable document format (pdf) onto a password protected CD, which will then be substituted in the record of trial for the original evidence. The original evidence should then be returned to the Naval Criminal Investigative Service or other cognizant law enforcement agency for storage as evidence until final action on the record of trial and exhaustion of the appellate process. Under the terms of a sealing order issued by the military judge, the password to any protected CD in the record of trial shall be provided by the trial counsel to those with record of trial review responsibilities including the trial military judge who shall forward it via email to the Clerk of Court for the Navy-Marine Corps Court of Criminal Appeals.

6. Electronic Records. In cases where an electronic record of trial has been created, the electronic record shall be an exact duplicate of the hardcopy record of trial and be in a portable document format (pdf). The CD shall be attached to the hardcopy record of trial. As electronic record improvements are realized, amplification of specific processes shall be provided.

7. Delivery. All records of trial requiring review under Article 66 or 69, U.C.M.J., shall be sent to the Office of the Judge Advocate General via FEDEX/UPS/DHL/USPS Express or by hand delivery, when feasible and authorized by trial counsel, and may not be forwarded through military or fourth class mail. In all cases, the date of mailing or hand delivery shall be annotated on DD Form 490. The sending office must retain delivery records that verify receipt of the record by Navy-Marine Corps Appellate Review Activity.

8. Action. All personnel involved in the preparation and authentication of GCM and SPCM verbatim and summarized records of trial shall comply with the provisions of this instruction.

STANDARD FORMAT FOR VERBATIM RECORDS OF TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

The attached provides the court reporter with a guide for format in preparing verbatim transcripts of cases tried by general and special courts-martial.

Also included in these pages are notes, which are shaded and set off from the main body of the text. These notes give examples of transcription other than that contained in the record of trial text, as well as explanations of transcript content. These notes explain and clarify and are not part of the actual transcribed record of trial.

To ensure uniformity in format, transcriptions of all verbatim records of special and general courts-martial will follow the format and instructions contained in the following pages.

Appendices 8 and 14 and Rules for Court-Martial (R.C.M.) 1103 and 1104 in reference (b) provide further guidance in preparing, assembling and copying records of trial.

Primary duty of a court reporter: to transcribe and provide an accurate, verbatim record of proceedings.

Trial counsel shall supervise the preparation, authentication and distribution of copies of the record of trial and ensure the safeguarding of notes and recordings of the proceedings.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF VERBATIM RECORDS OF TRIAL

1. Font size and style. Use only Courier or Courier New fonts. Font size should be 12 point. Do not use cursive, script, or italic fonts, except when appropriate in specific situations, such as citations.

2. Margins. Set margins as follows:

 Left: 1 inch
 Right: 1/2 inch
 Top: 1-1/2 inches
 Bottom: 1 inch

3. Justification and line spacing. Use left justification and single space text, except for pleas, findings and sentence (discussed later). Begin each question and answer on a separate line. Begin each question and answer 5 spaces from the left margin with 2 spaces from the Q and A to the text. Begin carry-over Q and A lines at the left margin. Type the appropriate prefix to indicate identity of a speaker, followed by a colon and two spaces.

4. Paragraphing. Utilize proper paragraphing technique when typing lengthy narratives such as military judge's instructions, counsel's arguments, and lengthy "Questions and Answers, (Q & A)." Begin a paragraph for each new line of thought. Begin each new paragraph by indenting 10 spaces. Additionally, start a new paragraph for each separate element in a list; i.e. elements of an offense, legal definitions, accused's rights, and oral stipulations.

5. Bolding. The following entries will be bolded in the record of trial:
 - a. Standard Stock Entry (SSE) for [END OF PAGE].
 - b. Names of persons present and absent.
 - c. The calling of witnesses and stages of examination.
 - d. Pleas, findings, and sentence.
 - e. SSE for insertion of the charge sheet.

6. Pagination

a. Number all pages, including the first page, ½ inch (three line spaces) from the bottom of the page.

b. If an error in numbering occurs, correct it as follows:

(1) Extra page to be inserted: Use preceding page number plus an "a", such as "19a".

