FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pōhakuloa Training Area to allow bow hunting this weekend

POHAKULOA TRAINING AREA, Hawaii—Pōhakuloa Training Area will open the Keamuku Training Area to bow hunting of goats and pigs, Nov. 17-18.

Check in time for hunting in the Keamuku is 5 a.m., and hunters must check out by 7:30 p.m. No early access to hunting areas is permitted.

All hunters must check in and check out at one of the following stations: the Kilohana Hunter's Check-in Station located between Mile Markers 43 and 44 on Saddle Road; the Huluhulu Hunter's Check-in Station located at the intersection of Mauna Kea Access Road and Saddle Road—near Mile Marker 28; or the Puanahulu Check-in Station located near Mile Marker 14 on Mamalahoa Highway.

Hunting passes will be available at the check-in stations Friday after 5 p.m. Hunters should place the pass on their vehicle dashboard. Hunting passes are only valid for Saturday and Sunday.

Hunters should enter and exit the Keamuku through gates 2, 7 and 10 on Saddle Road or gates 11 and 12 on Mamalahoa Highway. The designated parking area is inside the gate entrances. Hunters should not park alongside the highways at any time.

PTA is extremely dry and fires can start easily. No smoking or open flames are allowed in the training and hunting areas. Please report all fires to the PTA Federal Fire Department at 969-2447 or 969-2448. Additionally, no firearms, alcoholic beverages, all-terrain vehicles, dirt bikes or recreational vehicles are allowed in the training and hunting areas. Please close all gates when entering or leaving hunting areas.

For more information, call the Hunter's Hotline at 969-3474 or the U.S. Army Garrison-Hawaii Public Affairs Office at (808) 656-3160 or (808) 226-2706.
