Teleconference: “Bringing Your Internationally Adopted Child to the United States” (Final Steps in the Adoption Process)

Thursday October 13, 2011 @ 1:30 pm (CST)

The USCIS National Benefits Center (NBC) invites any adoptive parents, adoption service providers and any other interested parties to participate in a national stakeholder meeting on Thursday, October 13, 2011 at 1:30pm (CST). The purpose of this engagement is to provide information regarding the steps that should occur with USCIS after a family returns home to the United States with their adopted child.

Adoptive Parents and Adoption Service Providers

This session will have a specific focus to adoption service providers and adoptive parents relating to the international adoption process. During the session, USCIS will review the final steps in the adoption process which happen after you bring your internationally adopted child to the United States, and provide contact information and resources to aide in the process to ensure your child receives U.S. Citizenship and all the benefits that they are eligible for.

To Participate in the Session

Any interested parties may participate in this event by telephone. To respond to this invitation, please contact Community Relations Officer Ya-Mei Chen at nbc.communityrelationsofficer@dhs.gov by October 11, 2011. Please reference NBC Adoption Teleconference in the subject line of your e-mail and include your full name, the organization you represent and if you would like to be on NBC's stakeholder list in the body of the e-mail.

If you need additional information, you may contact Ya-Mei Chen at nbc.communityrelationsofficer@dhs.gov

We look forward to helping you ensure your child gains all of the benefits for which they are eligible for!