(a) At the bottom of the preceding page, type:

19

(b) At the bottom of the inserted page, type:

19a

(2) Skipped number, i.e., numbers jump from 18 to 20, but nothing has been omitted from the record, on page 18, type:

18
There is no page 19

c. When transcribing, end text as close to 1 inch, but not more than 2 inches, from the bottom of the page. When typed text ends more than 2 inches from the bottom of the page, type the following in brackets, centered and bolded, below the last line of text:

[END OF PAGE]

This indicates to reviewing authorities that nothing has been omitted from the record of trial. Ensure that you do not split pleas, findings, the sentence, a "Q and A" or calling a witness and stage of examination.

7. Abbreviations. Abbreviations such as U.S., JAGC, SC, MC, and other branch designators are authorized within standard stock entries. Unless a word is actually spoken as an abbreviation within the text of your record of trial, (e.g.: U.S. Navy, USS, LNC) use only the abbreviations listed below when transcribing:

- a. Mister ----- Mr.
- b. Mistress ----- Mrs., Ms., Miss
- c. Doctor ----- Dr.

8. Capitalization. When there is only one charge and specification, "Charge" and "Specification" will be capitalized. When there is more than one charge and specification, "charges" and "specifications" will be capitalized only when referring to a specific charge or specification.

EXAMPLES:

The general nature of the Charge in this case....

Take a look at Charge I and the Specification thereunder.

The general nature of the charges in this case....

The elements of Specification 2 under Charge III are as follows:

When entering pleas and findings, "Charge(s)" and Specification(s)" will always be capitalized, regardless of how many there are.

EXAMPLES:

The accused pleads:

To the Charge and Specifications....

To the Charges and Specifications....

To Charge I and the two Specifications....

9. Numbers

Use the narrowest applicable rule.

a. Whole numbers

(1) A figure is used for a single number of 10 or more with the EXCEPTION of the first word of a sentence. (See RULE 9a(2)(a) below.)

(2) Units of measurement and time, actual or implied, are expressed in figures.

(a) Age: 6 years old; 52 years, 10 months, 6 days; a 3-year old; at the age of 3 (year implied).

(b) Clock time: 4:30 p.m.; 10 o'clock or 10 p.m.; 12 p.m. (noon); 12 a.m. (midnight); this p.m.; in the p.m.; half past 4:00. (These times would be transcribed as dictated.)

(c) Military time: 1600, 1630, 0800, 0930, etc.

(d) Time (other than clock time): 6 hours; 8 minutes; 20 seconds; 10 years; 3 months; 29 days; 7 minutes; 8 days; 4 weeks; 5 nights; 3-day UA; 15-minute recess; recess for 15 minutes.

(e) Dates: 1st of June, June 1st, 2nd of June, June 2nd, 3rd of June, June 3rd, 2 June, (as spoken).

(f) Measurement: 6 acres; 8 by 12 inches; 2 feet by 1 foot, 8 inches; 6 miles; about 10 yards; 1 gallon.

(g) Money: When monetary values are concerned and the money is a SPECIFIC amount, ALWAYS use numerals. When the amount is referred to in a GENERAL WAY, use words instead of numerals.

EXAMPLES:

Q. How much money was in the valise?

A. About a million dollars.

Q. Exactly how much?

A. $1,055,000.00

(3) Except as otherwise noted, a number less than 10 is spelled out within a sentence.

(4) Related numbers appearing at the beginning of a sentence, separated by no more than three words, are treated alike.

EXAMPLE:

Q. Eighteen or twenty beers?

(5) Numerals are spelled out at the beginning of a sentence, EXCEPT in the following instances, where figures are used:

(a) Years.

A. 1984 was a very good year.

(b) Sums of money.

A. $52.50 was the price I paid for it.

(c) Decimals.

A. 12.8 points for each question missed.

(d) Street numbers.

A. 17 Constitution Avenue.

(e) Numerical expressions beginning with "101."

Q. 101 years is a long time, isn't it?

BUT

Q. One hundred years is a long time, isn't it?

(6) Use figures with a series of three or more numbers.

(2, 12, 13, and 15)

(7) Figures will be used for related numbers, any one of which is 10 or more. The sentence will be regarded as a unit for the use of figures.

EXAMPLES:

Each of 15 major commodities (9 metal and 6 nonmetal) was in supply.

