

Miles Buechler,- Miles Buechler is a recent addition to the Los Alamos technical staff. He earned his Bachelors Degree at Montana State University and participated in the 2002 Los Alamos Dynamics Summer School. He then attended Virginia Tech where he earned his Masters Degree working on variational modeling and experimental characterization of electromechanically coupled materials. His current research interests include multi-functional material modeling and characterization as well as damage detection and prognosis.

Contact Information:

Miles A Buechler
MS T006
Los Alamos National Laboratory
Los Alamos, NM 87545
Phone: 505-663-5181
buechler@lanl.gov