

NCUA Regulatory Review 2013

NCUA reviews all of its existing regulations every three years. The NCUA's Office of General Counsel (OGC) maintains a rolling review schedule that identifies one-third of NCUA's regulations to be reviewed each year. OGC provides notice to the public of those regulations to be reviewed so the public may comment. NCUA will review the following regulations in 2013.

711	Management Official Interlocks
712	Credit Union Service Organizations
713	Fidelity Bond and Insurance Coverage for Federal Credit Unions
714	Leasing
715	Supervisory Committee Audits and Verifications
716	Privacy of Consumer Financial Information
717	Fair Credit Reporting
721	Incidental Powers
722	Appraisals
723	Member Business Loans
724	Trustees and Custodians of Certain Tax-Advantaged Savings Plans
725	National Credit Union Administration Central Liquidity Facility
740	Accuracy of Advertising and Notice of Insured Status
741	Requirements for Insurance
745	Share Insurance and Appendix
747	Administrative Actions, Adjudicative Hearings, Rules of Practice and Procedure, and Investigations

NCUA's goal is to ensure that all regulations are clear and easy to understand. NCUA welcomes comments in this regard as well as comments suggesting substantive regulatory changes. Anyone wishing to provide comments on the above regulations should submit them by August 5, 2013. Comments may be e-mailed to OGCMAIL@NCUA.GOV or mailed to Regulatory Review 2013, Office of General Counsel, National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314-3428. Please include the words "Regulatory Review 2013" in the subject line.

NCUA's regulatory review process is discussed in NCUA Interpretive Ruling and Policy Statements (IRPS) 87-2, 03-2, and 13-1 (effective February 2013) located in the IRPS section of NCUA's website. NCUA also may review or revise regulations through processes outside of the subject periodic review. In fact, some of the above regulations are already under review. NCUA publishes a regulatory agenda in the Federal Register every May and November in voluntary compliance with Executive Order 12866.