BUT

Each of nine major commodities (five metal and four nonmetal) was in supply.

OR

Petroleum came from 16 fields, of which 8 were discovered in 1956.

BUT

Petroleum came from nine fields, of which eight were discovered in 1956.

b. Fractions and mixed numbers

(1) Fractions standing alone, or if followed by "of a" or "of an" or "of the" are generally spelled out.

EXAMPLES:

One-third.

One-third of a farm.

(2) If the figure for fractions is used, it will be transcribed by separating figures with a diagonal (/) mark.

1/2-inch pipe, 1/4-mile run, 1/8-point rise

NOTE: WHEN THE MILITARY JUDGE USES FRACTIONS IN HIS INSTRUCTIONS, THESE FRACTIONS WILL BE TYPED AS FOLLOWS:

Two-thirds; three-fourths

NOTE: USE THE APOSTROPHE AFTER A FRACTION USED IN A PHRASE ABOUT FORFEITURES OR CONFINEMENT, WHERE THE "OF" HAS BEEN LEFT OUT, I.E., TWO-THIRDS' PAY PER MONTH, 4 MONTHS' CONFINEMENT, 90 DAYS' PRETRIAL CONFINEMENT.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF RECORDS OF TRIAL

1. Prefixes for identifying personnel. To speed the identification of speakers use the following prefixes:

COURT-MARTIAL PARTICIPANT	TYPED
MILITARY JUDGE	MJ:
PRESIDENT (Only when speaking as presiding officer)	PRES:
COURT MEMBER	MBR (LTJG BALL):
MEMBERS	MEMBERS:
TRIAL COUNSEL	TC:
ASSISTANT TRIAL COUNSEL	ATC:
DEFENSE COUNSEL	DC:
ASSISTANT DEFENSE COUNSEL	ADC:
INDIVIDUAL MILITARY COUNSEL	IMC:
CIVILIAN DEFENSE COUNSEL	CDC:
WITNESS (When speaking but NOT answering a question on examination.)	WIT:
ACCUSED (When speaking but NOT answering a question on examination.)	ACC:
COURT REPORTER	REPORTER:

2. Verbatim recording and transcription. Record and transcribe the testimony of witnesses and the remarks of court personnel verbatim, including slips of the tongue, false starts, interruptions, and pauses.

- a. Use two hyphens to indicate self-interruptions.

EXAMPLES:

Q. What did he tell you?

A. Well, I'm no--not really certain.

Q. When did he tell you?

A. She--He told me right then what to do.

- b. Use four hyphens when another interrupts the person speaking.

EXAMPLES:

Q. What did the commander tell you?

A. He told me that I----

DC: Objection, Your Honor, what the commander said is hearsay.

A. ----was wrong.

3. Reporter's remarks/SSEs. Enclose all remarks inserted by the reporter, and all standard stock entries, in brackets. The only exceptions are those standard stock entries calling a witness, identifying the stages of examination, identifying who is doing the questioning, and the initial SSE heading on page one that begins the record of trial. These SSEs will be bolded and unbracketed.

a. Notations by the reporter that must reflect a gesture will commence, if possible, on the same line or on the following line. Note the punctuation in the following examples.

EXAMPLES:

A. About this [holding hands in front of body] far from his face.

A. [Pointing toward accused.] That's the accused over there.

A. That's the accused over there [pointing to the accused].

TC: [Hands Prosecution Exhibits 2 and 3 for identification to the military judge.] I offer into evidence what have previously been marked as Prosecution Exhibits 2 and 3 for identification, and request that the words, ("for identification;" "FID;" or "ID" as spoken) be deleted.

b. If the gesture happens at the end of the sentence, the first word is not capitalized and the punctuation appears outside of the closing bracket.

EXAMPLES:

A. That's the accused over there [pointing toward accused].

Q. Is that the accused over there [pointing toward accused]?

Your determination of where a reporter's remark should appear, either within or outside of a particular sentence, depends solely upon when the gesture occurred in court. However, keep the gesture with the individual who performed it.

EXAMPLE:

TC: [Handing document to the military judge.]

AS OPPOSED TO

[The trial counsel handed the document to the military judge.]

c. Reporter notations and/or SSEs that are not directly related to actions performed during testimony will be typed flush with the left margin. Second and succeeding lines are also typed flush with the left margin, typing the first letter directly under the bracket above it.

