SUBJECT: FY 1998 Annual Grant Award and the Annual Allotment Table for the Independent Living, Part B, Supported Employment, Client Assistance, and Protection and Advocacy of Individual Rights Programs

CONTENT: Attached are the FY 1998 annual grant awards and Annual Allotment Tables for the Independent Living, Part B, Supported Employment, Client Assistance, and Protection and Advocacy of Individual Rights Programs based on the 1998 Appropriation Act. These funds are allotted from October 1, 1997 through September 30, 1998.

The FY 1998 appropriation levels for the RSA formula programs, except the Basic Support Program, less the mandatory set asides provided for minorities under Section 21 of the Rehabilitation Act and for technical assistance as provided under Section 509 of the Rehabilitation Act, are as follows:

Independent Living, Part B	$21,640,410
Supported Employment	$37,770,480
Client Assistance	$10,714,000
Protection and Advocacy of Individual Rights	$ 9,715,900

The minimum allotments for States and Territories increased this Federal fiscal year under the Client Assistance and Protection and Advocacy of Individual Rights Programs. Under the Client Assistance Program, the minimum allotment for States is $108,848 and $48,982 for Territories. Under the Protection and Advocacy Program, the minimum allotment for States is $105,884 and $52,942 for Territories.

Commissioner, RSA
