Message from the Army Chief of Staff

SHARP Program: I AM THE FORCE BEHIND THE FIGHT

What is the difference between sexual harassment and sexual assault?

Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment
involves verbal,
nonverbal, and
physical behaviors

Sexual Assault

Sexual Assault involves sexual contact characterized by use of force

- Harassment includes but is not limited to any offensive conduct such as slurs, jokes, or other verbal, nonverbal or physical conduct that has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, offensive, or hostile environment.
- Workplace harassment based on race, religion, color, sex, national origin, age (40 and over), disability, genetic information, reprisal, or other impermissible basis is not acceptable in either the military or civilian ranks.

- ❑ Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination.

- ❑ Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
 - Submission to or rejection of is made a term or condition of a person's job, pay, career
 - Submission to or rejection of is used as a basis for career or employment decisions
 - Conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment

- ❑ Sexual assault: intentional sexual contact characterized by use of force, physical threat or abuse of authority or when the victim does not or cannot consent; sexual assault can occur without regard to gender, spousal relationship, or age of victim
 - Consent will not be deemed or construed to mean the failure by the victim to offer physical resistance.
 - Consent is not given when a person uses force, threat of force or coercion, or when the victim is asleep, incapacitated, or unconscious.

AR 600-20, Paragraph 8-4

Sexual Harassment Affects Men and Women

- ❑ Who do you think has experienced sexual harassment in the Army? Of those surveyed in the ARI Human Relations 2009 Operational Troops Survey....
 - Male officers: 40%
 - Female officers: 60%
 - Male enlisted Soldiers: 50%
 - Female enlisted Soldiers: 70%

- ❑ FY10-06-05 Army Civilian Attitude Survey – Harassment
 - 8% of 6,639 Non-Supervisors
 - 6% of 1,302 Supervisors

Sexual Assault is a Crime

Army sexual assault data for FY2011:

- ❑ 1,695 Reported Cases of Sexual Assault
 - 1,394 Unrestricted Reports
 - 301 Restricted Reports
- ❑ 53% of sexual assaults were “Blue on Blue”

Bottom line: Sexual assault is a crime that is endangering the Army from the inside out.

What's the Impact?

How does sexual harassment and sexual assault affect Soldiers and civilians in their units and communities?

It undermines the strength of our Army and fundamentally goes against the Warrior Ethos, the Army Civilian Corps Creed, and Army Values

Individual

- Isolation
- Depression
- Degrading of individual
- Difficulty with trust
- Excessive absenteeism
- Loss of career
- Post Traumatic Stress Disorder

Unit

- Loss of unit cohesion
- Inability to accomplish goals/mission
- Decreased unit readiness
- Low morale
- Excessive absenteeism
- Loss of personnel

Community

- Loss of safety
- Diminishes community relations
- Instability

- Degradation to community

Bottom line: Sexual harassment and sexual assault endanger the lives of individuals and threaten the Army's mission.

- ❑ If we know that sexual harassment and sexual assault are wrong, why do these behaviors continue?
- ❑ Answer: Because we as a society allow it to happen.
- ❑ As leaders, why is it important for us to stop sexual harassment and sexual assault?
- ❑ Answer: We all have a responsibility to take action to change our culture to eliminate an “enemy that lies within our ranks.” (CSA General Casey, SHARP Summit 2010)

We are all leaders, and as leaders there is no such thing as a passive bystander. Each of us is either enabling sexual harassment and sexual assault or standing up to stop it.

Why Prevention?

- ❑ As a society, the Army does not tolerate crime or mistreatment of its Soldiers and civilians
- ❑ Army's Standards of Conduct apply equally to all Soldiers
- ❑ Prevention
 - Attacks the issue at the earliest point
 - Makes life safer on and off post
 - Aligns with and reinforces Army Values
 - Keeps the focus on the mission
 - Enhances unit camaraderie
 - Maintains goodwill

Army Policy on Sexual Harassment

- ❑ Sexual harassment is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
- ❑ Sexual harassment destroys teamwork and negatively affects combat readiness.
- ❑ Army leadership at all levels will be committed to creating an environment conducive to maximum productivity and respect for human dignity.
- ❑ The success of the mission can be achieved only in an environment free of sexual harassment for all personnel.
- ❑ The Army's SHARP policies apply without regard to a person's rank, age, gender, and are sexual orientation neutral. A person's sexual orientation is a personal and private matter.