EXAMPLES:

SSE [LT Smith, the challenged member, withdrew from the courtroom.]

SSE [The trial counsel did as directed.]

SSE [The trial counsel read Prosecution Exhibit 2 to the court-martial.]

4. Recesses, Openings, Closings and Adjournment. The record of trial must reflect the time (expressed in hours and minutes) and the date of each opening, closing, recess and adjournment of the court-martial and all Article 39(a) sessions.

There are a variety of SSEs utilized to note the starting and stopping of the proceedings in the record of trial. You must choose the appropriate SSE which will accurately reflect these breaks in a proceeding.

A trial begins with an Article 39(a) session, which is any independent period of the proceedings held outside the presence of the court members. The initial Article 39(a) session is noted in the record of trial, on page 1, as follows:

SSE PROCEEDINGS OF A SPECIAL COURT-MARTIAL

SSE [The military judge called the Article 39(a) session to order at Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island, at 0905 hours, 1 December 2000, pursuant to the following orders:]

SSE [Court-Martial Convening Order Number 4-00, Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island, dated 1 November 2000.]

SSE [END OF PAGE]

If there are any modifications to the convening order, they will be reflected in the Page 1 SSE, as follows:

SSE PROCEEDINGS OF A SPECIAL COURT-MARTIAL

SSE [The military judge called the Article 39(a) session to order at Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island, at 0905 hours, 1 December 2000, pursuant to the following orders:]

SSE [Court-Martial Convening Order Number 4-00, Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island, dated 1 November 2000 as amended by Court-Martial Amending Order 4A-00, Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island dated 15 November 2000.]

SSE [END OF PAGE]

If the Article 39(a) session recesses before its completion, reflect that fact in the record of trial as follows:

SSE [The session recessed at 0915 hours, 1 December 2000.]

When the Article 39(a) session is later called back to order, reflect that fact in the record of trial as follows:

SSE [The session was called to order at 0930 hours, 1 December 2000.]

The military judge will adjourn the Article 39(a) session at its conclusion. Reflect the adjournment as follows:

SSE [The session adjourned at 0945 hours, 1 December 2000.]

In a members trial, Article 39(a) sessions may be held at any time during the course of a trial. If one is held, stop typing on the page you are on and type [END OF PAGE], centered, bolded and in all caps on the next line below the last line of text (if you're not within 2 inches of the bottom of the page). Begin typing on the top of a new page, using the SSE shown above for calling an Article 39(a) session to order.

In a court-martial with members, once the military judge adjourns the original Article 39(a) session, the members will enter the courtroom and take their seats. The military judge will then call the court-martial to order. In a court-martial following election of trial by military judge alone, there are no Article 39(a) sessions because the military judge is then the court. Use the following SSE to reflect this initial meeting of the entire court-martial whether composed of members or military judge alone:

SSE [The court-martial was called to order at 0950 hours, 1 December 2000, pursuant to the orders previously inserted in the record.]

If the court-martial subsequently recesses, that fact should be reflected as follows:

SSE [The court-martial recessed at 1005 hours, 1 December 2000.]

When the court-martial comes back into session, following the above recess, that fact should be reflected as follows:

SSE [The court-martial was called to order at 1015 hours, 1 December 2000.]

There are only two occasions during a court-martial when it will close and re-open: a court-martial will "close" to allow deliberation on the accused's guilt or innocence, and if the accused is found guilty, the court-martial will "close" to deliberate on a sentence.

Use the following SSE for closing the court-martial:

SSE [The court-martial closed at 1200 hours, 1 December 2000.]

Use the following SSE to re-open a closed court-martial:

SSE [The court-martial opened at 1230 hours, 1 December 2000.]

In a court-martial with members, the military judge may refer to Article 39(a) sessions as "out-of-court" sessions. In this situation, use the SSE for opening and recessing Article 39(a) sessions.

