SUBJECT : Cancellation of the First Reallotment for the Client Assistance, Supported Employment, and Independent Living, Part B Programs

CONTENT : The first reallotments for the Client Assistance, Supported Employment and the Independent Living, Part B Programs, originally scheduled for July 27 and August 9, 1993, have been cancelled. The reallotments were cancelled because funds were not relinquished by any State agency.

The first reallotment under the Basic Support Program is still Scheduled for August 18, 1993. RSA expects funds to be available for reallotment in that program. The second scheduled reallotment for the Client Assistance Program is August 27 and for the Supported Employment and the Independent Living, Part B Programs it is September 15.

Grantees are reminded to inform their respective RSA Regional Offices as to whether they are requesting additional funds, relinquishing funds or not requesting a change to the award level by the due dates established in Information Memorandum 93-20, dated June 22, 1993. The RSA Regional Offices will submit this information to RSA Central Office for the second reallotment process.