Types of Sexual Harassment

- ❑ Quid Pro Quo/Sexual Coercion: (“This for That”) Conditions placed on an individual’s career in return for sexual favors

- ❑ Hostile Environment: Subjected to offensive, unwanted and unsolicited comments, or behaviors of a sexual nature. If these behaviors unreasonably interfere with an individual’s performance then the environment is classified as hostile

Desensitization doesn't make it right!

Sexual Harassment Behaviors

- ❑ A civilian must contact the EEO Office within 45 days of the harassment to initiate a complaint of discrimination. If the harassment is ongoing, the most recent instance must have occurred within 45 days of contact with the EEO Office.

- ❑ Any civilian employee under the direct supervision of a commanding officer or officer in charge of a military unit, vessel, facility, or area of the Army may use an alternate procedure for addressing allegations of sexual harassment.
 - Title 10 U.S. Code Section 1561 is a civilian option for addressing sexual harassment concerns involving military commanders.
 - It is separate from the Army's EEO complaint procedure.
 - Generally, both (EEO and U.S. Code Section 1561) procedures can be conducted simultaneously.

- Have sexual favors been demanded, requested, or suggested?
- Does the behavior create a hostile or offensive environment?
- Would a reasonable person react the same way to this incident or behavior?

Legal Ramifications (Military)

- ❑ Sexual Harassment is punishable under UCMJ
 - Article 15 (Non-judicial Punishment)
 - Courts-Martial
 - Physical contact such as groping and fondling constitutes sexual assault and is punishable under UCMJ, and other Federal and local civilian laws

- ❑ Administrative Actions:
 - Counseling

 - Denial of privileges

 - Direct approach

Leslie Davis, a civilian, works in the “cube farm” environment of the in-processing center. One day, SSG Bill Evans stopped by SGT Mark Fields’ cubicle and they began a sexually explicit exchange about Leslie. Leslie Davis did not hear any of it, but another employee (SPC Weaver), sitting unseen in the adjacent cubicle, heard the comments.

Does this constitute sexual harassment?

Yes! Offensive, unwanted, and unsolicited comments or behaviors of a sexual nature can constitute a hostile environment. It does not matter that SPC Weaver was not the object of the comments, nor that they did not intend for SPC Weaver to hear.

Mr. Williams is a civilian who services IT equipment at an Forward Operating Base in Iraq. CPT Switzer is the commander for B Company, in the Signal Battalion. One evening after working out together, CPT Switzer says “let’s go to my hooch and talk.” When they get there, CPT Switzer takes off her uniform and walks around in her bra and panties. Mr. Williams says that he needs to go back to his office to do some work. CPT Switzer says, “What happens here stays here,” and continues to walk towards Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams insists that he has to get back to the office. The next day, he avoids CPT Switzer.

Does this constitute sexual harassment?

Yes! Mr. Williams indicated by his comments and his behavior the next day that CPT Switzer’s behavior was unwelcome and unwanted.

PFC Doe reported a sexual harassment incident he experienced to his platoon leader. The 2LT said, “Well, I’ve never heard any such complaint about SGT Jones before. I don’t think he meant any harm so, I’m going to let it slide this time.”

Evaluate the Officer’s response.

An Army leader is obligated to handle complaints far more actively than simply deciding not to bother with them.

Carla Stephens is the 17-year-old daughter of SFC Olsen from Ft Bragg, NC. While at the Post Exchange one summer day, Carla and her friend, Brittney, decide to have lunch. When Brittney bends down to pick up some change she dropped, PFC Allen, comments on the tattoo on her lower back. Just then, SPC King walks by and points to Carla and says “I’d like to put some ink on that!” Carla looks offended and says, “What do you mean by that?” SPC King responds, “Aw girl, you know what I mean; don’t be playing like you’re all innocent.” When she asks him what unit he’s from, he ignores her and walks away.

Does this constitute sexual harassment?

Yes! SPC King’s suggestive comments are clearly unwelcome, unwanted and sexual in nature. The Army’s policy on sexual harassment covers Family members. Soldiers are on duty 24/7.

Learning Check
