

John F. Finston
of California

John F. Finston, the regulatory appointee, is a Deputy Commissioner for California's Department of Insurance, an insurance regulator, and an attorney in San Francisco, California. John was a partner with SNR Denton LLP and chaired the firm's Insurance Regulatory Practice Group. Prior to joining the California Department of Insurance he was in private practice focusing on insurance, reinsurance, and insurance regulation for more than 30 years.