5. Calling of witnesses

a. The record must reflect that a witness was called or recalled by the prosecution, defense or court-martial itself. For military enlisted witnesses, the SSE must state the service member's name, rating and armed force. For officer witnesses, it is also necessary to show the officer's designator, when applicable (i.e., JAGC, DC, MC, SC, CEC, etc.). For civilian witnesses, the SSE must state the person's name followed by civilian. SSEs for calling witnesses are bolded and NOT placed in brackets. The witness' rank and name will be typed in all capital letters. Type only the middle initial, not the whole middle name, unless the witness goes by a first initial and middle name (i.e. D. Sean Moore). The SSE begins flush with the left margin.

EXAMPLES (MILITARY WITNESSES):

SSE MASTER CHIEF LEGALMAN (SURFACE WARFARE/AIR WARFARE) CALVIN N. RICHARDS, U.S. Navy, was called as a witness for the prosecution, was sworn, and testified as follows:

SSE CHIEF LEGALMAN (SURFACE WARFARE) GABE L. KAPLER, U.S. Navy, was called as a witness for the defense, was sworn, and testified as follows:

SSE LIEUTENANT DON A. MARTIN, JAGC, U.S. Naval Reserve, was called as a witness for the court-martial, was sworn, and testified as follows:

SSE CHIEF YEOMAN JAMES R. JEFFERY, U.S. Coast Guard, was recalled as a witness for the court-martial, was reminded of his previous oath, and testified as follows:

EXAMPLES (CIVILIAN WITNESSES):

SSE PAUL Y. DUNCAN, civilian, was called as a witness for the prosecution, was sworn, and testified as follows:

SSE SALLY GRUMP, civilian, was called as a witness for the defense, was sworn, and testified as follows:

NOTE: NO TITLES, SUCH AS MR., MRS., MISS, OR DR. ARE USED FOR CIVILIAN WITNESSES.

b. The record must reflect the warning (if one is given) and the departure from the courtroom of each witness. If a witness is warned by the military judge prior to being excused and withdrawing from the courtroom, use the following SSE:

SSE [The witness was instructed and withdrew from the courtroom.]

c. If the accused is called as a witness, he or she will take the witness stand to testify. The calling of the accused will use the same SSE as identified in 5.a. above. Once the accused has completed his or her testimony, the military judge will direct him or her to return to his/her seat at counsel table. Use the following SSE to reflect that movement:

SSE [The accused resumed his seat at the defense table.]

6. Stages of examination

a. You must record and transcribe the proper stage of examination. The stages of examination usually follow the order below. Transcribe each stage into the record of trial in UPPER-CASE letters, bolded and centered on the page, two lines below the SSE which shows the calling of the witness, or after the previous stage of examination has ended.

EXAMPLES:

SSE DIRECT EXAMINATION

SSE CROSS-EXAMINATION

SSE REDIRECT EXAMINATION

SSE RECROSS-EXAMINATION

SSE EXAMINATION BY THE COURT-MARTIAL

b. After identifying the stage of examination, you must identify the person who conducted the examination by using one of the following SSEs as applicable.

EXAMPLES:

SSE Questions by the trial counsel:

SSE Questions by the assistant trial counsel:

SSE Questions by the defense counsel:

SSE Questions by assistant defense counsel:

SSE Questions by civilian defense counsel:

SSE Questions by individual military counsel:

SSE Questions by the military judge:

SSE Questions by (member's name):

c. Identify individual questions posed by the questioner by using a "Q."

EXAMPLE:

Q. Please state your name, rate, and armed force for the record.

d. Identify answers by the witness in response to questions posed by the questioner having control to the stage of examination by an "A."

EXAMPLE:

A. I am Seaman Danny Thomas, and I'm in the U.S. Navy.

e. Identify answers by the witness in response to questions asked by anyone else using the prefix "WIT:".

EXAMPLE:

MJ: Seaman Thomas, please speak up, I couldn't hear the last part of your answer.

WIT: Yes, sir. I said, "I'm in the U.S. Navy."

7. Standard Stock Entries. (SSEs) show movement in a courtroom, and abbreviate actions within a trial, such as swearing of a witness; reading an exhibit; etc. Except as previously noted, all SSEs will appear flush with the left margin and enclosed in brackets.

EXAMPLES:

a. Member leaving the courtroom:

SSE [Lieutenant Junior Grade Smith, the challenged member, withdrew from the courtroom.]

