

Socioeconomic Consequences

Transportation and Traffic

- Additional training BCTs would increase military convoys in the areas near the Cantonment
- Additional stationing BCTs would increase traffic back-ups at the installation gates and turning lanes along Highway 54
- Temporary closures of Highway 506 may increase

Airspace Use and Management

- The airspace in the region of influence would be constrained for non-commercial aircraft

Noise

- Large caliber weapon firing on ranges may result in increased noise complaints

Socioeconomic

- Increase in stationed Soldiers would increase demands for housing, schooling, and medical services
- Increase in stationed Soldiers would increase spending on services and goods in the surrounding areas

