									A fire burned about 200 acres of brush in an area 3.5 miles south of Makawao on the island of Maui. The fire caused no serious injuries or property damage, but did come close to several homes in Omaopio. Fire officials said that the blaze appeared to have been deliberately set.
Hawaii County 38 SW Hilo		02	1929HST 2230HST		0	0			Heavy Rain
									Heavy showers and isolated thunderstorms, associated with remnants from Hurricane Darby being enhanced by an upper trough, caused ponding of roadways, and small stream and drainage ditch flooding in the Kau District on the Big Island of Hawaii. There were no reports of serious property damage or injuries.
Hawaii County 16 NE Kailua Kona to Captain Cook		03	0440HST 1220HST		0	0			Flash Flood
									The combination of an upper trough and remnants from Hurricane Darby resulted in heavy showers and thunderstorms impacting the lee side of the Big Island of Hawaii. Excessive runoff forced the closure of 5 schools, where some classrooms were flooded. The flash flooding also closed several roads for a time because of rock slides and deep ponding. Estimates of damages were not available. No serious injuries were reported.