All members leaving the courtroom:

SSE [The members of the court-martial withdrew from the courtroom.]

b. When the military judge has instructed someone in the court-martial to do something:

SSE [The (trial counsel) (defense counsel) (accused) (court reporter) (members of the court-martial) (court-martial) (bailiff) (witness)(all persons) did as directed.]

c. Swearing:

SSE [The assistant trial counsel was sworn.]

SSE [The accused was sworn.]

SSE [The members of the court-martial were sworn.]

d. Instead of typing what is read verbatim in open court, the following SSE may be inserted:

SSE [The trial counsel read Prosecution Exhibit 2 to the court-martial.]

NOTE: STIPULATIONS MUST BE TYPED VERBATIM.

e. The military judge directs counsel to approach the bench for a sidebar conference:

SSE [The trial counsel and defense counsel did as directed.]

f. The above SSE concerning sidebars would be followed by:

SSE [The trial counsel and defense counsel resumed their respective seats at the counsel tables.]

THESE ARE THE AUTHORIZED STANDARD STOCK ENTRIES. DO NOT USE ANY OTHER LANGUAGE IN A STANDARD STOCK ENTRY.

[The trial counsel read Prosecution Exhibit to the court-martial.]

In addition to the above SSEs, the calling of a witness, stage of examination and individual conducting the examination are also considered SSEs.

Any other movement in the courtroom that is not listed above is considered to be a gesture and should be typed with the speaker prefix of the individual performing the gesture.

EXHIBITS

a. Court-martial proceedings. During the course of a trial, there are usually exhibits presented to the court-martial, which are first marked for identification. As a reporter, you should meet with counsel prior to trial and mark the exhibits so as not to delay the proceedings. In a long, contested case, however, it's inevitable that some exhibits will need to be marked during the proceedings. Marking exhibits in court should be done with pencil, preferably in the lower right hand corner of the document. If there is not room for the marking in the lower right hand corner, then mark them in the lower left or some other inconspicuous place on the document, as follows:

PE 1 for ID

OR

DE A for ID

OR

AE I

REMEMBER, APPELLATE EXHIBITS ARE NEITHER OFFERED NOR RECEIVED, SO THEY ARE NOT MARKED "FOR IDENTIFICATION."

Photographs and other documents that cannot be marked on the front should be marked on the back. Some physical items of evidence will require you to tag them with their exhibit number. Ensure you have evidence tags available to you for this purpose. Physical evidence which cannot be placed in the record of trial will have to be photographed after court, and these photographs will be placed in the record of trial.

If the reporter marks the exhibit in open court, the sponsoring counsel will announce which exhibit they are marking as follows:

"This will be Defense Exhibit A for identification."

OR

"These will be Prosecution Exhibits 5 through 8 for identification."

OR

"This will be Appellate Exhibit I."

When an exhibit, which has been marked for identification, is finally offered and received into evidence, the words, "for identification" must be crossed out. This can be accomplished in several different ways.

(1) The reporter may cross out the words in court at the direction of the military judge;

(2) The reporter may cross-out the words at the conclusion of the trial, as directed by the military judge; or

(3) The military judge will cross out the words.

b. Preparation of exhibits for the record of trial.

(1) Erase pencil markings and type or rubber-stamp the full exhibit number directly on the exhibit. The page in which the exhibit was offered, admitted and/or rejected will appear immediately below the marking. For Appellate Exhibits, use the page in which the exhibit was marked and appended.

EXAMPLES:

PROSECUTION EXHIBIT 1
OFFERED: PAGE 10
ADMITTED: PAGE 11

DEFENSE EXHIBIT C FOR IDENTIFICATION
OFFERED: PAGE 32
REJECTED: PAGE 41

APPELLATE EXHIBIT III
APPENDED: PAGE 8

Exhibits which are not of the standard 8 1/2 x 11 size, such as photographs, documents that need folding because of size, etc., will be mounted on a standard 8 1/2 x 11 sheet of plain bond paper. Photographs will be marked on the front without covering any portion of the photograph; if possible, otherwise markings may be placed on the back.

(2) Exhibits will be assembled in the following order, separated by the use of heavy stock dividers, colored, and labeled directly on the divider or with gummed labels.

- (a) Prosecution exhibits received/admitted into evidence.

