Personnel - General

SALE, POSSESSION, AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Summary. Command leadership will promote responsible attitudes by those who drink and acceptance of those who do not drink. It is the responsibility of each individual, military and civilian, to conform to Army standards of conduct and performance of duty.

Applicability. This regulation applies to all units reporting directly to this headquarters, staff offices and departments, and Fort Knox Partners in Excellence.

Suggested Improvements. The proponent of this regulation is the Directorate of Human Resources. Users are invited to send suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) through command channels to ASAP, DHR (IMSE-KNX-HRA), 94 Pershing Drive, Fort Knox, Kentucky 40121-4215.

1. Purpose. To establish installation policies on responsible use of alcohol and the sale and possession of alcoholic beverages.

2. References.

- a. AR 690-700, Personnel Relations and Services, 30 September 1992.
- b. AR 215-1, Military Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Programs, and Nonappropriated Fund Instrumentalities, 31 July 2007 (RAR 001, 6 October 2008).
- c. Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), 2008 Edition.
- d. AR 600-85, Army Substance Abuse Program, 2 February 2009.
- e. Kentucky Revised Statutes.

3. Underage Drinking. Commonwealth of Kentucky statutes prohibit individuals under 21 years of age from purchasing, possessing, or consuming alcoholic beverages. On post, the first general officer in the chain of command may grant an exception to the policy against drinking under the age of 21 for Soldiers. This authority is limited to closely supervised activities, such as traditional toasts on special occasions. This authority must be judiciously exercised.

---

*This regulation supersedes Fort Knox Reg 600-6, 29 March 2001.

4. Drinking on Duty. Soldiers and civilian employees are prohibited from being served or consuming alcoholic beverages while on duty. Between 0730 and 1630, Monday through Friday, alcohol servers on post will remind any patron in military uniform of this policy. The first general officer in the chain of command may grant exceptions to the policy against drinking on duty for all personnel for special occasions such as organizational days and holiday parties per AR 215-1, paragraph 10-1c(2). In addition, although underage drinkers may, with permission, drink toasts, they cannot consume alcohol beverages (which include malt beverages) at activities such as organizational days or promotion parties. Intoxication, fighting, loud music, and other nuisance behavior will not be tolerated.

5. Drinking Areas.

a. Off post, Kentucky State law (KRS 222.202) prohibits the consumption of alcoholic beverages in public places and private or public conveyances. Public places and private or public conveyances include, but are not limited to, bus depots, laundromats, public streets, parks, parking lots, automobiles (applies to both drivers and passengers), taxicabs, and busses. The prohibition does not apply to a public place with a license to sell alcohol by the drink.

b. On post, KRS 222.202 will be enforced by military police through the Assimilative Crimes Act, 18 USC 13. The consumption of alcoholic beverages in public places and private or public conveyances is prohibited unless it is a place authorized to sell alcohol by the drink, i.e., through a Morale, Welfare, and Recreation vendor or the location of a special event specifically approved for alcohol consumption by the first general officer in the chain of command.

6. Other Conduct. Excessive use of alcohol by Soldiers and DA Civilian employees must be discouraged. Conduct encouraging consumption of alcohol, including drinking contests, using alcohol as an initiation, drinking as punishment, or collecting and stacking of alcohol containers by individuals in facilities which serve alcoholic beverages, is prohibited on post. Individuals responsible for serving alcoholic beverages will be thoroughly familiar with this policy and will have a copy of this regulation posted where alcoholic beverages are served. A synopsis of alcohol-related offenses is enclosed.

7. Responsibilities/Penalties. The responsibility for enforcing this policy rests with commanders, leaders, and supervisors at all levels. These prohibitions apply to all Soldiers and DA Civilian employees at Fort Knox. Any violations of these provisions by DA personnel are punishable under UCMJ or the Civilian Personnel regulations provided at Appendix A of this regulation.
