

United States Department of Agriculture

Foreign Agricultural Service

Internship Opportunity

The United States Department of Agriculture, Foreign Agricultural Service office in Ankara is offering internship opportunities throughout the whole year for interested students.

What you would be doing

The mission of FAS is to expand opportunities for U.S. food, agricultural, forestry, and fisheries products and to promote world food security. The office primarily focuses on reporting on commodity and trade developments, coordinating trade policy issues with host government officials, and promoting the sale of U.S. food, agricultural, forestry, and fisheries products.

Internship duties will consist of but will not be limited to the following areas:

- Conducting market research
- Assisting companies seeking information
- Organizing Agricultural Events
- Administrative work

Who is eligible

In order to participate in this program you must meet the following qualifications:

- Currently enrolled in a university
- Fluency in Turkish and English
- Availability for at least 3 months
- Good communication and computer skills

Selection is made without regard to considerations of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, marital status, or handicap. Every intern has to receive a positive security check by the U.S. Government prior to the start of an internship.

Payment

This internship is a volunteer service. Federal regulations prohibit financial compensation. An official letter of recommendation will be provided. Most Universities will award 3-6 credits for a completed internship.

Insurance

No Federal Government liability is assumed.

How to apply

Your application must include:

- Cover Letter: Why you want to be an intern, what you have to offer and how you hope to benefit from the internship and the period of availability
- Resume: Future goals, computer skills, past experience, including academic accomplishments, citizenship and student status.

To apply please submit your application and CV with photo to InternApplication@hotmail.com
Successful candidates will be notified by telephone or e-mail.