Elements of the Offense

When an accused pleads guilty to any offense, the military judge conducts a providence inquiry to determine whether the accused actually believes he is guilty. Part of the inquiry requires that the elements of the offense be stated to the accused. Whenever the military judge reads the elements of the offense to the accused or the members, they will be indented 10 spaces from the left margin.

EXAMPLE:

MJ: ...Please follow along on your copy of the charge sheet as I list the elements of the offense for you. The elements are:

First, that at the time and place alleged, you wrongfully took from the possession of the true owner, the property described in the specification;

Second, that such property belonged to a certain person named or described, as alleged;

Third, that the property was of the value alleged; and Fourth, that the taking by you was with the intent to temporarily deprive the owner of the use and benefit of the property.

EXAMPLE:

MJ: The elements of Specifications 1 and 3 under Charge I are similar. In each case, the elements are:

That, during the period February to December CY-1, you knew that you had certain duties onboard U. S. Naval Base Guantanamo Bay, Cuba;

That, you were derelict in the performance of those duties;

In the case of Specification 1:

That, you were derelict in the performance of those duties, in that, on divers occasions, which means more than once, you drew your weapon from your holster, cycled the action, pointed the weapon at other Marines and pulled the trigger, thereby failing to follow weapons safety rules;

In the case of Specification 3:

That, you were derelict in your duties, in that, on divers occasions, you failed to keep your 9 millimeter service pistol in Condition 3 Weapons Status, as it was your duty to do;

In the case of both specifications:

That, this dereliction in those duties was willful on your part.

Stipulations of Fact and Testimony

Stipulations of fact and stipulations of testimony are shortcuts to introducing evidence to the court-martial.

When both sides agree to enter into a stipulation of fact, the facts contained in the stipulation cannot be contradicted by either side. For example, rather than calling in a witness and introducing into evidence a calendar to show that 25 December 1999 was a Saturday, both sides can stipulate to that fact and offer the written stipulation as evidence.

A stipulation may also be used to introduce testimony before the court-martial in lieu of calling a witness to testify. A stipulation of testimony may be rebutted.

When a stipulation of fact or testimony is offered, it is usually read out loud in court by the party offering the stipulation and is transcribed verbatim in the record of trial. When transcribing stipulations, each element of the stipulation shall begin a new paragraph.

EXAMPLE:

TC: It is hereby stipulated by myself and the defense counsel, with the express consent of the accused, that if Ensign Robert Q. Lewis, U.S. Navy, were present here in court to testify, he would testify substantially as follows:

That he is Ensign Robert Q. Lewis, U.S. Navy, assigned as the Personnel Officer at the Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island;

That he knows the accused, Yeoman Third Class Thomas L. Woogie, U.S. Navy;

That he is the custodian of the accused's service record;

That as custodian of the service record, it is his responsibility to prepare all appropriate service record entries, as well as retain the record books of all Naval Justice School staff members;

That Prosecution Exhibit 1 for identification, is a Page 601-6R from the service record of the accused, relating to a period of unauthorized absence commencing on 1 December 20CY(-1), and terminating by apprehension on 2 January 20CY;

That he prepared the exhibit on 6 January 20CY;

That all the information recorded in this document was known by him, personally, at the time the document was prepared; and

That the signature at the bottom of the document is his.

Sample Findings

Findings as to guilt or innocence of the accused are set forth in the record of trial in the same manner as pleadings; indent 10 spaces from the left margin and divide the pleading by 7 spaces from the end of the longest line. Single space between specifications of the same charge, and double space between charges. Listed below are a number of examples of findings. They are listed only to give you an idea about what the pleading should look like in the record to trial.

REMEMBER, THESE ARE ONLY SAMPLES! As a court reporter, it is your responsibility to record the pleadings verbatim, and then enter them in the record of trial in the proper format. DO NOT CHANGE WHAT WAS ACTUALLY SAID IN THE COURT-MARTIAL. RATHER, TAKE WHAT WAS SAID AND ENTER IT IN YOUR RECORD OF TRIAL IN THE PROPER BLOCKED FORMAT.

PLEAS, FINDINGS, AND SENTENCE ARE SINGLE-SPACED AND BOLDED.

EXAMPLES:

MJ: This court finds you:

Of the Charge and Specification: Not Guilty.

