

TAXPAYER ADVOCATE SERVICE IS HERE TO HELP

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is your voice at the IRS. Our job is to ensure that every taxpayer is treated fairly, and that you know and understand your rights.

We offer free help to guide you through the often confusing process of resolving tax problems that you haven't been able to solve on your own.

THE WORST THING YOU CAN DO IS NOTHING AT ALL!

WHEN TO COME TO US

First, try to resolve your problem with the IRS on your own. But if you can't, then come to us. TAS can help you if:

- Your problem with the IRS is causing financial difficulties for you, your family, or your business.
- You face (or your business is facing) an immediate threat of adverse action.
- You have tried repeatedly to contact the IRS, but no one has responded, or the IRS hasn't responded by the date promised.

We will do everything we can to get your problem resolved and will stay with you every step of the way. We have offices in every state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. Our advocates are all experienced with the IRS, so we know how to work with the IRS to get your problem resolved.

HOW TO REACH A TAXPAYER ADVOCATE

- Call the phone number listed in this brochure for the Taxpayer Advocate Service office nearest you.
- Call our toll-free line at 1-877-777-4778.
- File IRS Form 911, Request for Taxpayer Advocate Service Assistance (And Application for Taxpayer Assistance Order) with the Taxpayer Advocate Service. You can also ask an IRS employee (in person or over the phone) to complete the form on your behalf.

Form 911 is available by phone at 1-800-829-3676 or on the IRS website at www.irs.gov. Fax or mail this completed form, or any other correspondence, to one of the Taxpayer Advocate Service offices listed in this brochure.

Address and phone numbers may change, but the latest information is always available on the TAS website at www.irs.gov/uac/Taxpayer-Advocate-Service-6.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT FROM MY TAXPAYER ADVOCATE?

If you qualify for our help, you will be assigned to one advocate who will be with you at every turn. Your advocate will listen to you, help you understand what needs to be done, and stay with you until your problem is resolved.

You can expect your advocate to give you:

- His or her name, phone number, and employee number
- Courteous and confidential service
- Timely acknowledgement
- An impartial and independent review of your problem
- Timeframes for action
- Updates on progress
- Advice on how to prevent future federal tax problems

WHAT INFORMATION SHOULD I PROVIDE TO MY TAXPAYER ADVOCATE?

- Your name, address, and Social Security number, or the employer identification number issued by the IRS
- Your phone number and best times to call
- The type of tax return and tax year(s) involved
- A description of your problem or hardship, how you previously tried to resolve the problem, and the IRS office(s) you contacted previously

If you want to authorize another person to discuss or receive information about your case, send IRS Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, or Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization to your taxpayer advocate. You can get these forms at most local IRS offices, on the IRS website at www.irs.gov, or by calling 1-800-829-3676.

IS THE INFORMATION I PROVIDE TO TAS CONFIDENTIAL?

TAS is independent within the IRS. The law requires each TAS office to secure and maintain means of communication independent of other IRS offices. Each local office has a separate phone, fax, and mailing address.

We have the discretion to not disclose your information to the IRS. In general, however, to provide you with assistance or relief, TAS will likely have to disclose the information to an IRS employee or employees.

HOW ELSE DOES THE TAXPAYER ADVOCATE SERVICE HELP TAXPAYERS?

“The TAS employee’s job is not done when he or she closes out a particular case. Taxpayer Advocate Service employees have, as part of their statutory job description, the responsibility to think systemically about that case.”

NINA E. OLSON,
NATIONAL TAXPAYER ADVOCATE

Systemic Advocacy: What Do We Do?

Systemic Advocacy is the organization within the Taxpayer Advocate Service that addresses systemic problems. While Case Advocacy fulfills the TAS mission of resolving taxpayer problems, Systemic Advocacy completes the TAS mission by recommending changes that prevent the problems from happening again.

Systemic Advocacy:

- Addresses the issues that impact multiple taxpayers
- Works with individuals, businesses, and nonprofits
- Analyzes IRS systems, policies, and procedures
- Assesses taxpayer burden and taxpayer rights
- Proposes solutions or legislative changes
- Monitors the solutions

The Office of Systemic Advocacy works with the IRS to resolve issues through a variety of initiatives. For example, in collaboration with the IRS, we have addressed problems with IRS procedures relating to identity theft, penalties, and collection actions.

How Can We Help You? If you are aware of an IRS process or procedure that may be causing problems for multiple taxpayers, let us know! Individuals, businesses, tax professionals, and all interested parties can submit systemic issues to TAS via our Systemic Advocacy Management System (SAMS).

Go to www.irs.gov/uac/Taxpayer-Advocate-Service-6, click on the link "Report a Systemic Problem," and follow the instructions for submitting an issue to SAMS. You can also submit an issue by calling 1-800-829-3676 to obtain Form 14411, Systemic Advocacy Issue Submission Form, and faxing it to 202-622-3125. Systemic Advocacy will analyze the problem and determine the next steps to resolve it. Keep in mind that issues should affect many taxpayers - please don't submit an individual problem affecting only one taxpayer.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics: Taxpayers whose incomes are below a certain level may get help from a Low Income Taxpayer Clinic (LITC) for free or a small fee. Some clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues. Some clinics provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. Clinics are independent from the IRS. For more information and to find a clinic near you, check the LITC page at www.irs.gov/uac/Low-Income-Taxpayer-Clinic or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. You can also get this publication at your local IRS office or by calling 1-800-829-3676.

Taxpayer Advocacy Panel: Taxpayers have an opportunity to provide direct input to the IRS through the Taxpayer Advocacy Panel (TAP). TAP is an independent panel of citizen volunteers who listen to taxpayers, identify taxpayers' issues, and make suggestions for improving IRS service and customer satisfaction. Contact TAP at www.improveirs.org.

TAXPAYER RIGHTS

As a taxpayer, you have rights that the IRS must abide by in its dealings with you. Our tax toolkit at www.TaxpayerAdvocate.irs.gov is a first step toward understanding your rights.
