RC TALKING POINTS

NAVY RESERVE: READY NOW. ANYTIME, ANYWHERE Monthly Communication Priority: Force Multiplier

Our flexibility, responsiveness, and ability to serve across a wide spectrum of operations clearly enhance the Navy Total Force; act as a true multiplier; and provide unique skill sets toward fulfilling Navy's requirements in an increasingly uncertain world.

- The Navy's Maritime Strategy states it is just as important to prevent wars as it is to win wars. That is done through our worldwide presence, our well-trained Sailors, and our very capable ships, airplanes, and submarines."
- Naval Operations Concept 2010 (NOC 10) describes when, where and how U.S. naval forces will contribute to enhancing security, preventing conflict and prevailing in war in order to guide Maritime Strategy implementation in a manner consistent with national strategy.
- NOC 10 articulates the ways naval forces are employed to achieve the strategy conveyed in A Cooperative Strategy for 21st Century Seapower (CS-21), our Maritime Strategy. NOC 10 and CS-21 are must-reads for all Sailors.
- The Navy Total Force Vision for the 21st Century (NTF 21) and NOC 10 recognize our Total Force, Active and Reserve Sailors and Navy civilians, as the Navy's most important resource and the critical component to meeting the demands of CS-21.
- Sailors are Sailors, capabilities are capabilities and forces are forces – with no distinction made as to whether they reside in the Active or Reserve component. We truly are one Navy today!
- Our readiness and performance during the nine years since 9/11 has earned the Navy Reserve a reputation as a reliable provider of flexible force options, scalable with respect to capability, capacity, and legal authorities.
- We provide a critical part of our Navy's rotational forces, where our forward posture is a cost-effective means of proactively influencing events and responding to crises. When required, these naval forces can be rapidly reinforced by other naval forces surged from globally dispersed locations – and from either component.
- While we strive to make our deployments periodic and predictable, our ability to surge forces when needed to prevent and win wars is a true force multiplier. It's how we earned our Navy Reserve Force Motto:

Ready Now. Anytime, Anywhere.

Influential Leaders and Employers are sought for Leaders to Sea Program

The Leaders to Sea program offers influential leaders and employers from the Navy Weeks 2011 communities an outstanding opportunity to spend one to two days on board a U.S. Navy aircraft carrier. Designed to cultivate enduring community relationships across the country these civic leaders will find the embark experience highly enlightening.

The goal is to have leaders on the carrier embark at least six months prior to their cities' scheduled Navy Week.

RCC commanding officers are requested to forward candidate names to Navy Reserve Forces Command Public Affairs Officer Cmdr. Caroline Tetschner no later than five months prior to the scheduled Navy Week.