#####

MJ: This court finds you:

Of the Charge: Not Guilty.

Of the Specification: Not Guilty.

#####

MJ: This court finds you:

Of all Charges and Specifications: Guilty.

#####

MJ: This court finds you:

Of the Charge: Guilty.

Of Specification 1 thereunder: Guilty.

Of Specification 2 thereunder: Not Guilty.

MJ: This court finds you:

Sentence

After the court-martial has deliberated in closed session and determined an appropriate sentence, the court-martial will open. At that time, the president of the court-martial (when composed of members) or the military judge (when tried by judge alone) will announce the sentence.

The sentence is transcribed verbatim and typed single spaced, in block format and bold print. Each line of the sentence is indented 10 spaces from the left margin. Each punishment is listed on a separate line. Subsequent lines of the same punishment are indented 2 spaces below the line above it.

EXAMPLE:

PRES: Yeoman Third Class Thomas L. Woogie, U.S. Navy, it is my duty, as president of this court-martial, to inform you that this court-martial sentences you:

To be discharged from the naval service with a bad conduct discharge;
To be confined for 3 months;
To forfeit $250.00 pay per month for 3 months; and
To be reduced to the grade of pay grade E-1.

2. Binding. Each volume of a record of trial should be no more than 1.5 inches thick and bound at the top with metal or plastic fasteners. DO NOT interlace or "piggy-back" prong fasteners to create an oversized volume. When it becomes necessary to assemble Label the upper right-hand corner of DD Form 490 to reflect which copy it is, i.e., "ORIGINAL," "ACCUSED," "REVIEW" etc.

STANDARD FORMAT SUMMARIZED RECORDS OF TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

This guide is not all-inclusive. Events will occur during trial that cannot be recounted using a boilerplate (BP) or a Standard Stock Entry (SSE). Use plain language to accurately reflect such events. Remember the record must speak the truth.

To ensure uniformity of format, transcriptions of all summarized records of special and general courts-martial will follow the format and instructions contained in the following pages.

Appendices 8 and 13 and R.C.M. 1103 and 1104 in the MCM provide further guidance in preparing, assembling, and copying records of trial.

2. Margins. Set margins as follows:

Left: 1 inch
Right: 1/2 inch
Top: 1-1/2 inches
Bottom: 1 inch
3. Justification and line spacing. Use left justification and single space text, double spacing between SSEs and BPs.
4. Bolding. Bold the following entries in the record of trial:
 - a. Initial SSE on page 1.
 - b. SSE for [END OF PAGE].

- c. Names of persons present and absent (TYPED IN ALL CAPS).

[END OF PAGE]

This indicates to reviewing authorities that nothing has been omitted from the record of trial.

6. Abbreviations, grammar, punctuation, and numbers. Apply the rules for verbatim transcripts.

7. SSEs. No SSE will appear in brackets in the summarized record, with the exception of the [END OF PAGE] and [THE CHARGE SHEET FOLLOWS AND IS NOT A NUMBERED PAGE.]. The SSEs contained in the verbatim record of trial will be used in the summarized record of trial.

If one is held, stop typing on the page you are on and type [END OF PAGE], if more than 2 inches from the bottom. Begin typing on the top of a new page, using the SSE for calling the Article 39(a) session to order. When the Article 39(a) session adjourns, stop typing on the page you are on, following the rule for [END OF PAGE]. Begin typing on a new page, using the SSE for calling the court to order. 12. Assembly. Assemble the summarized record of trial in the same manner as a verbatim record of trial.

BOILERPLATES - SUMMARIZED RECORD OF TRIAL

Boilerplates (BPs) are used to summarize the general proceedings of a court-martial. You must place the boilerplates in the order in which they occur in open court. Normally a boilerplate will not be broken into separate sentences. There are a few exceptions to this rule and those few will be identified.

Parentheses () used around a group of words, a word, punctuation, or a letter indicate that you will need to determine what the proper information is, i.e., (C)charge(s), if there is only one charge or a specific charge, it would be reflected as "Charge or Charge I," or more than one charge would be reflected as "charges."

Brackets [] used around a group of words or a word indicate that you will need to fill in the information, i.e., [Command] would be filled in as "Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island".
